Tragic Humanity and Hope Pius Ojara

SJ,2007-09-01 With insights into the thought of Gabriel Marcel Tragic Humanity and Hope recognizes that in our age scientific knowing is becoming a dominant form of knowledge The leadership influence growth and gravitational center of human existence depend it seems on scientific knowledge As a result we live in an information age that prizes production and immediate satisfaction but devalues the cultivation of wisdom We risk diminishing the significance of sapiential knowing to deal with the immensely complex and intricate domains of human relationality Furthermore inquiry into moral discernment methods expands becoming more diverse yet scholarly conversations that engage the vital exigencies as founding moral sensibility seem noticeably insufficient Tragic Humanity and Hope strives to overcome this lack But Ojara also seeks ethical groundings that exceed the language of pragmatic utility and aesthetic preference Foundations of morality cannot exclude questions of the common good and shared moral obligations that free people to reach out to one another with hopes and memories that endow life with shared meaning Through continuity and cohesion that the interlacing of scientific sapiential and moral knowing bring life becomes a marvelous expression of light joy and fervor

Preaching from Memory to Hope Thomas G. Long, 2009-03-19 In this compelling and hard hitting book respected preacher and teacher Thomas Long identifies and responds to what he sees as the most substantive theological forces and challenges facing preaching today The issues he says are fourfold the decline in the quality of narrative preaching and the need for its reinvigoration the tendency of preachers to ignore God's action and presence in our midst the return of the church's old nemesis gnosticism albeit in a milder form evidenced in today's new spirituality and the absence of eschatology in the pulpit Long once again has his finger on the pulse of American preaching demonstrated by his creative responses to these challenges Whether he is calling for theologically smarter and more ethically discerning preaching providing a method of interpretation that will allow pastors to recover the emphasis on God in our midst or encouraging a kind of interfaith dialogue with gnosticism he demonstrates why he has long been considered one of the most thoughtful and intelligent preachers in America today

Journeys toward Narrative Preaching Wayne Bradley Robinson, 2007-02-21 This volume is the outcome of the work of six members of the Narrative and Imagination working group of the Academy of Homiletics We hope that this volume will encourage those who have not tried narrative preaching to do so especially since we present a variety of models of how to do narrative preaching and show how each of us moved toward the particular model we present We also hope that this volume will contribute to the development of the discipline of narrative preaching When done well narrative preaching has the power to effect the kind of transformation in people's lives which we all hope for when we as vehicles attempt to communicate the good news This is so in part because narrative preaching both reflects and impacts on the narrative quality of life as we live it We recognize ourselves in narratives and we can imagine ourselves changed through narrative in a way that does not often happen through other means of preaching from the Introduction Contributors Robert G Hughes Eugene L Lowry Wayne Bradley Robinson Lucy Rose Richard L Thulin Michael E Williams
