From Place To Place:

A Man's Place John Tosh, 2007-01-01 Based on family records and didactic texts this book reconstructs how men of the Victorian middle class experienced the demands of an exacting domestic code and how they negotiated its contradictions

Place/No-Place in Urban Asian Religiosity Joanne Punzo Waghorne, 2016-07-15 This book discusses Asia's rapid pace of urbanization with a particular focus on new spaces created by and for everyday religiosity. The essays in this volume covering topics from the global metropolises of Singapore, Bangalore, Seoul, Beijing, and Hong Kong to the regional centers of Gwalior, Pune, Jaipur, and sites like Wudang Mountain examine in detail the spaces created by new or changing religious organizations that range in scope from neighborhood based to consciously global. The definition of spatial aspects includes direct place making projects such as the construction of new religious buildings, temples, halls, and other meeting sites as well as less tangible religious endeavors such as the production of new mental spaces urged by spiritual leaders or the shift from terra firma to the strangely concrete effervescence of cyberspace. With this in mind it explores how distinct and blurred and open and bounded communities generate and participate in diverse practices as they deliberately engage or disengage with physical landscapes, cityscapes. It highlights how through these religious organizations, changing class and gender configurations, ongoing political and economic transformations continue as significant factors shaping and affecting Asian urban lives. In addition, the book goes further by exploring new and often bittersweet improvements like metro rail lines, new national highways, widespread internet access that bulldoze both literally and figuratively religious places and force relocations and adjustments that are often innovative and unexpected. Furthermore, this volume explores personal experiences within the particularities of selected religious organizations and the ways that subjects interpret or actively construct urban spaces. The essays show through ethnographically and historically grounded case studies the variety of ways newly emerging religious communities or religious institutions understand, value, interact with, or strive to ignore extreme urbanization and rapidly changing built environments.

Planning and Place in the City Marichela Sepe, 2013-03-05 Under the influence of globalization, the centres of many cities in the industrialised world are losing their place identity, the set of cultural markers that define a city's uniqueness and make it instantly recognisable. A key task for planners and residents working together is to preserve that unique sense of place without making the city a parody of itself. In Planning and Place in the City, Marichela Sepe explores the preservation, reconstruction, and enhancement of cultural heritage and place identity. She outlines the history of the concept of placemaking and sets out the range of different methods of analysis and assessment that are used to help pin down the nature of place identity. This book also uses the author's own survey-based method called PlaceMaker to detect elements that do not feature in traditional mapping and identifies appropriate planning interventions. Case studies investigate cities in Europe, North America, and Asia which demonstrate how surveys and interviews can be used to draw up an analytical map of place identity. This investigative work is a crucial step in identifying cultural elements which will influence what planning decisions should be taken in the future The maps aim to establish a dialogue with local residents and support planners and administrators in making sustainable changes The case studies are amply illustrated with survey data sheets photos and coloured maps Innovative and broad based Planning and Place in the City lays out an approach to the identification and preservation of place and cultural heritage suitable for students academics and professionals alike The Time and the Place Naguib Mahfouz,2016-06-15 Selected and translated by the distinguished scholar Denys Johnson Daivies these stories have all the celebrated and distinctive characters and qualities found in Mahfouz s novels The denizens of the dark narrow alleyways of Cairo who struggle to survive the poverty melancholy ruminations on death experiments with the supernatural and witty excursions into Cairene middle class life Place- and Community-Based Education in Schools Gregory A. Smith,David Sobel,2014-04-08 Place and community based education an approach to teaching and learning that starts with the local addresses two critical gaps in the experience of many children now growing up in the United States contact with the natural world and contact with community It offers a way to extend young people s attention beyond the classroom to the world as it actually is and to engage them in the process of devising solutions to the social and environmental problems they will confront as adults This approach can increase students engagement with learning and enhance their academic achievement Envisioned as a primer and guide for educators and members of the public interested in incorporating the local into schools in their own communities this book explains the purpose and nature of place and community based education and provides multiple examples of its practice The detailed descriptions of learning experiences set both within and beyond the classroom will help readers begin the process of advocating for or incorporating local content and experiences into their schools Out of the Cloister: Scholastic Exegesis of the Song of Songs, 1100-1250 Suzanne LaVere,2016-03-11 The Song of Songs was one of the most frequently interpreted biblical books of the Middle Ages Most scholarly studies concentrate on monastic interpretations of the text which tend to be contemplative in nature In Out of the Cloister Suzanne LaVere reveals a particularly scholastic strain of Song of Songs exegesis in which cathedral school masters and mendicants in and around 12th and 13th century Paris read the text as Christ exhorting the Church and clergy to lead an active life of preaching instruction conversion and reform This new interpretation of the Song of Songs both reflected and influenced an era of far reaching Church reform and offered a program for secular clergy to combat heresy and apathy among the laity Being Together in Place Soren C. Larsen,Jay T. Johnson,2017-11-01 Being Together in Place explores the landscapes that convene Native and non Native people into sustained and difficult negotiations over their radically different interests and concerns Grounded in three sites the Cheslatta Carrier traditional territory in British Columbia the Wakarusa Wetlands in northeastern Kansas and the Waitangi Treaty Grounds in Aotearoa New Zealand this book highlights the challenging tentative and provisional work of coexistence around such contested spaces as wetlands treaty grounds fishing spots recreation areas cemeteries heritage trails and traditional village sites At these sites activists learn how to articulate and defend their intrinsic and life supportive ways of being particularly to those who are intent on damaging or destroying these places Using ethnographic research and a geographic perspective Soren C Larsen and Jay T Johnson show how the communities in these regions challenge the power relations that structure the ongoing post colonial encounter in liberal democratic settler states Emerging from their conversations with activists was a distinctive sense that the places for which they cared had agency a call that pulled them into dialogue relationships and action with human and nonhuman others This being together in place they find speaks in a powerful way to the vitalities of coexistence where humans and nonhumans are working to decolonize their relationships where reciprocal guardianship is being stitched back together in new and unanticipated ways and where a new kind of place thinking is emerging on the borders of colonial power

Southey's Common-place Book: Special collections Robert Southey,1850 Mediated Identities in the Futures of Place: Emerging Practices and Spatial Cultures Lakshmi Priya Rajendran,NezHapi Dellé Odeleye,2020-01-02 This book examines the emerging problems and opportunities that are posed by media innovations spatial typologies and cultural trends in re shaping identities within the fast changing milieus of the early 21st Century Addressing a range of social and spatial scales and using a phenomenological frame of reference the book draws on the works of Heidegger Merleau Ponty and Don Hide to bridge the seemingly disparate yet related theoretical perspectives across a number of disciplines Various perspectives are put forward from media human geography cultural studies technologies urban design and architecture etc and looked at thematically from networked culture and digital interface and other perspectives The book probes the ways in which new digital media trends affect how and what we communicate and how they drive and reshape our everyday practices This mediatization of space with fast evolving communication platforms and applications of digital representations offers challenges to our notions of space identity and culture and the book explores the diverse yet connected levels of technology and people interaction Imagined Communities in Greece and Turkey Emine Yesim Bedlek,2015-12-03 In 1923 the Turkish government under its new leader Kemal Ataturk signed a renegotiated Balkan Wars treaty with the major powers of the day and Greece This treaty provided for the forced exchange of 1 3 million Christians from Anatolia to Greece in return for 300 000 Greek Muslims The mass migration that ensued was a humanitarian catastrophe of the 1 3 million Christians relocated it is estimated only 150 000 were successfully integrated into the Greek state Furthermore because the treaty was ethnicity blind tens of thousands of Muslim Greeks ethnically and linguistically were forced into Turkey against their will Both the Greek and Turkish leadership saw this exchange as crucial to the state strengthening projects both powers were engaged in after the First World War Here Emine Bedlek approaches this enormous shift in national thinking through literary texts addressing the themes of loss identity memory and trauma which both populations experienced The result is a new understanding of the tensions between religious and ethnic identity in modern Turkey Strategic Place Branding Methodologies and Theory for Tourist Attraction Bayraktar, Ahmet,Uslay, Can,2016-08-15 Drawing the attention of tourists to different destinations around the world assists in the overall economic health of the targeted region by increasing revenue and attracting investment opportunities as well as increasing cultural awareness of the area's population Strategic Place Branding Methodologies and Theory for Tourist Attraction investigates international perspectives and promotional strategies in the topic area of place branding Highlighting theoretical concepts and marketing techniques being utilized in the endorsement of various destinations regions and cities around the world this publication is a pivotal reference source for researchers practitioners policy makers students and professionals Philo of Alexandria On Planting Albert Geljon, David Runia, 2019-11-04 The Jewish exegete and philosopher Philo of Alexandria has long been famous for his complex and spiritually rich allegorical treatises on the Greek Bible The present volume presents first translation and commentary in English on his treatise De plantatione On planting following on the volume devoted to On cultivation published previously by the same two authors Philo gives a virtuoso performance as allegorist interpreting Noah's planting of a vineyard in Genesis 9:20 first in theological and cosmological terms then moving to the spiritual quest of both of advanced souls and those beginning their journey The translation renders Philo's baroque Greek into readable modern English The commentary pays particular attention to the treatise's structure its biblical basis and its exegetical and philosophical contents Roscoe's Digest of the Law of Evidence in Criminal Cases Henry Roscoe, Horace Smith, 1874 Sacred Worlds Chris Park, 2002-11-01 This book the first in the field for two decades looks at the relationships between geography and religion It represents a synthesis of research by geographers of many countries mainly since the 1960s No previous book has tackled this emerging field from such a broad interdisciplinary perspective and never before have such a variety of detailed case studies been pulled together in so comparative or illuminating a way Examples and case studies have been drawn from all the major world religions and from all continents from both a historical and contemporary perspective Major themes covered in the book include the distribution of religion and the processes by which religion and religious ideas spread through space and time Some of the important links between religion and population are also explored A great deal of attention is focused on the visible manifestations of religion on the cultural landscape including landscapes of worship and of death and the whole field of sacred space and religious pilgrimage The Materiality of Stone Christopher Tilley, 2020-06-03 With Wayne Bennett From the silky wax qualities of the surfaces of some quartz menhirs to the wood grain textures of others to the golden honeycombed limestones of Malta to the icy frozen waves of the Cambrian sandstone of south east Sweden this book investigates the sensuous material qualities of stone Tactile sensations sonorous qualities colour and visual impressions are all shown to play a vital part in our understanding of the power and significance of prehistoric monuments in relation to their landscapes In The Materiality of Stone Christopher Tilley presents a radically new way of analyzing the significance of both cultural and natural stone in prehistoric European landscapes Tilley's groundbreaking approach is to interpret human experience in a multidimensional and sensuous human way rather than through an abstract analytical gaze The studies range widely from the menhirs of prehistoric Brittany to Maltese Neolithic temples to Bronze Age rock carvings and cairns in southern Sweden Tilley leaves no stone unturned as he also considers how the internal spaces and landscape settings are interpreted in relation to artifacts substances and related places that were deeply meaningful to the people who inhabited them and remain no less evocative today In its innovative approach to understanding human experience through the tangible rocks and stone of our past The Materiality of Stone is both a major theoretical and substantive contribution to the field of material culture studies and the study of European prehistory Annual Report [with Accompanying Documents].
