From The Belly Of A Flying Whale:

From the Belly of a Flying Whale Byrna Barclay, 1989 The Literary History of Saskatchewan David Carpenter, 2013-02

Saskatchewan's literary history is both colourful and complex. It is also mature enough to deserve a critical investigation of its roots and origins, its salient features and its prominent players. This collection of scholarly essays conceptualized and compiled by well-known Saskatchewan novelist, essayist and scholar David Carpenter examines the Saskatchewan literary scene from its early Aboriginal storytellers on through to the decades to the burgeoning 1970s. The dozen essays preceded by a David Carpenter introduction include such topics as Our New Storytellers, Cree Literature in Saskatchewan, The Literary Construction of Saskatchewan before 1905, Narratives of Trade Rebellion and Settlement and The New Generation. The Seventies Remembered. Also included are special topics among them Playwriting in Saskatchewan, Feral Muse, Angelic Muse, The Poetry of Anne Szumigalski and tribute pieces to John V Hicks, R D Symons, Terrence Heath and Alex Karras. Contributing scholars include the likes of Kristina Fagan, Jenny Kerber, Susan Gingell, Ken Mitchell and Martin Winkvist.

The Return Of Seven Kenn Gordon, 2020-12-23. The second book in the Andy McPhee and Team Seven series of books. Once again SIS's team seven have to save the world for another despot who is determined to bring the world to its knees. Political corruption is never far away when the stakes are high as with the Conta affair, the CIA's hands are never clean, except this time there are people in every conceivable branch of law enforcement including the UK Secret Services and even inside the American FBI. In order to save the world, Team Seven must go deep inside North Korea's no-go area. From a gulag to a battle on the High Seas, Death follows them like a bad smell. This time they are destined to suffer the loss of one of their own. Will they succeed? Alt 42: Oral and Written African Poetry and Poetics Author Ernest N Emenyonu, 2024-11-19. Examines the state of African poetry today, the continuing influence of Africa's pioneer poets, today's new generation of poets and their work in written poetry and in the spoken word, continuing oral indigenous traditions. Almost half a century after ALT 6 and thirty-three years after ALT 16, what is the state of poetry and poetics in Africa? This volume of ALT highlights major developments and continuities in the practice of the art of poetry in the continent. Contributions analyse new frontiers in the traditional African epic and the Yoruba oríkù genre and innovations in form and theme such as spoken word poetry shared on digital media and pandemic poetry in the wake of COVID-19. They compare and contrast the work of Romeo Oriogun, Christopher Okigbo and Gabriel Okara and of T S Eliot and Kofi Anyidoho. Other essays examine the complexities of translation from Ewe into English and the development of oral African poetry, underscoring its dynamism and the centrality of performance. The volume also includes interviews with poets Kofi Anyidoho, Kwame Dawes and Kehinde Akano and tributes to Ama Ata Aidoo. Altogether it highlights the richness and vibrancy of contemporary praxis and points to future directions in the field. Flying Magazine, 1979-08
