Hotel Front Office Management Lina Raske, 2016-04-01 The front office is the nerve center of a hotel property. Communications and accounting are two of the most important functions of a front desk operation. Front office reception is the first place where guests/customers arrive and come in touch with the staff. Front office reception is the mirror of a hotel. The function of the front office is to directly get in touch with customers. The front office can discover more information about the customer by asking them questions and give answer ask by guest/customer also helping the customers out. Broadly speaking front office includes roles that affect the right side revenues of trading statement of the business. Effective communications with guests/employees and other departments of the hotel are paramount in projecting a hospitable image. Answering guest inquiries about hotel services and other guests marketing and sales department requests for information on guest room availability and housekeeping department inquiries concerning guest reservations are but a few of the routine tasks performed almost constantly by a hotel front desk in its role as communications hub. Accounting procedures involving charges to registered and nonregistered hotel guest accounts are also important in the hospitality field. Staff working in the front office can also deal with simple tasks such as sorting emails and helping on printing and typing tasks. Front office staff needs to use different skills on technologies too such as using the printers fax machines and phone. The book Hotel Front Office Management addresses the demands for instructing future leaders of the hotel industry. Educators who are preparing professionals for roles as front office managers and general managers in hotels are required to meet the challenges of operations technology training empowerment and international applications.
