Dürer, 2005-05-30 Publisher Description      Albrecht Dürer and the Depiction of Cultural Differences in Renaissance Europe Heather Madar, 2023-07-31 This book provides a comprehensive assessment of Dürer's depictions of human diversity focusing particularly on his depictions of figures from outside his Western European milieu Heather Madar contextualizes those depictions within their broader artistic and historical context and assesses them in light of current theories about early modern concepts of cultural ethnic religious and racial diversity The book also explores Dürer's connections with contemporaries his later legacy with respect to his imagery of the other and the broader significance of Nuremberg to early modern engagements with the world beyond Europe The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history Renaissance studies and Renaissance history      Man, Myth, and Sensual Pleasures Jan Gossaert, Stijn Alsteens, Nadine Orenstein, Lorne Campbell, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), National Gallery (Great Britain), 2010 Issued in connection with an exhibition held Oct 5 2010 Jan 17 2011 Metropolitan Museum of Art New York and Feb 23 May 30 2011 National Gallery London selected paintings only      European Master Drawings from Portuguese Collections Nicholas Turner, Manuela Fidalgo, José Alberto Seabra Carvalho, Fitzwilliam Museum, 2000      Peasant Scenes and Landscapes Larry Silver, 2012-01-31 Modern viewers take for granted the pictorial conventions present in easel paintings and engraved prints of such subjects as landscapes or peasants These generic subjects and their representational conventions however have their own origins and early histories In sixteenth century Antwerp painting and the emerging new medium of engraving began to depart from traditional visual culture which had been defined primarily by wall paintings altarpieces and portraits of the elite New genres and new media arose simultaneously in this volatile commercial and financial capital of Europe home to the first open art market near the city Bourse The new pictorial subjects emerged first as hybrid images dominated by religious themes but also including elements that later became pictorial categories in their own right landscapes food markets peasants at work and play and still life compositions In addition to being the place of the origin and evolution of these genres the Antwerp art market gave rise to the concept of artistic identity in which favorite forms and favorite themes by an individual artist gained consumer recognition In Peasant Scenes and Landscapes Larry Silver examines the emergence of pictorial kinds scenes of taverns and markets landscapes and peasants and charts their evolution as genres from initial hybrids to more conventionalized artistic formulas The relationship of these new genres and their favorite themes reflect a burgeoning urbanism and capitalism in Antwerp and Silver analyzes how pictorial genres and the Antwerp marketplace fostered the development of what has come to be known as signature artistic style By examining Bosch and Bruegel together with their imitators he focuses on pictorial innovation as well as the marketing of individual styles attending particularly to the growing practice of artists signing their works In addition he argues that consumer interest in the style of individual artists reinforced another phenomenon of the later sixteenth century art collecting While today we take such typical artistic formulas as commonplace along with their frequent use of identifying signatures a Rothko a Pollock Peasant Scenes and Landscapes shows how these developed simultaneously in the commercial world of early modern Antwerp The Essential Durer Larry Silver,Jeffrey Chipps Smith,2010 The Essential Durer offers an accessible and up to date look at one of Germany's most famous artists Essays explore his life as well as his art and its remarkable reception across Europe Envisioning Gender in Burgundian Devotional Art, 1350-1530 Andrea Pearson,2017-05-15 Illuminated here are the relationships between visual culture faith and gender in the courtly monastic and urban spheres of the early modern Burgundian Netherlands By examining works by artists such as the Master of Mary of Burgundy Jan van Eyck Hans Memling and Bernard van Orley author Andrea Pearson identifies and explores pictorial constructions of masculinity and femininity in regard to the expectations experiences and practices of devotion Specifically she demonstrates that two of the most prominent visual genres of the period books of hours and devotional portrait diptychs were manipulated by patrons and spectators of both sexes to challenge and negotiate the boundaries and hierarchies of gender and that marginalized individuals and groups appropriated the types to resist the authority of others and advance their own Ultimately the books and diptychs emerge as critical and often contentious sites for deliberating and transacting gender By integrating books of hours and devotional portrait diptychs into current interdisciplinary theoretical discourse on gender power and devotion the author engages scholars in a range of disciplines art history history religion and literature as well as women's and men's studies Art and Architecture of Late Medieval Pilgrimage in Northern Europe and the British Isles ,2022-07-18 This collection includes essays on the visual experience and material culture at medieval pilgrimage shrines of northern Europe and the British Isles particularly the art and architecture created to intensify spiritual experience for visitors These studies focus on regional pilgrimage centers which flourished from the 12th 16th centuries addressing various aspects of visual imagery and architectural space which inspired devotees to value cults of enshrined saints and to venerate them in memory from afar Subjects include pilgrim dress jeweled and painted reliquaries labyrinths elaborate processions printed texts of the saint's life shrines sculpture and other architectural decoration and pilgrim souvenirs Profusely illustrated with 350 photographs this work will interest scholars and students of art history history religious studies and popular culture Contributors include Ilana Abend David Virginia Blanton Sarah Blick Katja Boertjes James Bugslag Lisa Victoria Ciresi Daniel K Connolly M Cecilia Gaposchkin Laura D Gelfand Anja Grebe Anne F Harris Kelly M Holbert Vida J Hull Jos Koldewey Marike de Kroon Claire Labrecque Stephen Lamia Nora Laos Jennifer M Lee Albert Lemeunier Mitchell B Merback Scott B Montgomery Jeanne Nuechterlein Rita Tekippe William J Travis Kristen Van Ausdall Beno t Van den Bossche The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004475168 The Eye and the Beholder Hannelore Hägele,2014-06-02 In The Eye and the Beholder the author singles out a topic already touched upon in her previous book Colour in Sculpture By raising the question of how significant the colouring of the eye is to figurative representations of the late medieval and early modern period Hannelore H gele examines the different solutions open to the sculptor which vary depending on historical and cultural parameters The created eye must suit purpose and style She discusses a number of unusual aspects of this sculpted eyes in antiquity the art and craft of polychromy partial polychromy emotions and expressions the gaze and the glance from the sculpted eye to colour and the glass eye and what the eye cannot see Dr H gele asks whether advances in optics and other sciences or theological concepts such as the eye of God and the inner eye determined the way in which eyes were perceived and represented It is the beholder whether as maker or viewer who engages with and judges the worth of any creative effort and what it contributes to an understanding of the seen and the unseen The illustrations and the many coloured plates accompanying the text offer an overview of the subject

The Body of the Artisan Pamela H. Smith, 2024-05-31 Since the time of Aristotle the making of knowledge and the making of objects have generally been considered separate enterprises Yet during the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries the two became linked through a new philosophy known as science In The Body of the Artisan Pamela H Smith demonstrates how much early modern science owed to an unlikely source artists and artisans From goldsmiths to locksmiths and from carpenters to painters artists and artisans were much sought after by the new scientists for their intimate hands on knowledge of natural materials and the ability to manipulate them Drawing on a fascinating array of new evidence from northern Europe including artisans objects and their writings Smith shows how artisans saw all knowledge as rooted in matter and nature With nearly two hundred images The Body of the Artisan provides astonishingly vivid examples of this Renaissance synergy among art craft and science and recovers a forgotten episode of the Scientific Revolution an episode that forever altered the way we see the natural world
