Chery,2007-09 Since her early childhood Angie McHall noticed that there was something different about her life although she was surrounded by a father and a mother figure there was really no one in the house to call mom and dad Angie was fortunate enough to have in her life her nanny Liz Santiago This was the woman who ended up giving her unconditional love and affection and who would become the only mother she ever had As Angie grew older she realized that she was the only person in that household of a different skin color She would later discover that the couple with whom she had learned to share her space was in fact her natural parents who had chosen to treat her as a perfect stranger because they did not have much in common with her Angie was lost she was engulfed in a mystery that she simply could not comprehend She was mesmerized by what she considered to be the strange circumstances of her existence How did Angie happen to be black when the people responsible for her birth were white She was determined to find the answer to that question if there were one to be found Upon her insistence her nanny decided that she could no longer remain indifferent to her cries so she promised Angie that she would do all she could to help find the truth that was kept hidden from her all of her life Liz meant what she said She was about to make good on her promise The night before she was to travel to Florida where Angie was attending school for a face to face meeting during which she would reveal to Angie the mystery of Angie s life she went to bed never to wake up again Angie s hope was dashed The only person on whom she counted to solve her life s mystery was gone But was Liz s untimely death really an accident of nature or part of a Machiavellian plan engineered by an invisible hand to keep Angie and perhaps her parents from finding the truth Whole

A love lived, a life betrayed Susan M.

Sandover,2016-10-24 Reader I married him a Libyan career diplomat For over three decades we lived in Libya and his various postings world wide Libya A love lived a life betrayed follows the trajectory of Susan M Sandover who was lucky enough to have chosen an enlightened forward thinking Libyan career diplomat Bashir to spend her life with They supported each other through the traumas difficulties and frankly terrifying experiences associated with the Gaddafi regime of US and NATO bombings coups a revolution and a blasphemy case but also enjoyed years of good times together The resulting stories are partially his partially hers and partially theirs Sadly before he found the time or a safe place to write down his experiences in the Libyan diplomatic corps and to denounce the Gaddafi regime Bashir died In spite of his family s efforts to destroy their relationship and appropriate his land during his illness he made sure Susan had a safe place to live It was only when Susan was alone that she experienced the full force of Sharia inheritance law and its tenets as applied to widows she was entitled to one quarter of his property the balance going to his siblings hence the subtitle of the book 9 36 Susan s life was never dull with Bashir at times spine chilling but always filled with love and happiness Through all of these stories and many more Susan displays her vast insider knowledge on Libya s political social and cultural history together with details on the final year of the Gaddafi regime The remaining chapters comment on post revolutionary Libya and the missed opportunities for reconciliation

I Love a Broad Margin to My Life Maxine Hong Kingston, 2012-02-14 In her singular voice both humble and brave touching and humorous Maxine Hong Kingston gives us a poignant and beautiful memoir in verse that captures the wisdom that comes with age As she reflects on her sixty five years she circles from present to past and back from lunch with a writer friend to the funeral of a Vietnam veteran from her long marriage to her arrest at a peace march in Washington On her journeys as writer peace activist teacher and mother she revisits her most beloved characters Wittman Ah Sing the Tripmaster Monkey and Fa Mook Lan the Woman Warrior and presents us with a beautiful meditation on China then and now The result is a marvelous account of an American life of great purpose and joy and the tonic wisdom of a writer we have come to cherish

Almost Home - America's Love-Hate Relationship with Community David L. Kirp, 2002 For David Kirp a gifted storyteller and journalist the concept of community stretches beyond a cliched figure of speech to describe what happens when people make decisions that reshape one another s lives He has collected a fascinating variety of such stories from across America to re create the immediate experience of community tales that signify in their particulars giving meaning to the much bandied about idea of civic virtue They paint a rich picture of how for better and for worse Americans live together We meet two San Francisco families one Nicaraguan and the other black trying to live peacefully with each other residents in the fire ravaged Berkeley hills whose greed and architectural ambitions thwart attempts to build the new Eden of their dreams parents and teachers fighting against long odds to improve the East Harlem public schools residents of a small southern town caring for a parentless teenager with AIDS residents of the New Jersey suburb of Mount Laurel deciding whether poor families will be allowed to live in our town and neighbors choosing sides when a black teenager kills his gay white neighbor While there are real heroes Ethel Lawrence the Rosa Parks of the affordable housing movement and Deborah Meier tireless advocate for better schools the stories are mainly about ordinary people caught up in extraordinary events These beautifully written tales reveal individuals in the process of forming new alliances or falling back on familiar ones bowling alone or promoting the common good They show us past all self delusion who we really are

Clarence Thomas and the Tough Love Crowd Ronald Suresh Roberts,1996-10 In recent years black neoconservatism has captured the national imagination Clarence Thomas sits on the Supreme Court Stephen Carter s opinions on topics ranging from religion to the confirmation process are widely quoted The New Republic has written that black neoconservative Thomas Sowell was having a greater influence on the discussion of matters of race and ethnicity than any other writer of the past ten years In this compelling and vividly argued book Ronald Roberts reveals how this attention has turned an eccentricity into a movement Black neoconservatives Roberts believes have no real constituency but as was the case with Clarence Thomas are held up and proclaim themselves as simply and ruthlessly honest as above mere self interest and crude political loyalties They profess a concern for those they criticize claiming to possess an objective truth which sets them apart from their critics in the establishment Left They claim to be outsiders even while sustained by the culture s most powerful institutions As they level attacks at the activist organizations they perceive as moribund every significant argument they advance rests on fervent mantras of harsh truths and simple realities Enlisting the ideal of impartiality as a partisan weapon this Tough Love Crowd has elevated the familiar wisdom of Spare the rod and spoil the child to the arena of national politics Turning to their own writings and proclamations Roberts here serves up a devastating critique of such figures as Clarence Thomas Shelby Steele Stephen Carter and V S Naipaul Tough Love International Clarence Thomas and the Tough Love Crowd marks the emergence of a provocative and powerful voice on our cultural and political landscape a voice which holds those who subscribe to this polemically powerful ideology accountable for their opinions and actions

Belize - The Final Chapter (Viva Mexico! - And Other Assorted Love Songs) Alan Head,2018-11-06 Belize The Final Chapter Viva Mexico And Other Assorted Love Songs is the author s second book and is a sequel to his first book On Both Sides of the Street and is a continuation of the life and times of John Headley It is a story of his unplanned but fortuitous stumbling into a new country and a new life This adventure recounts John s desperate escape from a miserable existence in Belize to Mexico where in a moment of sheer luck John encounters an angel sent from the heavens who went by the name of Olga Olga was the owner of a hostel in Chetumal where John and his beloved companion named Molly stayed for two weeks in the early summer of 2016 with the somber intention of returning to Belize with seemingly no other option This transitional and pivotal period in John s life is filled with truly remarkable events that are at times a bit scary sad funny romantic and at times a bit sensual They are interwoven into a fabric of what can be in one s life and with the prevailing message being that as long as there is hope there is life It was the author s intent to use these real life experiences as beacons of inspiration for the reader and to convey the importance of relationships however brief or long lasting one has in his or her life especially those relationships with the opposite sex Tales of Travel, Love, and Survival in the Foreign Service Hope Gander Goodwin, 2018-11-16 Living and working in twenty developing countries is no small challenge especially when six children are involved in every move and transition As Tales of Travel Love and Survival in the Foreign Service reveals Hope Gander Goodwin proved to be up to the task during forty five years of being an inspiration and active partner to her husband Joe whose foreign service career included the United States Agency for International Development university contracts and private sector positions in economic development Tours of duty were in Africa Asia Eastern Europe and Central and South America The Goodwin family endured many sacrifices and experienced dangerous situations On the other hand the benefits derived far outweigh the negative side of life abroad Helping those in need to help themselves is a gift and a blessing While attempting to sincerely make a difference in the world their accomplishments far exceed disappointments These parents are most proud of their legacy in producing compassionate productive broad minded world citizens Diplomacy endless love strength and survival prevail in this inspiring autobiography Secrets of Forbidden Love Candida R. Devito, 2012-04 Secrets of Forbidden Love My True Life Story chronicles the improbable love story of Candida and Father Andrew and their struggle to be true to themselves in the face of immense cultural and religious scandal It is a moving story that documents the daily choice that each of us must make Either to live a life that honors the truth of who we are or to live other people's lives and expectations This story is about the former and the intense joy and suffering that accompanies this choice This book is also about the emotional and spiritual maturation of Candida as she survives child abuse discrimination and sexism Candida discovers that she is more than a peasant girl from the remote village of Las Limas Honduras She discovers an inner strength that forces her not only to survive but even to thrive in the most horrific circumstances Most importantly this book is about the power of love and forgiveness Candida does not allow her pain and sorrow to harden her heart but she allows it to transform her Rather than developing a heart of stone she embraces a heart of great compassion In the tradition of famous Spanish authors such as Gabriel Garcia Marquez Secrets of Forbidden Love explores the nature of true love However unlike Marquez love is not found in the time of Cholera but in the dreams of a poor peasant girl who found out that she was much more than she ever imagined Political Tourism and Its Texts Maureen Anne Moynagh, 2008-01-01 The concept of political tourism is new to cultural and postcolonial studies Nonetheless it is a concept with major implications for scholarship Political Tourism and Its Texts looks at the writings of political tourists travellers who seek solidarity with international political struggles With reference to the travel writing of among others Nancy Cunard W H Auden and Christopher Isherwood Ernesto Che Guevara and Salman Rushdie Maureen Moynagh demonstrates the ways in which political tourism can be a means of exploring the formation of transnational affiliations and commitments Moynagh's aims are threefold First she looks at how these tourists create a sense of belonging to political struggles not their own and express their personal and political solidarity despite the complexity of such cross cultural relationships Second Moynagh analyses how these authors position their readers in relation to political movements inviting a sense of responsibility for the struggles for social justice Finally the author situates key twentieth century imperial struggles in relation to contemporary postcolonial and cultural studies theories of new cosmopolitanism Drawing on sociological postcolonial poststructuralist and feminist theories Political Tourism and Its Texts is at once an insightful study of modern writers and the causes that inspired them and a call to address with political urgency contemporary neo imperialism and the politics of global inequality
