From Sail to Steam, Recollections of Naval Life Alfred Thayer Mahan, 1907-01-01 From Sail to Steam Alfred T. Mahan, 2009 When I was a boy some years before I obtained my appointment in the navy I spent many of those happy hours that only childhood knows poring over the back numbers of a British service periodical which began its career in 1828 with the title Colburn's United Service Magazine under which name save and except the Colburn it still survives Besides weightier matters its early issues abounded in reminiscences by naval officers then yet in the prime of life who had served through the great Napoleonic wars More delightful still it had numerous nautical stories based probably on facts serials under such entrancing titles as Leaves from my Log Book by Flexible Grommet Passed Midshipman a pen name the nautical felicity of which will be best appreciated by one who has had the misfortune to handle a grommet which was not flexible Then there was The Order Book by Jonathan Oldjunk an epithet so suggestive of the waste heap even to a landsman's ears that one marvels a man ever took it unto himself especially in that decline of life when we are more sensitive on the subject of bodily disabilities than once we were Oldjunk however can yet be worked up as the sea expression goes into other uses and that perhaps was what Mr Oldjunk meant his early adventures as a young luff were for economical reasons worked up into their present literary shape with the addition of a certain amount of extraneous matter love making and the like Indeed so far from uselessness that veteran seaman and rigid economist the Earl of St Vincent when First Lord of the Admiralty had given to a specific form of old junk viz shakings the honors of a special order for the preservation thereof the which forms the staple of a comical anecdote in Basil Hall's Fragments of Voyages and Travels itself a superior example of the instructive recollections of less literary merit which but for Colburn's would have perished From Sail to Steam A. T. Mahan,2015-04-24 My entrance into the navy was greatly against my father s wish I do not remember all his arguments but he told me he thought me much less fit for a military than for a civil profession having watched me carefully I think myself now that he was right for though I have no cause to complain of unsuccess I believe I should have done better elsewhere While thus more than dissenting from my choice he held that a child should not be peremptorily thwarted in his scheme of life Consequently while he would not actively help me in the doubtful undertaking of obtaining an appointment which depended then as now upon the representative from the congressional district he gave me the means to go to Washington and also two or three letters to From Sail to Steam A. Mahan,2017-10-29 Excerpt from From Sail to Steam Recollections of Naval Life If such a man has the genius of his business as had Froisart and Boswell he excels in proportion to his unconscious ness of the fact his colors run truer For lesser gabblers who have not genius the best way to lose consciousness is just to let themselves go if they endeavor to paint artistically the muddle will be worse To such the proverb of the cobbler and his last is of perennial warning As a barber once sagely remarked to me You can t trim a beard well unless you re born to it It is possible in some degree to imitate Froissart and Boswell in that marvellous diligence to accumulate material which was common to them both but when gathered how impossible it is to work up that old junk into permanent engrossing interest let those answer who have grappled with ancient chronicles About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing
