From The Margins Historical Anthropology And Its Futures:

From the Margins Brian Keith Axel, 2009 DIVState of the art volume by the major voices in historical anthropology div India's Revolutionary Inheritance Chris Moffat, 2019-01-10 What do anti colonial histories mean for politics in contemporary India How can we understand a political terrain that appears crowded with the dead heroic figures from past struggles who call the living to account and demand action What role do these afterlives play in the inauguration of new politics and the fashioning of possible futures In this engaging and innovative analysis of anti colonial afterlives in modern South Asia Chris Moffat crafts a framework that takes the dead seriously not as passive entities ceremonially invoked but as active interlocutors and instigators in the present Focusing on the iconic revolutionary martyr Bhagat Singh 1907 1931 Moffat establishes the problem of inheritance as central to the forms and futures of democracy in this postcolonial polity Tracing Bhagat Singh's revenant presence in India today he demonstrates how living communities are animated by a sense of obligation duty or debt to the dead Moving Subjects Tony Ballantyne, Antoinette M. Burton, 2009 Investigating how intimacy is constructed across the restless world of empire The Material of World History Tina Mai Chen, David S. Churchill, 2015-03-27 This volume considers the confluence of World History and historical materialism with the following guiding guestion in mind given developments in the field of historical materialism concerned with the intersection of race gender labour and class why is it that within the field of World History historical materialism has been marginalized precisely as World History orients toward transnational socio cultural phenomenon micro studies or global histories of networks Answering this question requires thinking in an inter related manner about both the development of World History as a discipline and the place of economic determinism in historical materialism This book takes the position that historical materialism as applied to the field of World History needs to be more open to the methodological diversity of the materialist tradition and to refuse narrowly deterministic frameworks that have led to marginalization of materialist cultural analysis in studies of global capitalism At the same time World History needs to be more self critical of the methodological diversity it has welcomed through a largely inclusionary framework that allows the material to be considered separately from cultural social and intellectual dimensions of global processes Moderns Abroad Mia Fuller, 2007-01-24 This volume studies the architecture and urbanism of modern era Italian colonialism 1869 1943 as it sought to build colonies in North and East Africa and the eastern Mediterranean Mia Fuller follows not only the design of the physical architecture but also the development of colonial design theory based on the assumptions made about the colonized and also the application of modernist theory to both Italian architecture and that of its colonies Moderns Abroad is the first book to present an overview of Italian colonial architecture and city planning In chronicling Italian architects attempts to define a distinctly Italian colonial architecture that would set Italy apart from Britain and France it provides a uniquely comparative study of Italian colonialism and architecture that will be of interest to specialists in modern architecture colonial studies and Italian studies alike Encyclopedia of Africa Asia America and the Pacific from the sixteenth to the twentieth century Archaeology of Food: An Encyclopedia Karen Bescherer Metheny, Mary C. Beaudry, 2015-08-07 What are the origins of agriculture In what ways have technological advances related to food affected human development How have food and foodways been used to create identity communicate meaning and organize society In this highly readable illustrated volume archaeologists and other scholars from across the globe explore these questions and more The Archaeology of Food offers more than 250 entries spanning geographic and temporal contexts and features recent discoveries alongside the results of decades of research The contributors provide overviews of current knowledge and theoretical perspectives raise key questions and delve into myriad scientific archaeological and material analyses to add depth to our understanding of food The encyclopedia serves as a reference for scholars and students in archaeology food studies and related disciplines as well as fascinating reading for culinary historians food writers and food and archaeology enthusiasts Photographing Tutankhamun Christina Riggs.2020-09-19 They are among the most famous and compelling photographs ever made in archaeology Howard Carter kneeling before the burial shrines of Tutankhamun life size statues of the boy king on guard beside a doorway tantalizingly sealed in his tomb or a solid gold coffin still draped with flowers cut more than 3 300 years ago Yet until now no study has explored the ways in which photography helped mythologize the tomb of Tutankhamun nor the role photography played in shaping archaeological methods and interpretations both in and beyond the field This book undertakes the first critical analysis of the photographic archive formed during the ten year clearance of the tomb and in doing so explores the interface between photography and archaeology at a pivotal time for both Photographing Tutankhamun foregrounds photography as a material technical and social process in early 20th century archaeology in order to question how the photograph made and remade ancient Egypt in the waning age of colonial order We Are Now a Nation Daphne Winland, 2013-06-17 The Yugoslav War of Succession had untold ramifications for those living in the embattled region What often goes overlooked however is the impact that the war had on people from the former Yugoslavia who were living abroad We are Now a Nation considers the effect that the war and the independence of Croatia had on Croatian diaspora homeland relations In doing so it confronts complex questions of ideology nostalgia social suffering nationalism and identity politics as manifested in the relationship between diaspora and homeland Croats Daphne Winland draws upon extensive multi sited ethnographic research in both Toronto and Croatia from 1992 to the present exploring the problematic nature of Croatian identity The occasion of Croatian independence she suggests resulted in the emergence of a politics of desire and disdain which further complicated efforts to define Croatness Hrvatstvo both at home and abroad The idea of the Croatian homeland has become therefore an ambiguous space of identification a source of either conflict and tension or unity and pride a place to remember to forget or to return to The first book length examination of North American Croatian diaspora responses to war and independence We are Now a Nation highlights the contradictions and paradoxes of contemporary debates about identity politics and place Along the Archival Grain Ann Laura Stoler,2010-01-25 Along the Archival Grain offers a unique methodological and analytic opening to the affective registers of imperial governance and the political content of archival forms In a series of nuanced mediations on the nature of colonial documents from the nineteenth century Netherlands Indies Ann Laura Stoler identifies the social epistemologies that guided perception and practice revealing the problematic racial ontologies of that confused epistemic space Navigating familiar and extraordinary paths through the lettered lives of those who ruled she seizes on moments when common sense failed and prevailing categories no longer seemed to work She asks not what colonial agents knew but what happened when what they thought they knew they found they did not Rejecting the notion that archival labor be approached as an extractive enterprise Stoler sets her sights on archival production as a consequential act of governance as a field of force with violent effect and not least as a vivid space to do ethnography

Friends and Strangers John Smolenski, 2011-12-30 In its early years William Penn's Peaceable Kingdom was anything but Pennsylvania's governing institutions were faced with daunting challenges Native Americans proved far less docile than Penn had hoped the colony's non English settlers were loath to accept Quaker authority and Friends themselves were divided by grievous factional struggles Yet out of this chaos emerged a colony hailed by contemporary and modern observers alike as the most liberal tolerant and harmonious in British America In Friends and Strangers John Smolenski argues that Pennsylvania's early history can best be understood through the lens of creolization the process by which Old World habits values and practices were transformed in a New World setting Unable simply to transplant English political and legal traditions across the Atlantic Quaker leaders gradually forged a creole civic culture that secured Quaker authority in an increasingly diverse colony By mythologizing the colony s early settlement and casting Friends as the ideal guardians of its uniquely free and peaceful society they succeeded in establishing a shared civic culture in which Quaker dominance seemed natural and just The first history of Pennsylvania's founding in more than forty years Friends and Strangers offers a provocative new look at the transfer of English culture to North America Setting Pennsylvania in the context of the broader Atlantic phenomenon of creolization Smolenski s account of the Quaker colony s origins reveals the vital role this process played in creating early American society Anthropological Ethics in Context Dena Plemmons, Alex W Barker, 2017-07-05 Using the recent multi year revision of the American Anthropology Association s code of ethics as a platform this volume suggests a set of principles and practices based on ethical dilemmas common in the social sciences Interpreting Spanish Colonialism Christopher Schmidt-Nowara, John M. Nieto-Phillips, 2005 Scholars from Spain Latin America the Caribbean and the United States discuss historical writings of the past and how our understanding of the colonial era has been influenced by the expectations of the day Experiencing New Worlds Jürg Wassmann, Katharina Stockhaus, 2007-11-01 The many different localities of the Pacific region have a long history of transformation under both pre and post colonial conditions More recently rates of local transformation have increased tremendously under post colonial regimes. The forces of globalization which rapidly distribute commodities images and political and moral concepts across the region have presented Pacific populations with an unprecedented need and opportunity to fashion new and expanded understandings of their cultural and individual identities. This volume the first in a new series examines the forces of globalization at different levels as they manifest themselves and operate across cultural cognitive and biographical dimensions of human life in the Pacific While posing familiar questions it offers new answers through the integration of cultural and psychological methods The contributors draw on practice theory cognitive science and the anthropology of space and place while exploring the key analytical rubrics of human agency memory and landscape Ethnographies of U.S. Empire Carole McGranahan, John F. Collins, 2018-08-02 How do we live in and with empire The contributors to Ethnographies of U S Empire pursue this question by examining empire as an unequally shared present Here empire stands as an entrenched if often invisible part of everyday life central to making and remaking a world in which it is too often presented as an aberration rather than as a structuring condition This volume presents scholarship from across U S imperial formations settler colonialism overseas territories communities impacted by U S military action or political intervention Cold War alliances and fissures and most recently new forms of U S empire after 9 11 From the Mohawk Nation Korea and the Philippines to Iraq and the hills of New Jersey the contributors show how a methodological and theoretical commitment to ethnography sharpens all of our understandings of the novel and timeworn ways people live thrive and resist in the imperial present Contributors Kevin K Birth Joe Bryan John F Collins Jean Dennison Erin Fitz Henry Adriana Mar a Garriga L pez Ol via Maria Gomes da Cunha Matthew Gutmann Ju Hui Judy Han J K haulani Kauanui Eleana Kim Heonik Kwon Soo Ah Kwon Darryl Li Catherine Lutz Sunaina Maira Carole McGranahan Sean T Mitchell Jan M Padios Melissa Rosario Audra Simpson Ann Laura Stoler Lisa Uperesa David Vine

Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization Ivonne del Valle, Anna More, Rachel Sarah O'Toole, 2020-01-15 Through interdisciplinary essays covering the wide geography of the Spanish and Portuguese empires Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization investigates the diverse networks and multiple centers of early modern globalization that emerged in conjunction with Iberian imperialism Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization argues that Iberian empires cannot be viewed apart from early modern globalization From research sites throughout the early modern Spanish and Portuguese territories and from distinct disciplinary approaches the essays collected in this volume investigate the economic mechanisms administrative hierarchies and art forms that linked the early modern Americas Africa Asia and Europe Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization demonstrates that early globalization was structured through diverse networks and their mutual and conflictive interactions within overarching imperial projects To this end the essays explore how specific products texts and people bridged ideas and institutions to produce multiple centers within Iberian imperial geographies Taken as a whole the authors also argue that despite attempts to reproduce European models early Iberian globalization depended on indigenous agency and the agency of people of African descent which often undermined or changed these models The volume

thus relays a nuanced theory of early modern globalization the essays outline the Iberian imperial models that provided templates for future global designs and simultaneously detail the negotiated and conflictive forms of local interactions that characterized that early globalization The essays here offer essential insights into historical continuities in regions colonized by Spanish and Portuguese monarchies Entangled Histories in Palestine/Israel Dafna Hirsch, 2024-04-16 This edited volume offers a new critical approach to the study of Zionist history and Israeli Palestinian relations based on the encounter between history and anthropology Informed by the anthropological method of setting large questions to intimate settings the book examines processes of Zionist colonization nation building and Palestinian dispossession by focusing on encounters between members of different national religious and ethnic groups from below through paying close attention to life stories and reconstructing everyday practices and micro histories of places and communities. Thus it tells a complex story in which the practices of historical actors are not simply reducible to a single underlying logic of colonization even as they participate in the production and reproduction of colonial structures This approach effectively undermines the prevailing tendency to study national communities in isolation projecting onto the past an essentialist and rigid separation Rather than assuming two clearly bounded and monolithic national groups caught from the start in perpetual conflict this volume probes their historical production through their evolving relationships and their varied and shifting political social economic and cultural manifestations The book will be of interest to students and researchers in an array of fields including the history of Israeli Palestinian relations anthropological perspectives on settler colonialism and Zionism
