From Protest To Challenge Volume 2 Hope And Challenge 1935 1952:

From Protest to Challenge, Vol. 2 Gwendolen M. Carter, Thomas Karis, 2013-09-01 From Protest to Challenge rescues from obscurity the voices of protest in South Africa through the publication of rare documents housed in the collections of the Hoover Institution Library Archives. These excerpts from political ephemera, radical newspapers and other materials provide a documentary history of opposition groups in South Africa. They bear witness not only to a remarkable period in South African history but also to the vital need for the preservation of historical documents as an essential tool of scholarship. These materials are as relevant today as when they were first published, graphically demonstrating the South African struggle for peace, freedom and equality. Volume 2 covers the years 1935 to 1952, a period framed by the All African Convention arranged in response to proposed legislation limiting the rights of native Africans and the launch of the Defiance Campaign protesting apartheid laws. From Protest to Challenge: Hope and challenge, 1935-1952 Thomas Karis, Gwendolen Margaret Carter, Gail M. Gerhart, 1973 From Protest to Challenge, Vol. 1 Gwendolen M. Carter, Thomas Karis, 2013-09-01 This remarkable collection of material is as relevant today as when it was first published, graphically demonstrating the native African's struggle for peace, freedom and equality in his native land during the 19th and 20th centuries.

From Protest to Challenge Gail M. Gerhart, Clive Glaser, 2010 The Afrocentricity Trajectories of Looting in South Africa Mbulaheni Obert Maguvhe, Mfundo Mandla Masuku, Sifiso Ndlovu, Dalifa Ngobese, 2023-03-20 Looting has become an increasingly popular concept in South Africa as an unsophisticated interpretation of ownership by force of property during periods of mayhem. However, looting is a complex concept whose origin spans a long history that cuts across time and space. In The Afrocentricity Trajectories of Looting in South Africa edited by Mfundo Masuku, Dalifa Ngobese, Mbulaheni Obert Maguvhe and Sifiso Ndlovu, contributors provide sophisticated analysis on the concept of looting and address nuances in the concept of looting, looking at links to spiraling inequality and poverty, racialization of property ownership and skewed access and benefits of economic policies. As shown in this collection, looting has taken on a variety of political meanings: a challenge to the violence of racial capitalism, an alternative and accelerated path to justice, and a way to call attention to the reality of racial violence that is often ignored by the media. To name a few, this volume provides a critical analysis of looting from a multi-disciplinary approach that focuses on a combination of themes to show that looting is deeply rooted in property ownership and spiraling poverty and inequality that is structural in nature. Shadow of Liberation

Vishnu Padayachee, Robert Van Niekerk, 2019-10-01 Shadow of Liberation explores the intricate twists, turns, contestations and compromises of ANC economic and social policymaking with a focus on the transition era of the 1990s and the early years of democracy. With the damning revelations by the Zondo Commission of Inquiry into State Capture on the massive corruption of the South African body politic, the timing of this book could not be more relevant. South Africans need to confront the economic and social policy choices that the liberation movement made and to see how these decisions may have facilitated the conditions for corruption to emerge and flourish Answers are needed Padayachee and van Niekerk focus their attention on the primary question of how and why the ANC given its historical anti inequality re distributive stance come in the 1990s to such a dramatic turn around and move towards an essentially market dominated approach Were they pushed or did they go willingly What role if any did Western governments and international financial institutions play And what of the role of the late apartheid state and South African business Did leaders and comrades sell out the ANC s emancipatory policy vision Shadow of Liberation tries to provide answers to these questions drawing on the best available primary archival evidence as well as extensive interviews with key protagonists across the political non government and business spectrum The authors argue that the ANC s emancipatory policy agenda was broadly to establish a social democratic welfare state upholding rights of social citizenship However its economic policy framework to realise this emancipatory mission was either non existent or egregiously misguided

The ANC Youth League Clive Glaser,2013-04-10 This brilliant little book tells the story of the African National Congress ANC Youth League from its origins in the 1940s to the present and the controversies over Julius Malema and his influence in contemporary youth politics Glaser analyzes the ideology and tactics of its founders some of whom notably Nelson Mandela and Oliver Tambo later became iconic figures in South African history as well as inspirational figures such as A P Mda father of author Zakes Mda and Anton Lembede It shows how the early Youth League gave birth not only to the modern ANC but also to its rival the Pan Africanist Congress Dormant for many years the Youth League reemerged in the transition era under the leadership of Peter Mokaba infused with the tradition of the militant youth politics of the 1980s Throughout its history the Youth League has tried to dynamize and criticize the ANC from within while remaining devoted to the mother body and struggling to find a balance between loyalty and rebellion

Remembering for the Future J. Roth,E. Maxwell,2017-02-13 Focused on The Holocaust in an Age of Genocide Remembering for the Future brings together the work of nearly 200 scholars from more than 30 countries and features cutting edge scholarship across a range of disciplines amounting to the most extensive and powerful reassessment of the Holocaust ever undertaken In addition to its international scope the project emphasizes that varied disciplinary perspectives are needed to analyze and to check the genocidal forces that have made the Twentieth century so deadly Historians and ethicists psychologists and literary scholars political scientists and theologians sociologists and philosophers all of these and more bring their expertise to bear on the Holocaust and genocide Their contributions show the new discoveries that are being made and the distinctive approaches that are being developed in the study of genocide focusing both on archival and oral evidence and on the religious and cultural representation of the Holocaust

Black Nationalist Thought in South Africa Hashi Kenneth Tafira,2016-07-18 This book maintains that South Africa despite the official end of apartheid in 1994 remains steeped in the interstices of coloniality The author looks at the Black Nationalist thought in South Africa and its genealogy Colonial modernity and coloniality of power and their equally sinister accessories war murder rape and genocide have had a lasting impact onto those unfortunate enough to receive such ghastly visitations Tafira explores a range of topics including youth political movement the social construction of blackness in Azania and conceptualizations from the Black Liberation Movement

Prayer, providence and empire Joseph Hardwick,2021-08-10 European settlers in Canada Australia and South Africa said they were building better Britains overseas But their new societies were frequently threatened by devastating wars rebellions epidemics and natural disasters It is striking that settlers turned to old traditions of collective prayer and worship to make sense of these calamities At times of trauma colonial governments set aside whole days for prayer so that entire populations could join together to implore God s intervention assistance or guidance And at moments of celebration such as the coming of peace everyone in the empire might participate in synchronized acts of thanksgiving Prayer providence and empire asks why occasions with origins in the sixteenth century became numerous in the democratic pluralistic and secularised conditions of the British world

African Democracy Jonathan O. Chimakonam,Isaiah A. Negedu,2023-09-21 There are numerous different democratic systems in Africa from the Igbo institutions that date back to the 15th century to Western style democracy introduced by colonial powers But what does democracy really mean for African nations And what effect does it have on the lives of their people This is the first comprehensive examination of the social and political consequences of democracy in Africa Written from an African philosophical perspective leading and emerging scholars explore the impact of democracy in a continent dealing not only with the perennial issues of leadership failure poverty and corruption but also with contemporary global concerns such as immigration digital media and COVID 19 With a focus first and foremost on the African people this pioneering volume investigates how the challenges of democracy as a system affect their lived experience Looking in particular at the sub Sahara it reveals the influence that the failures of democracy have on fundamental needs including allocation of primary resources autonomy welfare free speech and women s rights African Democracy Impediments Promises and Prospects gives an unflinching insight into the struggles caused by democratic governance in Africa whilst also crucially pointing to its accomplishments and the future possibilities for African nations

Gendering the Settler State Kate Law,2015-11-06 White women cut an ambivalent figure in the transnational history of the British Empire They tend to be remembered as malicious harridans personifying the worst excesses of colonialism as vacuous fusspots whose lives were punctuated by a series of frivolous pastimes or as casualties of patriarchy constrained by male actions and gendered ideologies This book which places itself amongst other new imperial histories argues that the reality of the situation is of course much more intricate and complex Focusing on post war colonial Rhodesia Gendering the Settler State provides a fine grained analysis of the role s of white women in the colonial enterprise arguing that they held ambiguous and inconsistent views on a variety of issues including liberalism gender race and colonialism

The Unresolved National Question in South Africa Edward Webster,Karin Pampallis,John Mawbey,Jeremy Cronin,2017-03-01 This volume examines the way in which various strands of left thought have addressed the National Question The re emergence of debates on the decolonisation of knowledge has revived interest in the National Question which began over a century ago and remains unresolved Tensions that were suppressed and hidden in the past are now being openly debated Despite this the goal of one united nation living prosperously under a constitutional democracy remains elusive This edited volume examines the way in which various strands of left thought have addressed the National Question especially during the apartheid years and goes on to discuss its relevance for South Africa today and in the future Instead of imposing a particular understanding of the National Question the editors identified a number of political traditions and allowed contributors the freedom to define the question as they believed appropriate in other words to explain what they thought was the Unresolved National Question This has resulted in a rich tapestry of interweaving perceptions The volume is structured in two parts The first examines four foundational traditions Marxism Leninism the Colonialism of a Special Type thesis the Congress tradition the Trotskyist tradition and Africanism The second part explores the various shifts in the debate from the 1960s onwards and includes chapters on Afrikaner nationalism ethnic issues black consciousness feminism workerism and constitutionalism The editors hope that by revisiting the debates not popularly known among the scholarly mainstream this volume will become a catalyst for an enriched debate on our identity and our future
