Turkey Unveiled Nicola Pope, Hugh Pope, 1998-11 Journalists who have long reported from Turkey describe the country for general readers and tourists After a brief historical glance they begin with the fall of the Ottoman Empire and its heritage then discuss the failings and triumphs of the people and government in a balanced manner Armenia the Kurds Ataturk and new leaders breaking taboos are among the topics A gallery of black and white photographs illustrates the mix of cultures Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Turkey, 1939 Turkey: a Past and a Future Arnold Toynbee, 2019-12-04 In Turkey a Past and a Future Arnold Toynbee presents a comprehensive analysis of Turkey's historical trajectory and its potential future encapsulated within the parameters of sociopolitical evolution and cultural identity Toynbee employs a rich analytical literary style that blends historical narrative with philosophical inquiry providing readers with a nuanced understanding of Turkey's complexities The book situates Turkey within broader themes of civilization and decline exploring its transformation from the Ottoman Empire to a modern nation state while addressing issues of national identity secularism and the reconciliation of a diverse populace Arnold Toynbee renowned historian and philosopher was influenced by his extensive studies on the rise and fall of civilizations which shaped his perspective on Turkey His experiences in the early to mid 20th century a period marked by political upheaval and war in the region fueled his interest in Turkey as a case study of resilience amidst change Toynbee's scholarly background is evident in his meticulous research and insightful observations reflecting his understanding of historical forces shaping contemporary societies This book is highly recommended for scholars and general readers alike who are interested in the intricate tapestry of Turkish history and its implications for the future Toynbee's work not only fosters a greater appreciation for Turkey's cultural heritage but also encourages critical reflection on the challenges it faces today making it an invaluable resource for those seeking to understand this pivotal region

Turkish Awakening Alev Scott, 2014-03-04 Born in London to a Turkish mother and British father Alev Scott moved to Istanbul to discover what it means to be Turkish in a country going through rapid political and social change with an extraordinary past still linked to Mustafa Kemal Ataturk and an ever more surprising present under the leadership of Recep Tayyip Erdogan From the European buzz of modern day Constantinople to the Arabic speaking towns of the south east Turkish Awakening investigates mass migration urbanisation and economics in a country moving swiftly towards a new position on the world stage This is the story of discovering a complex country from the outside in a candid account of overturned preconceptions and fresh understanding Relating wide ranging interviews and colourful personal experience the author charts the evolving course of a country bursting with surprises none more dramatic than the unexpected political protests of 2013 in Taksim Square which have brought to light the emerging demands of a newly awakened Turkish people Mass migration urbanisation and a growing awareness of human rights have changed the social economic and physical landscapes of a powerful country and the 2013 protests were just one indication of the changes afoot in today's Turkey Threatened as it is by recent developments in Syria and Iraq and the approaching danger of ISIS

Encompassing topics as varied as Aegean camel wrestling transgender prostitution politicised soap operas and riot tourism this is a revelatory at times humorous at times moving portrait of a country which is coming of age Turkey and Its People Edwin Pears, 1912 Pears lived traveled and worked in the Ottoman Empire for about forty years This book is a history of the nation based on both Turkish and foreign sources The author discusses the ethnic diversity of Turkey religion customs gender military conquest and atrocities etc Turkey Emil Lengyel, 1941 Crescent and Star Stephen Kinzer, 2008-09-16 Reports on conditions in Turkey at the beginning of the twenty first century looking at the country's potential to become a world leader and examining the factors that could keep that from happening Crescent and Star Stephen Kinzer, 2001-09-22 A sharp spirited appreciation of where Turkey stands now and where it may head Carlin Romano The Philadelphia Inquirer In the first edition of this widely praised book Stephen Kinzer made the convincing claim that Turkey was the country to watch poised between Europe and Asia between the glories of its Ottoman past and its hopes for a democratic future between the dominance of its army and the needs of its civilian citizens between its secular expectations and its Muslim traditions In this newly revised edition of Crescent and Star he adds much important new information on the many exciting transformations in Turkey's government and politics that have kept it in the headlines and also shows how recent developments in both American and European policies and not only the war in Iraq have affected this unique and perplexing nation Everyday life in Turkey lady Agnes Dick Ramsay, 1897 Modern Turkey James Lewis Farley, 1872

The Rebirth of Turkey Clair Price, 2021-11-05 In The Rebirth of Turkey Clair Price meticulously chronicles the tumultuous journey of Turkey from the ashes of the Ottoman Empire to its emergence as a modern nation state Employing a blend of historical narrative and socio political analysis Price adeptly navigates the complexities of this transformation revealing the interplay between nationalism secularism and cultural identity The book is distinguished by its rich tapestry of primary sources providing readers with a nuanced understanding of both the triumphs and tribulations that have shaped contemporary Turkish society Clair Price a scholar with a profound interest in Middle Eastern history and politics draws upon her extensive field research and experiences living in Turkey Her background as a cultural anthropologist informs her exploration of the socio political dynamics within the country as she examines the broader implications of Turkey's rebirth within global contexts Price's commitment to illuminating lesser known voices enriching the narrative exemplifies her dedication to thorough scholarship and cultural empathy This compelling work is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand Turkey's pivotal role in the past century's geopolitical landscape As Price's vivid prose captures the essence of a nation at a crossroads The Rebirth of Turkey not only informs but also invites readers to reflect on the rich tapestry of history and culture that continues to define Turkey today BEING THE OTHER IN TURKEY Aslihan Kas, Advocates of Silenced Turkey, A photo frame can sometimes loudly shout out the truth that hundreds of striking words may have difficulty in elucidating As AST we wanted to utilize the power of images to demonstrate the violations of rights that we have also tried to announce with reports and special studies This book in your hand focuses on people from all walks of life who have been subjected to the ruthless persecution of the regime in Turkey during the last decade Especially after the coup attempt of 15 July 2016 it is a reality that many people who have never been involved in violence in their lives have been subjected to monstrous pressure and discrimination just because of their social affiliations The state apparatus which has been rapidly evolving towards a one party dictatorship overturned all the rules of law in the ensuing period shelved the constitutional rights and decriminalized legal acts that could never be considered a crime within the framework of universal principles and even made a blatant attempt to retroactively exploit these newly defined crimes to sentence people As part of the mass cultural genocide perpetrated against the members of the Gu len Movement also known as Hizmet Investigations were launched against more than 1 5 million people for terrorism allegations 300 000 people were detained More than 100 000 people were arrested 234 419 passports revoked More than 17 000 women were arrested Nearly 900 babies had to grow up in prison with their mothers Hundreds of thousands were laid off from their jobs Properties of thousands of people were forcibly confiscated As AST we wanted to record the intense oppression and persecution and to demonstrate the unlawful and anti democratic practices of the political regime in Turkey and make a note of history with 159 photographs some of which could be the symbols of this period For example among many others the photos featured Zabit Kis i who was tortured for 108 days and lost 30 kilos due to intense torments Bilal Konakc a bomb disposal expert who was sent to prison on account of the membership in a terrorist organization years after he became blind and had a 98 percent disability when a bomb exploded while he was trying to defuse it or Ms Hacer whose hospital room door was well guarded by a police team that was there to detain her soon after she gave birth We were unable to demonstrate all the atrocities due to the physical limitations of this book Yet the book will achieve its purpose if it can interpret the sufferings of the innocent masses albeit with a weak voice
