Prisons and Imprisonment Cormac Behan, Abigail Stark, 2023-01-01 This textbook examines prisons and imprisonment Historically prisons and prisoners have been a source of interest to the general public However despite near universal acceptance of imprisonment as a feature of society we know relatively little about the reality of prison life or the effects it has on individuals and communities Using academic scholarship empirical research government papers policy reports and accounts from lived experiences of the institution this book analyses the complexities and contradictions of prison life the place of the prison in twenty first century society and its prospects for the future This book will introduce readers to key debates surrounding the use of imprisonment and challenge readers to interrogate conventional perspectives on an institution that reflects the society in which it is situated

The Prisoner Society Ben Crewe, 2009 While the use of imprisonment continues to rise in developed nations we have little sociological knowledge of the prison s inner world Based on extensive fieldwork in a medium security prison in the UK HMP Wellingborough The Prisoner Society Power Adaptation and Social Life in an English Prison provides an in depth analysis of the prison s social anatomy It explains how power is exercised by the institution individualizing the prisoner community and demanding particular forms of compliance and engagement Drawing on prisoners life stories it shows how different prisoners experience and respond to the new range of penal practices and frustrations It then explains how the prisoner society its norms hierarchy and social relationships is shaped both by these conditions of confinement and by the different backgrounds values and identities that prisoners bring into the prison environment Individual chapters in the book examine the flow of power social order and governance social relations and hierarchy everyday prison culture politics and economics and the effects of imprisonment on prisoners The book also looks at the recent accounts of transformations in penal management and changes in prison policy and offers comparative content on the quality of prison life by drawing upon quantitative evaluations based on standard UK prison surveys and visits to three other category C prisons

Freeing Tammy Jody Raphael, 2013-03-12 The latest volume in the popular trilogy of books about women poverty and violence Convict Voices Anne Schwan, 2014-12-02 In this lively study of the development and transformation of voices of female offenders in nineteenth century England Anne Schwan analyzes a range of colorful sources including crime broadsides reform literature prisoners own writings about imprisonment and courtroom politics and conventional literary texts such as Adam Bede and The Moonstone Not only does Schwan demonstrate strategies for interpreting ambivalent and often contradictory texts she also provides a carefully historicized approach to the work of feminist recovery Crossing class lines genre boundaries and gender roles in the effort to trace prisoners authors and female communities imagined or real Schwan brings new insight to what it means to locate feminist or protofeminist details arguments and politics In this case she tracks the emergence of a contested and often contradictory feminist consciousness through the prism of nineteenth century penal debates The historical discussion is framed by reflections on contemporary debates about prisoner perspectives to illuminate continuities and differences Convict Voices offers a sophisticated approach to interpretive questions of gender genre and discourse in the representation of female convicts and their voices and viewpoints My Brother's Keeper Jonathan Burnside, Joanna Adler, Nancy Loucks, Gerry Rose, 2013-06-17 Ten years ago there were no faith based units in prisons outside South America Today they are spreading all over the world including the United States Europe and the Commonwealth My Brother's Keeper is the first major study of a global phenomenon Exploring the roots of faith based units in South America it explains why the Prison Service of England and Wales set up the first Christian based unit in the western world in 1997 and its rapid expansion It also explains how at exactly the same time the United States introduced Christian based units and why they were complimented by interfaith and multifaith initiatives At the heart of My Brother's Keeper is an interior account of life inside four Christian based prison units in England It draws on the findings of a detailed evaluation conducted by the authors for the Home Office Prison Service and Kainos Community between 2000 and 2001 including an updated reconviction study It is an authoritative account of an innovative programme Its analysis of what works and what doesn't in faith based units around the world makes My Brother's Keeper a valuable roadmap for all who care about improving prison conditions It presents a vision of justice that is not just concerned with building more prisons but with rebuilding more prisoners It argues that by making prisons more human and punishment more humane faith based units can be of value and keep faith in prisons

Metaphors of Confinement Monika Fludernik, 2019 Metaphors of Confinement The Prison in Fact Fiction and Fantasy offers a historical survey of imaginings of the prison as expressed in carceral metaphors in a range of texts about imprisonment from Antiquity to the present as well as non penal situations described as confining or restrictive These imaginings coalesce into a carceral imaginary that determines the way we think about prisons just as social debates about punishment and criminals feed into the way carceral imaginary develops over time Examining not only English language prose fiction but also poetry and drama from the Middle Ages to postcolonial particularly African literature the book

juxtaposes literary and non literary contexts and contrasts fictional and nonfictional representations of imprisonment and discussions about the prison as institution and experiential reality It comments on present day trends of punitivity and foregrounds the ethical dimensions of penal punishment The main argument concerns the continuity of carceral metaphors through the centuries despite historical developments that included major shifts in policy such as the invention of the penitentiary The study looks at selected carceral metaphors often from two complementary perspectives such as the home as prison or the prison as home or the factory as prison and the prison as factory The case studies present particularly relevant genres and texts that employ these metaphors often from a historical perspective that analyses development through different periods

Criminal Justice Andrew Sanders, Richard Young, Mandy Burton, 2010-07-15 This text concentrates on the apprehension investigation and trial of suspected offenders overlaying its analysis with a critical appraisal of the system and suggesting pointers to improvement

Caged Emotions Ben Laws, 2022-05-04 This book focuses on the emotional experience of imprisonment In no uncertain terms prisons seethe with emotions and feelings Based on two empirically rigorous studies this book analyses how prisoners attempt to adapt and control their emotions It begins with an account of male and female prisoners held in medium security prisons and then moves to the particular case of emotions in solitary confinement There has been a turn towards emotions in criminology but this is the first book to centralize the subject of prisoner emotions in a detailed manner The ethnographic study of feelings has much to contribute to broader debates about survival in prison and pathways to desistance Most importantly it emphasizes that full blooded depictions of prisoners belong at the heart of academic inquiry

Stuart: A Life Backwards Alexander Masters, 2006-05-30 In this extraordinary book Alexander Masters has created a moving portrait of a troubled man an unlikely friendship and a desperate world few ever see A gripping who done it journey back in time it begins with Masters meeting a drunken Stuart lying on a sidewalk in Cambridge England and leads through layers of hell back through crimes and misdemeanors prison and homelessness suicide attempts violence drugs juvenile halls and special schools to expose the smiling gregarious thirteen year old boy who was Stuart before his long sprawling dangerous fall Shocking inspiring and hilarious by turns Stuart A Life Backwards is a writer's quest to give voice to a man who beneath his forbidding exterior has a message for us all that every life even the most chaotic and disreputable is a story worthy of being told
