Emotions and Modernity in Colonial India Margrit Pernau, 2019-08-22 With this pioneering project Margrit Pernau brings the history of emotions approach to South Asian studies A theoretically sophisticated and erudite investigation Emotions and Modernity in Colonial India maps the history of emotions in India between the uprising of 1857 and World War I Situating the prevalent experiences interpretations and practices of emotions of the time within the context of the major political events of colonial India Pernau goes beyond the dominant narrative of colonial modernity and its fixation with discipline and restraint and traces the contemporary transformation from a balance in emotions to the resurgence of fervor The current volume is based on a large archive of sources in Urdu many being explored for the first time Pernau grounds her work on such diverse sources as philosophical and theological treatises on questions of morality advice literature journals and newspapers nostalgic descriptions of courtly culture and even children's literature This close look into individual experiences practices and interpretations reveals the myriad emotions of the day and the importance of these micro histories in presenting an alternative account of colonial India

South Asia's Modern History Michael Mann, 2014-10-24 This comprehensive history of modern South Asia explores the historical development of the Subcontinent from the beginning of the eighteenth century to the present day from local and regional as opposed to European perspectives Michael Mann charts the role of emerging states within the Mughal Empire the gradual British colonial expansion in the political setting of the Subcontinent and shows how the modern state formation usually associated with Western Europe can be seen in some regions of India linking Europe and South Asia together as part of a shared world history This book looks beyond the Subcontinent's post colonial history to consider the political economic social and cultural development of Pakistan and Bangladesh as well as Sri Lanka and Nepal and to examine how these developments impacted the region's citizens South Asia's Modern History begins with a general introduction which provides a geographical environmental and historiographical overview This is followed by thematic chapters which discuss Empire Building and State Formation Agriculture and Agro Economy Silviculture and Scientific Forestry Migration Circulation and Diaspora Industrialisation and Urbanisation and Knowledge Science Technology and Power demonstrating common themes across the decades and centuries This book will be perfect for all students of South Asian history

Delusional States Nosheen Ali, 2019-09-19 Offers a pioneering study of state making religion and development in contemporary Pakistan and its northern frontier

Polymaths of Islam James Pickett, 2020-09-15 Polymaths of Islam analyzes the social and intellectual power of religious leaders who created a shared culture that integrated Central Asia Iran and India from the mid eighteenth century through the early twentieth James

Pickett demonstrates that Islamic scholars were simultaneously mystics and administrators judges and occultists physicians and poets This integrated understanding of the world of Islamic scholarship unlocks a different way of thinking about transregional exchange networks Pickett reveals a Persian language cultural sphere that transcended state boundaries and integrated a spectacularly vibrant Eurasia that is invisible from published sources alone Through a high cultural complex that he terms the Persian cosmopolis or Persianate sphere Pickett argues that an intersection of diverse disciplines shaped geographical trajectories across and between political states In Polymaths of Islam he paints a comprehensive colorful and often contradictory portrait of mosque and state in the age of empire

Britain Through Muslim Eyes Claire

Chambers,2015-07-30 What did Britain look like to the Muslims who visited and lived in the country in increasing numbers from the late eighteenth century onwards This book is a literary history of representations of Muslims in Britain from the late eighteenth century to the eve of Salman Rushdie s publication of The Satanic Verses 1988

Writing India Anew Krishna

Sen,Rituparna Roy,2025-10-01 This groundbreaking study assesses the genre of Indian English fiction in the first decade of the twenty first century Some of the most prominent scholars in the field including Rimi B Chatterjee Bill Ashcroft and Shirley Chew explore a range of themes that extend from the re mapping of mythology and history to reassessing the globalised India of today Together they contend that the current body of work of Indian English literature is so varied and vibrant that it can no longer be dismissed as derivative or dispossessed Instead they regard this new corpus of writing to be a major aspect of contemporary Anglophone literature Ultimately the contributors contend that the current body of work in Indian English fiction is so varied and vibrant that it can no longer be dismissed as derivative or dispossessed or even as mere postcolonial writing back or compensatory national allegory

Spirals of Contention Satish Saberwal,2012-04-27

This study examines the social and psychological processes that led to the Partition of the Indian subcontinent in 1947 It recognizes the long term continuities in the idiom of conflict as well as cooperation and shows that by 1900 the conflicts and animosities were gathering a self aggravating momentum The book moves back and forth between evidence and general or theoretical understanding Separateness between Hindus and Muslims grew reciprocally with hardening religious identities and the growing frequency of incidents of conflict These skirmishes had several dimensions symbolic desecrating places of worship societal conversions and physical violence against women As mutual trust declined a quarter century of negotiations under diverse auspices failed to yield an agreement and even the framework of the Partition in 1947 was imposed by the colonial rulers A theoretically informed study this book takes a comparative stance along several axes Recognizing long term continuities in the idiom of conflict as well as of cooperation it will be of interest to students of conflicts Partitions history sociology and South Asian studies

The Muslim Speaks Khurram Hussain,2020-10-29 The Muslim Speaks reimagines

Islam as a strategy for investigating the modern condition Rather than imagining it as an issue external to a discrete West Khurram Hussain constructs Islam as internal to the elaboration and expansion of the West In doing so he reveals three discursive traps that of freedom reason and culture that inhibit the availability of Islam as a feasible critical interlocutor in Western deliberations about moral intellectual and political concerns Through close examination of this inhibition Hussain posits that while Islamophobia is clearly a moral wrong depoliticization more accurately describes the problems associated with the lived experience of Muslims in the West and elsewhere Weaving together his conclusions in the hope of a common world Khurram Hussain boldly and quite radically deems that what Islam needs is not depoliticization but infact repoliticization

Claiming Citizenship and Nation Aishwarya Pandit,2021-07-15 The book provides insight into the changing nature of Muslim politics and the ideas of citizenship in independent India It studies the electoral mobilization of minority groups across North India particularly in Uttar Pradesh where Muslims have been demographically dominant in various constituencies The volume discusses themes such as the making and unmaking of the Congress heartland and the threat of revival of Muslim communalism alongside issues of representation property language politics rehabilitation and citizenship politics of Waqf personal law and Hindu counter mobilization The author utilizes previously unused government and institutional files private archives interviews and oral resources to address questions central to Indian politics and society An important intervention this book will be useful for scholars and researchers of politics Indian history minority studies law political studies nationalism electoral politics partition studies political sociology sociology and South Asian Studies

Shiptown Ann Grodzins Gold,2017-06-27 Ann Grodzins Gold weaves together an integrated series of ethnographic sketches depicting the distinctive nature of non urban non rural places the impact locality has on belonging the negotiations of difference required in a pluralistic society and the ways a changing environment permeates experiences of self and place

Reliving Karbala Syed Akbar Hyder,2008-09-01 In 680 C E a small band of the Prophet Muhammads family and their followers led by his grandson Husain rose up in a rebellion against the ruling caliph Yazid The family and its supporters hopelessly outnumbered were massacred at Karbala in modern day Iraq The story of Karbala is the cornerstone of institutionalized devotion and mourning for millions of Shii Muslims Apart from its appeal to the Shii community invocations of Karbala have also come to govern mystical and reformist discourses in the larger Muslim world Indeed Karbala even serves as the archetypal resistance and devotional symbol for many non Muslims Until now though little scholarly attention has been given to the widespread and varied employment of the Karbala event In Reliving Karbala Syed Akbar Hyder examines the myriad ways that the Karbala symbol has provided inspiration in South Asia home to the worlds largest Muslim population Rather than a unified reading of Islam Hyder reveals multiple sometimes conflicting understandings of the meaning of Islamic religious symbols like Karbala He ventures beyond traditional scriptural interpretations to discuss the ways in which millions of very human adherents express and practice their beliefs By using a panoramic array of sources including musical performances interviews nationalist drama and other literary forms Hyder traces the evolution of this story from its earliest historical origins to the beginning of the twenty first century Today Karbala serves as a celebration of martyrdom a source of personal and communal identity and even a tool for political protest and struggle Hyder explores how issues related to gender genre popular culture class and migrancy bear on the cultivation of religious symbols He assesses the manner in which religious language and identities are negotiated across contexts and continents At a time when words like martyrdom jihad and Shiism are being used and misused for political reasons this book provides much needed scholarly redress Through his multifaceted examination of this seminal event in Islamic history Hyder offers an original complex and nuanced view of religious symbols

In Freedom's Shade Anis Qidwāī, 2011 Appearing for the first time in English translation In Freedom's Shade is Anis Kidwai's moving personal memoir of the first two years of nascent India It is an activist's record that reveals both the architecture of the violence during Partition as well as the efforts of ordinary citizens to bring the cycle of reprisal and retribution to a close Beginning from the murder of her husband in October 1947 with a rare frankness sympathy and depth of insight Anis Kidwai tells the stories of the thousands who were driven away from their homelands in Delhi and its neighbouring areas by eviction or abduction or the threat of forced religious conversion Of historical importance for its account of the activities of the Shanti Dal the recovery of abducted women and the history of Delhi In Freedom's Shade also has an equal contemporary relevance In part a delineation of the roots of the afflictions that beset Indian society and in part prophetic about the plagues that were to come Anis Kidwai's testament is an enduring reminder that memory without truth is futile only when it serves the objective of reconciliation does it achieve meaning and significance

Indian Muslim Minorities and the 1857 Rebellion Ilyse R. Morgenstern Fuerst, 2017-08-14 While jihad has been the subject of countless studies in the wake of recent terrorist attacks scholarship on the topic has so far paid little attention to South Asian Islam and more specifically its place in South Asian history Seeking to fill some gaps in the historiography Ilyse R

Morgenstein Fuerst examines the effects of the 1857 Rebellion long taught in Britain as the Indian Mutiny on debates about the issue of jihad during the British Raj Morgenstein Fuerst shows that the Rebellion had lasting pronounced effects on the understanding by their Indian subjects whether Muslim Hindu or Sikh of imperial rule by distant outsiders For India s Muslims their interpretation of the Rebellion as jihad shaped subsequent discourses definitions and codifications of Islam in the region Morgenstein Fuerst concludes by demonstrating how these perceptions of jihad contextualised within the framework of the 19th century Rebellion continue to influence contemporary rhetoric about Islam and Muslims in the Indian subcontinent Drawing on extensive primary source analysis this unique take on Islamic identities in South Asia will be invaluable to scholars working on British colonial history India and the Raj as well as to those studying Islam in the region and beyond

Moderate or Militant Mushirul Hasan,2008-02-13 In this book Mushirul Hasan articulates a vision of Islam or rather the many different kinds of Islam instead of the frightening monolith of popular perception living in harmony with other faiths and of Indian Muslims inheritors of the great Indian civilization living in a plural society Engaging with the debates surrounding the society polity and history of India s Muslims and using historical and literary sources as well as the writings of modern Muslim thinkers like Aziz Ahmad and Mohammad Mujeeb Hasan traces the development of contemporary ideas about Muslims from the mid nineteenth century onwards through British rule and the partition to the present day For Hasan a truly secular reading of Indian history reveals Indian Islam as one that exists in a pluralist milieu

Muslims against the Muslim League Ali Usman Qasmi,Megan Eaton Robb,2017-09-15 The popularity of the Muslim League and its idea of Pakistan has been measured in terms of its success in achieving the goal of a sovereign state in the Muslim majority regions of North West and North East India It led to an oversight of Muslim leaders and organizations which were opposed to this demand predicating their opposition to the League on its understanding of the history and ideological content of the Muslim nation This volume takes stock of multiple narratives about Muslim identity formation in the context of debates about partition historicizes those narratives and reads them in the light of the larger political milieu of the period Focusing on the critiques of the Muslim League its concept of the Muslim nation and the political settlement demanded on its behalf it studies how the movement for Pakistan inspired a contentious influential conversation on the definition of the Muslim nation
