array of essays revealing the power of food and its absence to transform relationships between the human and non human realms to define national colonial and postcolonial cultures to help instantiate race gender and class relations and to serve as the basis for policymaking Food functions in these contexts as items in religious or secular law as objects with which to bargain or over which to fight as literary trope and as a way to improve or harm health individual or collective The anthology ranges from Ancient Greece to the posthuman fairy underworld from the codifying of French culinary heritage to the strategic marketing of 100 calorie snacks from the European famine after the Second World War to the lush and exotic cuisines of culinary tourism today Conversations With Food will engage anyone interested in discovering the disciplinary breadth and depth of food studies The anthology is ideally suited for introductory and advanced courses in food studies as it includes essays in a range of humanities and social science disciplines and each author draws cross disciplinary linkages between their own work and other essays in the volume This thematic and conceptual intercalation when read with the
