Preparing for Growth and Marketing in Today's Church Michael Dixon, 2022-08-05 Churches are facing a crisis of epidemic proportions attendance is dropping empty pews are not being refilled and doors are closing Unfortunately the leadership in today's churches are not trained nor equipped to handle this crisis Leaders at all levels must know how to be an effective leader and communicate in a 360 degree radius effectively with each person they are in contact with Knowing and understanding what the objectives of the church are is of paramount importance Planning for church growth is more than a simple prayer Church growth starts with prayers visions of where God wants the church to go and an evaluation and analysis of where the church is Unfortunately not every church is prepared for growth and must take the necessary steps to be prepared for growth Love sells itself and love must be shown to all those who not only enter the church's doors but throughout the community Love is not shown by being the loud carnival barker who is selling chances to win a stuffed animal but by actions Love is a warm smile a heartfelt welcome a firm handshake or hug a short sweet introduction a sincere inquiry about the person and most importantly love is listening Love does not sell anything especially denominationalism The life cycle of the church must be understood and leadership must know where the church is in the life cycle In order to extend the church's life cycle new ideas and services must be continuously developed and initiated in order to stay relevant This relevancy leads to a strong brand for the church This book was developed with interviews and conversations with pastors and clergy from all walks of faith and from all areas of the United States Regardless of the denomination this book is designed to guide church leaders through the necessary steps in order to grow and market your church

The Role of the Pastoral Leader in the Church

Today Dr. William Burnham, 2015-11-17 The Role of the Pastoral Leader in the Church Today is a book every pastor should want the church he leads to read. In this book the people of the church come to understand the call of the pastor and what his true biblical qualifications should be. This book examines the character of the pastor as well as outlines and describes his main responsibilities in caring for the church body. The apostle Paul wrote, "And He God Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers." Eph 4:11 NKJV. This and other passages like it reveal it is God who gives the church the pastor. In Acts 6 the pastors of the early church laid out what their priorities were to be, but this is not where many churches are today, and this is not what many who are called to lead the church today are doing. This book confronts where we have gotten away from God's plan for God's man and may even be the revealing factor behind why so many pastors are leaving the church today. When we have the wrong man in the wrong place, being asked to do the wrong thing, we are destined for hardship at least and failure more than likely. The Role of the Pastoral Leader in the Church Today is the book every pastor search or nominating committee should read before taking on the task. More times than not we are asking people to step into a role on these committees that they are ill equipped for. This is not to say these are not spiritual people or even the most spiritually deep people of the church; they are in. However, they may not be familiar with what to look for and the questions to qualify whether a man is truly called by God to be a pastor or not. They may have some exposure to, but not a thorough understanding of, the biblical qualifications of a pastor. While character is an issue, what do you need to look for? And how do you best discover the type of character and track record of caring for the church your candidate has? And beyond his testimony, call to ministry, and track record, is there any other, and if there are, what are they? Pertinent things the church committee should consider to determine whether their candidates are fit for the role of pastoral leader in their church. Things besides what school he attended and whom he knows. The Role of the Pastoral Leader in the Church Today is challenging to the way many churches are getting God's man into God's place to do God's thing and how they let him do it once he is there. This is an eye-opening book to give pastors and churches a look at how to work together for the glory of God. My prayer is that all who read it will be enlightened, encouraged, and empowered by the role of the pastoral leader in the church today.

Volunteers for Today's Church Dennis E. Williams, Kenneth O. Gangel, 2004-04-08 Too often the same few faithful people end up volunteering their services in the church while the majority seems content to watch the action or lack thereof from the sidelines. But there is hope for leaders who find themselves in this situation. Volunteers for Today's Church shows ministry leaders how to motivate the stand-by crowd to start playing the game. And although just getting players to sign up is a major task, seasoned coaches know that this is just the beginning. Determining the strengths of each volunteer is crucial for a strong team. Dennis Williams and Kenneth Gangel here provide practical advice on how to dovetail a volunteer's gifts with a ministry that really fits. Included are tips on personal recruiting, teamwork, supervising, training, and keeping workers motivated.

Feed My Sheep Lemuel Baker, 2012-02-29 I wanted to create a work that would make comprehensive easy to read and hard hitting for Christian Leaders that could bring us back to our first love My second goal was to compile a work that would help Christian leaders become effective leaders by forming a philosophy for life and for ministry congruent to the will of God for their lives I hope to accomplish these goals within the contents of this book The book is insightful in many ways such as the importance of the Church as a critical part of secular society and mental health as a pathology that needs to be mitigated even among the constituents of the Church Unfortunately erroneous practices beliefs behaviors and teachings had to be addressed because I believe many people will come to their senses about given subjects if they receive proper explanations A logical and scriptural perspective is given in order to help some get on track with regards to their beliefs philosophy and actions Hot topics discussed are Ephesians 4 11 endowments of the Apostle Prophet Evangelist Pastor and Teacher A special chapter is dedicated to the role of women in the Church which unfortunately is a topic that is still a concern for many Christians around the world There are concepts that are presented that all work towards bringing an individual to full order and to full congruence with the will of God for Leaders An awareness to the importance of feeding sheep is a central topic of this 269 page hand book for all Christian leaders that emphasizes the God given responsibility for Pastors and leaders that are non negotiable Every Christian leader must read this book before assuming ministry during ministry and after ministry to review their performance awaiting the day when Jesus will hand out rewards for service especially crowns designated specifically for leaders who were faithful There is so much more such as how to feed sheep and what diet is essential such as when feeding sheep we must feed a good balance of both the word and the anointing to achieve full spiritual health We discuss the importance of the local Church and what research says about the congregation we speak to each time services are held You may be surprised at the needs that are present each time you speak and the responsibility you have to be a vessel through whom God can do an actual intervention into the life of an attendee to prevent misfortune You wont be disappointed Every seminary bible college and Church must make this book a part of their curriculum required reading and library
