Front Page Challenge Alex Barris, 1999-01-01 When chosen to be a panelist on a new CBC show Front Page Challenge Gordon Sinclair had some doubts I m fifty seven years old If this show is a hit and goes on a long time wouldn t you want a younger man His concerns were laughed off Beginning in the summer of 1957 Canadians from St John s to Victoria sat spellbound in their living rooms every week to watch Front Page Challenge a show originally scheduled to replace regular broadcast for the summer season It had a life expectancy of 13 weeks Ultimately it became one of Canada s longest running television programs airing on CBC television for thirty eight years and attracting a devoted audience During that remarkable record breaking run host Fred Davis and panelists Pierre Berton Gordon Sinclair Jack Webster Toby Robins and Betty Kennedy became household names across Canada An extraordinary range of surprise guests Eleanor Roosevelt Errol Flynn Gordie Howe Boris Karloff Duke Ellington and Pierre Trudeau appeared on the show to be identified and interviewed After thirty eight years of success the cancellation of the show came as a shock to its loyal fans Here for the first time is the complete history of the show an insider s look at its successes and failures and the real scoop on the cancellation Eleanor Roosevelt on Screen Angela S. Beauchamp, 2023-11-30 Eleanor Roosevelt recognized the power of film and television especially as educational tools to reach young people She hosted three political talk shows in the 1950s and early 1960s often appearing in guest spots to promote the United Nations Democratic candidates and progressive issues with Ed Sullivan Bob Hope Frank Sinatra Mike Wallace and Edward R Murrow In the 1930s and 40s fan magazines such as Photoplay and Modern Screen published her opinions on the movies and she boldly appeared in an interventionist prologue to the 1940 anti Nazi film Pastor Hall During World War II she contributed to civil defense films and became a staple joke in Hollywood comedies She also negotiated postwar representations of FDR on the big screen culminating in 1960 s Sunrise at Campobello which portrayed her as the perfect wife This book is the first to address Eleanor Roosevelt s moving image record and her relationship to film and television in the three decades from the 1932 presidential campaign to her death in 1962 Pierre Berton Brian Mckillop, 2011-06-22 The first ever biography of one of Canada s best known and most colourful personalities by an award winning author From his northern childhood on it was clear that Pierre Berton 1920-2004 was different from his peers Over the course of his eighty four years he would become the most famous Canadian media figure of his time in newspapers magazines radio television and books sometimes all at once Berton dominated bookstore shelves for almost half a century winning Governor General s Awards for Klondike and The Last Spike among many others along with a dozen honorary degrees Throughout it all Berton was larger than life full of verve and ideas he approached everything he did with passion humour and an insatiable curiosity He loved controversy and being the centre of attention and provoked national debate on subjects as wide ranging as religion and marijuana use A major voice of Canadian nationalism at the dawn of globalization he made Canadians take interest in their own history and become proud of it But he had his critics too and some considered him egocentric and mean spirited Now with the same meticulous research and storytelling skill that earned him wide critical acclaim for The Spinster and the Prophet Brian McKillop traces Pierre Berton's remarkable life with special emphasis on his early days and his rise to prominence The result is a comprehensive vivid portrait of the life and work of one of our most celebrated national figures

The End of the CBC? David Taras, Christopher Waddell, 2020-01-29 The End of the CBC is about three overlapping crises the crisis that has enveloped the CBC the crisis of news and the crisis of democracy The emergence of platforms such as Google Facebook Twitter and Netflix the hyper targeting of individual users through data analytics the development of narrow online identity communities and the rise of an attention economy have changed the media landscape in dramatic ways Describing the failure of successive governments to address problems faced by the public broadcaster this book explains how the CBC lost its place in sports drama and entertainment Taras and Waddell propose a way forward for the CBC one in which the corporation concentrates its resources on news and current affairs and re establishes a reputation for depth and quality
