include children's literature of all genres as well as digital texts YouTube videos news articles podcasts and more Text Sets in Action will help you create a collection of text sets that can be added to or edited over the years to align with your lesson plan goals Teachers who have adopted this approach saw greater student reading comprehension and critical thinking skills By introducing a multitude of text teachers will ignite a spirit of inquiry and engagement for lifelong learning Text Messages John Tucker, 2017-12-06 Facebook Twitter Snapchat We live in a rapidly changing world a world that seems to be increasingly inhospitable toward preaching In the face of digital technology social media cultural pluralism and pastoral burnout how can Christian preachers proclaim the gospel faithfully and effectively This book answers that question by bringing together a selection of important voices from across North America Asia and the Pacific It argues that Spirit empowered preaching is characterized by five attributes it opens the Scriptures engages the culture addresses the listener dissects the preacher and elevates the Savior With contributions from authors like William Willimon Darrell Johnson Lynne Baab Robert Smith Jr and Paul Windsor this is an excellent resource for ordained ministers lay preachers theological students and anyone wrestling with the challenge of preaching God's word in a smartphone world The Syntax of Sentence and Text Světlana Mejřková, František Ptáčka, 1994-10-13 This is a collection of papers inspired by the work of František Dane and is published in honour of his 75th birthday Dane's international contribution to the development of Prague School functionalism the theory of functional sentence perspective discourse studies and semantics is reflected in the 27 papers collected in four thematic sections of this volume Text Analysis Pipelines Henning Wachsmuth, 2015-12-02 This monograph proposes a comprehensive and fully automatic approach to designing text analysis pipelines for arbitrary information needs that are optimal in terms of run time efficiency and that robustly mine relevant information from text of any kind Based on state of the art techniques from machine learning and other areas of artificial intelligence novel pipeline construction and execution algorithms are developed and implemented in prototypical software Formal analyses of the algorithms and extensive empirical experiments underline that the proposed approach represents an essential step towards the ad hoc use of text mining in web search and big data analytics Both web search and big data analytics aim to fulfill people's needs for information in an ad hoc manner The information sought for is often hidden in large amounts of natural language text Instead of simply returning links to potentially relevant texts leading search and analytics engines have started to directly mine relevant information from the texts To this end they execute text analysis pipelines that may consist of several complex information extraction and text classification stages Due to practical requirements of efficiency and robustness however the use of text mining has so far been limited to anticipated information needs that can be fulfilled with rather simple manually constructed pipelines Revisiting The Chinese Learner Carol K.K. Chan, Nirmala Rao, 2010-03-10 It is seventeen years since I first formulated The paradox of the Chinese learner in a conference in Kathmandu Nepal My original formulation of the paradox was that westerners saw Chinese students as rote learning massive amounts of information in fierce exam dominated classrooms yet in international comparisons students in the Confucian heritage classrooms greatly outperformed western students learning in progressive western classrooms This seeming paradox raised all sorts of questions to which many others have contributed important answers especially that by Ference Marton on how Chinese learners construed the roles of memory and understanding in ways that were foreign to typical western educators Much of this work was brought together in The Chinese Learner 1996 edited by David Watkins and myself That work raised more questions still especially about educational contexts beliefs and practices which were investigated in contributions to Teaching the Chinese Learner 2001 And now we have Revisiting the Chinese Learner which is a very timely collection of excellent contributions that take into account the many changes that have taken place since 2001 changes such as 1 The globalisation of education especially through educational technology and enormous socio economic changes especially in China itself 2 Changes in educational policy aims curriculum and organisation and decentralisation of educational decision making in many Confucian heritage cultures 3

Latin Literatures of Medieval and Early Modern Times in Europe and Beyond Francesco Stella, Lucie Doležalová, Danuta Shanzer, 2024-07-15 The textual heritage of Medieval Latin is one of the greatest reservoirs of human culture. Repertories list more than 16 000 authors from about 20 modern countries. Until now there has been no introduction to this world in its full geographical extension. Forty contributors fill this gap by adopting a new perspective making available to specialists but also to the interested public new materials and insights. The project presents an overview of Medieval and post medieval Latin Literatures as a global phenomenon including both Europe and extra European regions. It serves as an introduction to medieval Latin's complex and multi layered culture whose attraction has been underestimated until now. Traditional overviews mostly flatten specificities yet in many countries medieval Latin literature is still studied with reference to the local history. Thus the first section presents 20 regional surveys including chapters on authors and works of Latin Literature in Eastern Central and Northern Europe, Africa, the Middle East, Asia and the Americas. Subsequent chapters highlight shared patterns of circulation, adaptation and exchange and underline the appeal of medieval intermediality as evidenced in manuscripts, maps, scientific treatises and iconotexts and its performativity in narrations, theatre, sermons and music. The last section deals with literary interfaces that is motifs or characters that exemplify the double sided or the long term transformations of medieval Latin mythologemes in vernacular culture both early modern and modern such as the legends about King Arthur, Faust and Hamlet.
