After Orientalism ,2014-11-27 The debate on Orientalism began some fifty years ago in the wake of decolonization While initially considered a turning point Edward Said s Orientalism 1978 was in fact part of a larger academic endeavor the political critique of colonial science that had already significantly impacted the humanities and social sciences In a recent attempt to broaden the debate the papers collected in this volume offered at various seminars and an international symposium held in Paris in 2010 2011 critically examine whether Orientalism as knowledge and as creative expression was in fact fundamentally subservient to Western domination By raising new issues the papers shift the focus from the center to the peripheries thus analyzing the impact on local societies of a major intellectual and institutional movement that necessarily changed not only their world but the ways in which they represented their world World history which assumes a plurality of perspectives leads us to observe that the Saidian critique applies to powers other than Western European ones three case studies are considered here the Ottoman Russian and Soviet and Chinese empires Other essays in this volume proceed to analyze how post independence states have made use of the tremendous accumulation of knowledge and representations inherited from previous colonial regimes for the sake of national identity as well as how scholars change and adapt what was once a hegemonic discourse for their own purposes What emerges is a new landscape in which to situate research on non Western cultures and societies and a road map leading readers beyond the restrictive dichotomy of a confrontation between West and East With contributions by Elisabeth All s L on Buskens St phane A Dudoignon Baudouin Dupret Edhem Eldem Olivier Herrenschmidt Nicholas S Hopkins Robert Irwin Mouldi Lahmar Sylvette Larzul Jean Gabriel Leturcq Jessica Marglin Claire Nicholas Emmanuelle Perrin Alain de Pommereau Fran ois Pouillon Zakaria Rhani Emmanuel Szurek Jean Claude Vatin Mercedes Volait International African Bibliography ,2000 Learning as Development Daniel A. Imagined Museums Katarzyna Pieprzak, 2010-01-01 Imagined Museum examines the intertwined politics surrounding art and modernization in Morocco from 1912 to the present by considering the structure of the museum not only as a modern institution but also as a national monument to modernity asking what happens when museum monuments start to crumble In an analysis of museum history exhibition policy the lack of national museum space for modern art and postmodern exhibit spaces in Morocco Katarzyna Pieprzak focuses on the role that art plays in the social fabric of a modernizing Morocco She argues that the decay of colonial and national institutions of culture has invited the rethinking of the museum and generated counter-museums to stage new narratives of art memory and modernity Through these spaces she explores a range of questions How is modernity imagined locally How are claims to modernity articulated How is Moroccan modernity challenged globally In this first cultural history of modern Moroccan art and its museums Pieprzak goes beyond the investigation of national institutions to treat the history and evolution of multiple museums from official state and corporate exhibition spaces to informal popular street level art and performance spaces as cultural architectures that both enshrine the past and look to the future
