

From Tank 77 to Taber Today

The Alberta Company of the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers dedicate this site in the memory of the early Mormon Pioneers who came to Canada in 1903 and settled here. They had the foresight to see that this barren stretch of prairie land, with a lone water tank #77 on the C.P.R. line, was a land rich in resources and possibilities.

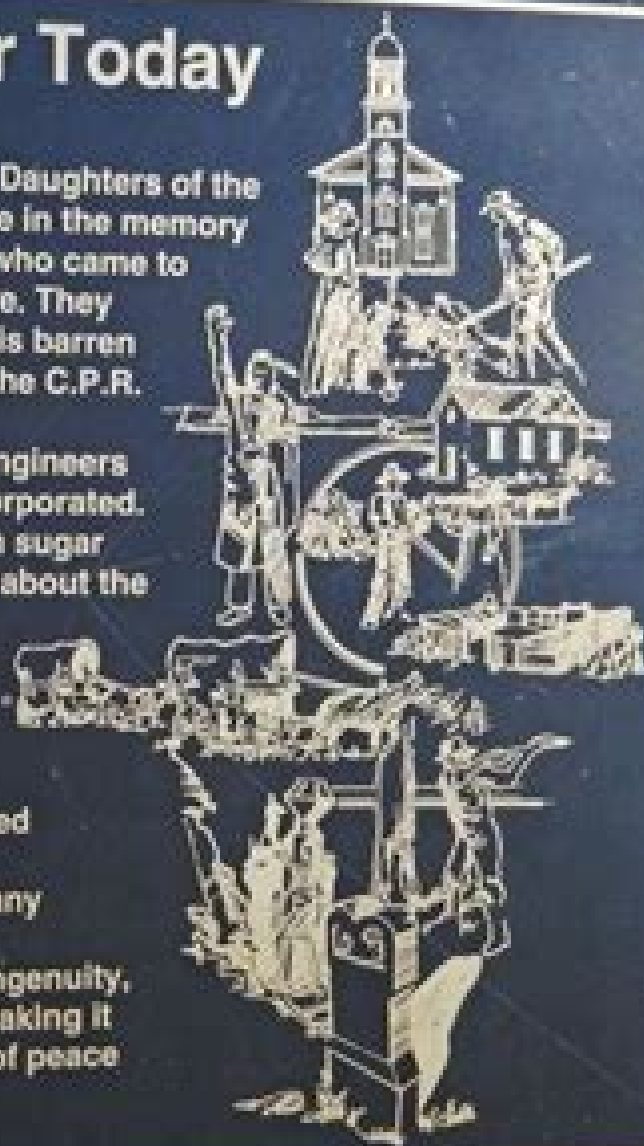

Soon more settlers came — farmers, coal miners, engineers and land developers, and the Town of Taber was incorporated.

Vast grain lands were cultivated, and with irrigation sugar beets and vegetable crops were grown. This brought about the building of the Canning Factory, and later the Sugar Factory and Potato Chip Plant. In recent years Taber, in the heart of South Alberta's green belt, is known as the "Corn Capital of Canada".

Petroleum is an important industry also. Today a great number of oil derricks and pumpers are scattered throughout the district.

Recognizing the potential of our irrigated acres, many nationalities have immigrated to this area.

We honor all our Pioneers for their courage, their ingenuity, their indomitable spirit. We give thanks to them for making it possible for us to live and enjoy this wonderful land of peace and plenty.
