Central Intelligence Agency, 1964 The Republic of Vietnam, 1955-1975 Tuong Vu, Sean Fear, 2020-01-15 Through the voices of senior officials teachers soldiers journalists and artists The Republic of Vietnam 1955 1975 presents us with an interpretation of South Vietnam as a passionately imagined nation in the minds of ordinary Vietnamese rather than merely as an expeditious political construct of the United States government The moving and honest memoirs collected translated and edited here by Tuong Vu and Sean Fear describe the experiences of war politics and everyday life for people from many walks of life during the fraught years of Vietnam s Second Republic leading up to and encompassing what Americans generally call the Vietnam War The voices gift the reader a sense of the authors experiences in the Republic and their ideas about the nation during that time The light and careful editing hand of Vu and Fear reveals that far from a Cold War proxy struggle the conflict in Vietnam featured a true ideological divide between the communist North and the non communist South Vietnam David G. Marr, 2013-04-15 Amidst the revolutionary euphoria of August 1945 most Vietnamese believed that colonialism and war were being left behind in favor of independence and modernization The late September British French coup de force in Saigon cast a pall over such assumptions Ho Chi Minh tried to negotiate a mutually advantageous relationship with France but meanwhile told his lieutenants to plan for a war in which the nascent state might have to survive without allies In this landmark study David Marr evokes the uncertainty and contingency as well

Vietnam 1946 Stein Tonnesson,2010 Vietnam 1946 is a masterful narrative of the immediate origins of the first Vietnam War It is by turns vivid and shocking it is always immensely revealing T nnesson brings forensic clarity to crucial events about which even now some sixty years later fundamental misapprehensions exist An outstanding work of scholarship of major international importance Martin Thomas author of Empires of Intelligence T nnesson captures brilliantly the 1946 confrontation between two republics France determined to redeem itself from Axis humiliation by regaining Indochina Vietnam equally determined to retake independence after eighty years of colonial servitude T nnesson also demonstrates however that some leaders on each side really wanted a peaceful mutually beneficial outcome Descent into full scale war was not inevitable This is a carefully researched clearly written analysis of a vital moment in the 20th century history of both countries It is also a meditation on the elusive boundary between free will and determinism in human affairs David Marr author of Vietnamese Tradition on Trial 1920 1945 Stein T nnesson s Vietnam 1946 answers the fundamental question about the first of Vietnam s 20th century wars the one fought against the French how did it happen He has written a meticulously researched account which restores their contingency to the events The first Indochina war like those that succeeded it was not inevitable and T nnesson explains why and how it happened anyway Marilyn Young author of The Vietnam Wars 1945 1990

Kimball,1998 The signing of the Paris Agreement in 1973 ended not only America s Vietnam War but also Richard Nixon s best laid plans After years of secret negotiations threats of massive bombing and secret diplomacy designed to shatter strained Communist alliances the president had to settle for a peace that fell far short of his original aims
