Astronomy and Astrology Rudolf Steiner, 2009 From the Publisher In the Middle Ages Astronomia one of the Seven Liberal Arts was as much about astrology as astronomy In fact the two disciplines only parted company in the seventeenth century as the materialistic world view gained greater prominence Where once human destiny was connected to stars and planets and spiritual or soul qualities were associated with the natural world now the cosmos was seen as consisting of gases fire and dead rock Rudolf Steiner brings a new spiritual perspective to our study of the heavens Humanity he says is intimately connected to cosmic beings who in turn are related to planets and stars There is meaning in the cosmos Although Steiner rejects the simplistic notion of the planets determining our lives and behaviour he makes a clear connection between the heavenly bodies and human beings Whilst criticizing the superficial nature of much astrology Steiner shows that as individuals and with the guidance of spiritual beings we choose an appropriate time of birth to match the destiny we are to live This enlightening anthology expertly collated by Margaret Jonas features excerpts of Steiner's work on the spiritual individualities of the planets the determination of human characteristics by the constellation at birth the cultural epochs and the passage of the equinox cosmic influences on the individual and humanity life in the planetary spheres between death and rebirth solar and lunar eclipses comets and much more
