From the Soul Phyllis Y. Harris, 2001 Profiles 10 black men and women born to and raised by black families of divergent Ebony, 2003-03 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson backgrounds it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Black Fathers Michael E. Connor, Joseph White, 2006-08-15 In the parlance of social psychology social work and urban social scientists African American fathers have often been described as absent missing non residential non custodial unavailable non married irresponsible and immature It is wondered why it is was so difficult to find literature research and comments regarding positive attributes of African American families in general and African American fathers in particular This book fills a void in attempting to offer a broader picture regarding the status of African American males in a father role The purpose is to get beyond the African American father invisibility syndrome and gloom and doom pathology oriented labels and tell another side of the story about the power of fathering in the African American experience The book brings these invisible social and biological fathers to life by telling their stories and letting the reader hear and feel the vibrancy of their voices as they struggle to meet the challenges of being fathers and Black men in America Black Fathers An Invisible Presence in America is divided into four sections Part I offers some research and theory regarding the impact of fathers on the lives of their children In Part II reactions and experiences from those men who had active involved and committed Black men in their lives as they were growing up are shared In Part III stories are shared from African American men who had problematic relationships with their fathers but who put forth the time energy and effort to work through the issues The primary focus of Part IV is on how to strengthen the role of Black fathers father figures and social fathers in family life and child rearing by discovering and internalizing psychological strengths anchored in African American psychological themes African values and spirituality This book will appeal to scholars and researchers in the fields of race ethnic relations family studies and Black studies Hurtin' Words Ted Ownby, 2018-10-31 When Tammy Wynette sang D I V O R C E she famously said she spelled out the hurtin words to spare her child the pain of family breakup In this innovative work Ted Ownby considers how a wide range of writers thinkers activists and others defined family problems in the twentieth century American South Ownby shows that it was common for both African Americans and whites to discuss family life in terms of crisis but they reached very different conclusions about causes and solutions In the civil rights period many embraced an ideal of Christian brotherhood as a way of transcending divisions Opponents of civil rights denounced brotherhoodism as a movement that undercut parental and religious authority Others especially in the African American community rejected the idea of family crisis altogether working to redefine family adaptability as a source of strength Rather than attempting to define the experience of an archetypal southern family Ownby looks broadly at contexts such as political and religious debates about divorce and family values southern rock music autobiographies and more to reveal how people in the South used the concept of the family as a proxy for imagining a better future or happier past From the Soul Phyllis Y. Harris, 2002-12-19 A celebration of the black family From the Soul is a collection of ten true stories of growing up black in America Here are the voices of black men and women sons and daughters honoring the parents grandparents aunts and uncles who instilled in them the self respect confidence and strong values upon which they ve built their lives Ebony ,2001-12 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine African American Review ,2003 Reference Library of Black America Jeffrey Lehman, 2003 Presents information on all aspects of African American life including politics employment and income education religion literature performing arts science and medicine and sports MultiCultural Review .2003 Ebony Living to Tell the Horrid Tales: True Life Stories of Fomer Slaves, Historical Documents & Novels Mark ,2002 Twain, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Aphra Behn, Thomas Clarkson, Daniel Drayton, Louis Hughes, Lydia Maria Child, James Weldon Johnson, Austin Steward, Ida B.
