

A close-up of a weathered wooden door. The words "EVIL" and "NUMBER" are written in large, bold, red letters that look like blood. The letters are dripping with red liquid. A keyhole is positioned in the center of the door, between the two words. The door has a metal handle and a lock mechanism. The background is dark and blurry.

Varner,2008-01-27 Amulets and charms have been used since mankind evolved from its distant origins millions of years ago They have been used to protect and to harm and in both the practice and avoidance of witchcraft and sorcery They are made of wood and stone clay metal plants and dead animals They are carved into crude shapes and in the most exquisite forms They may also be composed entirely of words which are believed to have great power and magical properties Used by pagans Christians Jews and followers of every faith and tradition known across the world they are considered direct links to the gods and local spirits All are links to the supernatural Regardless if they are called amulets charms or talismans these objects are credited with providing cures causing evil and bringing health and prosperity This book using ethnographic studies ancient records and folklore will explore the history and use of amulets and will show that they continue to be an important part of our modern culture     Who Will Write Our History? Samuel D. Kassow,2011-05-18 In 1940 in the Jewish ghetto of Nazi occupied Warsaw the Polish historian Emanuel Ringelblum established a clandestine scholarly organization called the Oyneg Shabes to record the experiences of the ghetto s inhabitants For three years members of the Oyneg Shabes worked in secret to chronicle the lives of hundreds of thousands as they suffered starvation disease and deportation by the Nazis Shortly before the Warsaw ghetto was emptied and razed in 1943 the Oyneg Shabes buried thousands of documents from this massive archive in milk cans and tin boxes ensuring that the voice and culture of a doomed people would outlast the efforts of their enemies to silence them Impeccably researched and thoroughly compelling Samuel D Kassow s Who Will Write Our History tells the tragic story of Ringelblum and his heroic determination to use historical scholarship to preserve the memory of a threatened people     The Medieval Archive of Antisemitism in Nineteenth-Century Sweden Cordelia Heß,2021-12-20 The significance of religion for the development of modern racist antisemitism is a much debated topic in the study of Jewish Christian relations This book the first study on antisemitism in nineteenth century Sweden provides new insights into the debate from the specific case of a country in which religious homogeneity was the considered ideal long into the modern era Between 1800 and 1900 approximately 150 books and pamphlets were printed in Sweden on the subject of Judaism and Jews About one third comprised of translations mostly from German but to a lesser extent also from French and English Two thirds were Swedish originals covering all genres and topics but with a majority on religious topics conversion supersessionism and accusations of deicide and bloodlust The latter stem from the vastly popular medieval legends of Ahasverus Pilate and Judas which were printed in only slightly adapted forms and accompanied by medieval texts connecting these apocryphal figures to contemporary Jews ascribing them a physical essential and biological coherence and continuity a specific Jewish temporality shaped in medieval passion piety which remained functional and intelligible in the modern period Relying on medieval models and their combination of religious and racist imagery nineteenth century debates were informed by a comprehensive and mostly negative knowledge about Jews

Matchmaking in the Archive E.G. Crichton, 2023-02-10 Though today's LGBTQ people owe a lot to the generations who came before them their historical inheritances are not always obvious Working with the archives of the Gay Lesbian Bisexual Transgender Historical Society artist E G Crichton decided to do something to bridge this generation gap She selected 19 innovative LGBTQ artists writers and musicians then paired each of them with a deceased person whose personal artifacts are part of the archive Including 25 pages of vivid images Matchmaking in the Archive documents this monumental creative project and adds essays by Jonathan D Katz Michelle Tea and Chris Vargas who describe their own unique encounters with the ghosts of LGBTQ history Together they make the archive come alive in remarkably intimate ways

The Prisons Memory Archive: A Case Study in Filmed Memory of Conflict Jolene Mairs Dyer, Conor McCafferty, Cahal McLaughlin, 2022-09-06 The Prisons Memory Archive PMA explores ways that narratives of a conflicted past are filmed at the site of the experiences and later negotiated in a contested present in the North of Ireland Given the state's failed attempts at establishing an official process for addressing the legacy of the conflict that lasted between 1968 and 1998 there are a number of community and academic initiatives that have taken up this task The Prisons Memory Archive is one such project whose aim is to research the possibilities of engaging with the story of the other in a society that is emerging from decades of political violence The PMA filmed back inside the prisons with those who passed through Armagh Gaol 2006 and the Maze and Long Kesh Prison 2007 which were both touchstone and tinderbox during the 30 years of violent conflict We applied protocols of co ownership where participants become co authors of their own story with the right to withdraw up to the point of exhibition inclusivity to ensure a multi narrative archive with prison staff prisoners visitors teachers chaplains etc and life story telling where leading questions are eschewed in order to return more agency to the participants Currently the full archive made up of 160 walk and talk recordings totaling 300 hours of filmed material is available at the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland where it is preserved and made accessible to the public and a website has been designed for educational use of the archive This collection offers critical reflections on the processes of recording archiving and utilising the archive in its several manifestations e g feature films website and full archive at the Public Records Office The perspectives offer a range of reflections including filming editing archiving web design education and museum practice

Exploring the Archive Manuela Fischer, Michael Kraus, 2015-07-15 The Ethnologisches Museum in Berlin holds more than 6 500 historical black and white photographs from Latin America These images were produced between 1868 and 1936 and mainly depict ethnological and archaeological motifs although some portray views of urban or natural landscapes The contributions to this volume focus on particular series from this extensive archive In doing so they illustrate the enormous potential for research inherent within such repositories of memory represent a diverse set of approaches and provide varied interpretations of historical photographs The contributions focus on the contexts in which these images were produced and provide interpretations of the intentions behind some of the photographs Moreover they analyse the acquisition of these photographs and the manner in which they have been preserved and disseminated Additionally the contributions highlight the manners in which the images have been used and the impact of some of the formats in which the photographs were published This richly illustrated volume is complemented by the digital reproductions available online at http://www.smb.digital.de/Archiv\_Fur\_Religionspsychologie/ Archive for the Psychology of Religion Jacob A. van Belzen, Nils G.
