Modernization Of China's Agricultural Production Organizations Cao Yang,2023-03-10 This book constructs a new theoretical framework for understanding contemporary Chinese agricultural production organizations from the perspective of promoting farmers realization of substantial freedom and feasible ability The new theoretical framework deepens and expands the theory of agricultural modernization and production organizations The book discusses the multi symbiosis pattern of agricultural production organizations in contemporary China from macro and micro economics perspectives Based on the peasant household economy this multi symbiosis organizational structure co exists and interweaves with various forms of economic organizations The book points out that this multi symbiosis organizational structure is the result of free choice of the majority of farmers since the reform and opening up in turn it also provides a broader organizational and institutional space for farmers diversified choices The book predicts that China s agricultural production organization networking will gradually move towards networking based on diversification and also form networked organization groups Local Level Planning And Rural Development: Alternative Strategies United Nations Asian And Pacific Development Inst,1986

Conflict Resolution Through Non-violence: Development without destruction K. D. Gangrade,Rameshwar Prasad Misra,1990 Beyond Ujamaa in Tanzania Goran Hyden,2023-11-10 Beyond Ujamaa in Tanzania Underdevelopment and an Uncaptured Peasantry explores the challenges of development and underdevelopment in Africa with a focus on Tanzania s experience during its early socialist years The book critiques the dominant ideologies of development whether capitalist or socialist as being rooted in Western industrial paradigms that often fail to address the realities of pre capitalist African societies It argues that the underdevelopment in Africa is not solely due to excessive penetration by global capitalism but also to capitalism s inability to dismantle the resilient pre capitalist structures in many rural societies The author highlights the role of the Tanzanian peasantry whose economic and social autonomy often resists the centralizing tendencies of modern development presenting them not as mere appendages to the global economy but as key players with their own modes of production and unique societal structures The book is grounded in over a decade of fieldwork and engagement with rural Tanzanian communities enriched by the author s fluency in Swahili and deep involvement in local life It argues for a more nuanced approach to studying African societies one that goes beyond Western assumptions and models By placing the peasant mode of production at the center of analysis the study challenges conventional wisdom and suggests that the primary development challenge in Africa lies not with multinational corporations but with understanding and working within the dynamics of the smallholder peasant economy The author also reflects on the limitations of conventional social science research and calls for greater involvement in the lived realities of the communities studied emphasizing the need for research methods that are sensitive to local contexts and values The book combines academic critique field observations and a focus on the epistemological biases of Western scholarship to present a compelling argument for rethinking development in Africa This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1980 Peasants, Culture and Indigenous Peoples Rodolfo Stavenhagen, 2012-11-07 This last volume in a trilogy published on the occasion of the 80th birthday of Rodolfo Stavenhagen professor emeritus of El Colegio de Mexico includes eight essays on Peasants Culture and Indigenous Peoples Critical Issues Basic Needs Peasants and the Strategy for Rural Development 1976 Cultural Rights a Social Science Perspective 1998 The Structure of Injustice Poverty Marginality Exclusion and Human Rights 2000 What Kind of Yarn From Color Line to Multicolored Hammock Reflections on Racism and Public Policy 2001 The United Nations Special Rapporteur on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples 2012 A Report on the Human Rights Situation of Indigenous Peoples in Asia 2007 Report on the Impact of Megaprojects on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples 2003 and Study Regarding the Best Practices to Implement the Recommendations of the Special Rapporteur 2007 These texts address human rights issues especially those that arose when Stavenhagen was serving as United Nations special rapporteur on the rights of indigenous peoples Resettling America Gary J.
