From Text To Sermon:

From Text to Sermon Ernest Best, 1988-01-01 Best identifies the most common problems facing anyone who seeks to interpret the New Testament. He then shows how the preacher, teacher, or ordinary reader can faithfully draw out the meaning of the New Testament.

A Manual for Preaching Abraham Kuruvilla, 2019-10-15 Abraham Kuruvilla's A Vision for Preaching offered an integrated biblical and theological vision for preaching. A Manual for Preaching addresses the practical and perennial issue of how to move from the biblical text to an effective sermon. The author, a well-respected teacher of preachers, shows how to discern the text's theological meaning and let that meaning shape the development of the sermon. Clearly written and illustrated with Old Testament and New Testament examples, the book helps preachers negotiate larger swaths of Scripture and includes two annotated sermon manuscripts from Kuruvilla.

Shaping the Claim Marvin A. McMickle, 2008-09-03 Shaping the Claim helps the preacher discover the core of the message to be preached, the sermonic claim. In order to be effective, says McMickle, a sermon needs to address the hearers at three distinct levels: the head or the intellect, the heart or passion and conviction, and the hand or an expected and desired response. In order to discover the biblical claim that a sermon should make upon a particular congregation at a particular time, McMickle presents a helpful three-step process: 1. What? 2. So What? and 3. Now What? The book is keyed to online sermon samples and other Web-based features such as sermon illustrations and art.

Effective First-Person Biblical Preaching J. Kent Edwards, 2009-05-26 The Steps from Text to Narrative Sermon Presenting biblically centered sermons in a new creative genre. Pastors and teachers are always on the lookout for new ways to expand the effectiveness of their preaching. Sermons delivered in the first person point of view can weave the power of story and drama into the biblical teaching, making familiar and not so familiar characters and situations come to life. This book helps students and pastors understand how first person sermons can be preached with biblical integrity. It extends Haddon Robinson's big idea philosophy of preaching to this new genre. J. Kent Edwards takes a practical approach as he walks readers through the steps needed for creating sermons that are faithful to the text and engaging to the listener. Examples and worksheets enable readers to apply this unique approach to one of their own sermons. The book includes a CD-ROM with a video sample of first person narrative preaching.

Preparing Expository Sermons Ramesh Richard, 2001-11-01 The Bible is what God has made. Sermons are what we make with what God has made. Decolonizing Preaching Sarah Travis, 2014-11-13 Colonialism and imperialism continue to impact the personal and social identities of North American preachers and listeners In Decolonizing Preaching Sarah Travis argues that sermons have a role in shaping the identity and ethics of listeners by helping them formulate responses to empire and colonization Travis employs postcolonial theories to provide important insights for the practice of preaching today She also turns to the social doctrine of the Trinity to offer a vision of the divine human community that effectively deconstructs colonizing discourse This book offers preachers and other practical theologians a gentle introduction to colonial history postcolonial theories and Social Trinitarian theology while equipping them with tools to decolonize preaching and strategies for preventing resisting and responding to colonizing discourse Travis effectively casts a vision of a perichoretic space in which preacher and listener encounter the living God in Trinity and are transformed reconciled and sent out to others in the church and beyond

The Witness of Preaching, Second Edition Thomas G. Long, 2005-10-20 This thorough and detailed revision of The Witness of Preaching is even clearer and more helpful than the first edition Long has updated the language expanded the key chapter on biblical exegesis and included more examples of sermon forms illustrations and conclusions He continues to critically engage the best thinkers in the field of homiletics bringing into the conversation both important new voices and the latest works of those who appeared in the first edition In addition he addresses some of the new forces at work such as the use of video clips and PowerPoint presentations in sermons Worship in the Shape of Scripture Russell F Mitman,2009-01-01 Worship in the Shape of Scripture first published in 2001 is a practical resource for worship planners and leaders that provides guidelines for applying homiletic concepts to all areas of worship planning Due to its success it has been revised and updated Mitman demonstrates how the structure of worship is or can be rooted in Scripture itself He raises essential questions and reflects on broad themes for worshipping congregations to consider for the sake of faithful praise Foreword by Marva J Dawn

Preaching the Farewell Discourse L. Scott Kellum,2014-04-01 Through the lens of John the Apostle s Farewell Discourse found in John 13 31 17 26 seminary professor L Scott Kellum provides a step by step illustration of how to produce an expository sermon series The Dynamics of Biblical Preaching Jonathan Lamb,2016-09-30 The purpose of our lives is to know the God of the universe who made us and loves us It is this purpose that biblical preaching meets through explaining God s word Biblical preaching centres around proclaiming God s Word and preachers are to be mouthpieces for God as we encounter the living Christ through Scripture Jonathan Lamb illustrates the power of God s Word by focusing our attention on the heart task and purpose of preaching by leading us through Nehemiah 8 1 12 Reworked to benefit from the authors years of experience working alongside indigenous preaching movements around the world this book includes excellent resources for group studies preaching preparation and running a preachers group As One Without Authority Fred B Craddock,2001-09-01 This update of Craddock s original work on inductive preaching remains one of the most important contributions to homiletic scholarship Revised with three new sermons inclusive language and NRSV texts it is still as fresh and provocative as ever Preaching that Matters Stephen Farris,1998-01-01 Preaching is the art of building a bridge in the hearer s mind from the ancient world of the biblical text to the realities of our daily lives Throughout this book Stephen Farris offers splendid insights into ways that the Bible can connect with modern life and gives specific guidance to preachers on how to make these connections happen This is a highly practical book for ministers and for classroom use Text to Praxis Abraham Kuruvilla,2009-03-26 A fundamental issue for preachers of the Bible has always been achieving an approach that is both faithful to the textual intention as well as fitting for the listening audience What is historical and distant the text is in preaching made contemporary and near praxis Particularly pertinent is how this transaction may be conducted with respect to the self contained and well defined quantum of the scriptural text that is regularly employed in liturgical contexts the pericope This book answers the question In a sermon intending to proclaim application from a pericope what is the hermeneutical basis for moving validly from text to praxis i e with authority and relevance The concept of theology as a bridge between text and praxis has not been specifically researched or rigorously substantiated Kuruvilla seeks to do both utilizing as entr es language philosophy literary criticism and a thorough understanding of ordinary language Drawing from a variety of hermeneutical resources he establishes pericopal theology as the intermediary between text and praxis How this theology is discerned from the text and how application may be determined therefrom form the crux of this book This novel approach lends validity to the movement from text to praxis and promises to be useful for any approach to the biblical text intended to culminate in application Kuruvilla s approach provides a substantial technical basis for such an operation Thus the preacher must be a theologian homiletician It is the working out of this nomenclature especially the theologian half of the appellation that is the essence of this work uniting as it does in one portfolio the responsibility of negotiating the demands of both hermeneutics and homiletics
