From the Four Noble Truths to the Four Universal Vows Xingyun, Hsing Yun, 2002 Written and published in the Universal Gate Buddhist Journal Venerable Master Hsing Yun harmonizes both Theravada and Mahayana traditions by demonstrating that seemingly disparate ideals are in fact pointing us toward the same objectives

From the Four Noble Truths to the Four Universal Vows Xingyun, 2002

Infinite Compassion, Endless Wisdom Xingyun, 2010-04 Infinite Compassion Endless Wisdom introduces us to the many Buddhist practitioners who have for centuries selflessly labored for the benefit of others They are bodhisattvas people who work not only for their own enlightenment and self improvement but have vowed to lead all beings down the path to liberation as well From the great bodhisattvas that adorn shrine rooms whose lives are confined to myth and legend to those Buddhist masters who shaped the religion we know today Infinite Compassion Endless Wisdom shares their lives their teachings and their practice

The Promise of Amida Buddha, 2011-05-01 The Promise of Amida Buddha is the first complete English translation of a seminal collection of writings by the Japanese Pure Land school's founder Honen shonin 1133-1212 The so-called Japanese Anthology Wago Toroku collects his surviving short writings composed in Japanese including letters of exhortation and public pronouncements The vital writings provide a window into Honen's life and the turbulent era in which he lived and taught Honen shonin who lived in Japan in the twelfth century saw that the complexity of traditional Buddhist practices made them inaccessible to people outside the monastic elite Drawing on the Chinese Pure Land tradition he reimagined Pure Land practice for Japan and ushered in a new and dynamic practice that continues in the present day In our degenerate age says Honen we cannot hope to reach enlightenment via the practices employed by the Buddhist masters of old For us there is only one avenue to liberation rebirth in the Pure Land of Amida from whence our progress is irreversible and our ultimate release assured The Pure Land is a heavenly destination made manifest through the pure vow of Amida to save all beings and we secure passage to this land in our next life through pure faith in Amida at the very moment of death The practice of faith in Amida is performed through nembutsu the continual recitation of the mantra Namu Amida Butsu which bonds us to Amida and brings us into his care

A Dictionary of Chinese Buddhist Terms, 2004 This invaluable interpretive tool first published in 1937 is now available for the first time in a paperback edition specially aimed at students of Chinese Buddhism Those who have endeavoured to read Chinese texts apart from the apprehension of a Sanskrit background have generally made a fallacious interpretation for the Buddhist canon is basically translation or analogous to translation. In consequence a large number of terms existing are employed approximately to connote imported ideas as the various Chinese translators understood those ideas. Various translators invented different terms and even when the same term was finally adopted its connotation varied sometimes widely from the Chinese term or phrase as normally used by the Chinese. For instance kl sa undoubtedly has a meaning in Sanskrit similar to that of i e affliction distress trouble. In Buddhism affliction or as it may be understood from Chinese the afflicters distressers troublers means passions and illusions and consequently fan nao in Buddhist phraseology has acquired this technical connotation of the passions and illusions. Many terms of a similar character are noted in the body of this work. Consequent partly on this use of ordinary terms even a well educated Chinese without a knowledge of the technical equivalents finds himself unable to understand their implications.

Venerable Master Hsing Yun, 2024-08-01 Buddha-Dharma: Pure And Simple 1 Venerable Master Hsing Yun, 2019-09-01 In today's Buddhist sphere numerous claims have been made on what the Buddha has taught. However were they truly spoken by the Buddha? The Buddha Dharma Pure and Simple series is an exploration of over 300 topics where Venerable Master Hsing Yun clarifies the Buddha's teachings in a way that is accessible and relevant to modern readers. Erroneous Buddhist views should be corrected; the true meaning of the Dharma must be preserved in order to hold true to the original intents of the Buddha. This first installment contains 52 articles on the topics of faith and doctrine laying the foundation for readers to learn and practice in the Buddha's footsteps. Moreover it also serves as an inspiration for practitioners to strive for Buddhahood and believe that I am a Buddha. In Praise of Great Compassion Dalai Lama, Thubten Chodron, 2020-08-11 Discover the Dalai Lama's definitive teaching on compassion in this fifth volume of the Dalai Lama's definitive Library of Wisdom and Compassion series. In Praise of Great Compassion the fifth volume of the Library of Wisdom and Compassion continues the Dalai Lama's teachings on the path to awakening. While previous volumes focused on our present situation and taking responsibility for creating the causes of happiness this volume concerns opening our hearts and generating the intention to make our lives meaningful by benefiting others. We are embedded in a universe with other living beings all of whom have been kind to us in one way or another. More than any other time in human history we depend on one another to stay alive and flourish. When we look closely it becomes apparent that we have been the recipient of great kindness. Wanting to repay others kindness we cultivate a positive attitude by contemplating the four immeasurables of love compassion empathic joy and equanimity and the altruistic intention of bodhicitta. We learn to challenge the self-centered attitude that leads to misery and replace it with a more realistic perspective enabling us to remain emotionally balanced in good and bad times. In this way all circumstances become favorable to the path to awakening. The Rabbit's Horn: A Commentary on the Platform Sutra, 2010 醒雲 Xingyun, Hsing Yun, 2002 The name Buddha comes from a verb that means to awake

When asked what sort of creature he was a man a god an angel the Buddha replied I am awake The life of a Buddhist then is a life dedicated to awakening Whether through intellectual understanding meditation practice or both the Buddhist is continually awakening to the true nature of things and of himself In this book Venerable Master Hsing Yun offers thirty six brief essays as guides to living the Awakening Life Most of the essays are divided into four or five main points as brief as they are they offer rich opportunities for deep contemplation Pondering these little gems can lead to greater awakening in every person s life

A Dictionary of Chinese Buddhist Terms William Edward Soothill, Lewis Hodous, 1977 Here is an outstanding work for which two eminent scholars of Chinese Buddhism separated by 2000 miles of ocean collaborated for complete ten years during which the manuscript crossed the Atlantic four times The authors aim has been to provide a key for the student with which to unlock a closed door and which does serve to reveal the riches of the great Buddhist thesaurus in China In the absence of a dictionary of Chinese Buddhist Terms it was small wonder that the translation of Chinese texts has made little progress important thought these are to the understanding of Mahayana buddhism especially in its Far Eastern development

Pearls of Wisdom Hsing Yun,2003-03 Among the many offerings that Buddhists make to the Buddha are incense flowers candles and fruit We make these offerings out of respect to the Buddha not because the Buddha demands such offerings or because we expect to be rewarded by the Buddha for our offerings We also offer ourselves when we bow and prostrate before the Buddha To this list of offerings we may also add our words in the form of prayers to the Great Compassionate Buddha Venerable Master Hsing Yun has written this beautiful and comprehensive collection of Buddhist prayers to help Buddhists of all schools to focus their thoughts and to offer to the Buddha beautiful words of praise gratitude and thanksgiving It is our hope that readers of these prayers will meditate upon the words and how they apply to their lives will see their situations through the eyes of wisdom

Studies on Humanistic Buddhism III: Glocalization of Buddhism, 2020-09-01 Studies on Humanistic Buddhism III

Zen Fragments Philippe Coupey, 2024-09-01 Zen Fragments is a concise lively presentation of the teachings of Reiryu Philippe Coupey a Western Zen monk firmly rooted in the modern world The book is based on 8 years of oral teachings given during zazen at the Paris dojo Seine Zen or in various retreats organized in France and Germany from 2003 2010 These teachings are supplemented by a series of essays written directly by the author and touching upon more personal and often poetic subjects all of which enhance the core of the teaching he so brilliantly represents Philippe Coupey is American born but first encountered the practice of Zen Buddhism in France through the Japanese monk Taisen Deshimaru Since 1972 the practice and transmission of Zen Buddhism has been his priority Thanks to his dedication we now have access to a demanding teaching derived from a thousand year old tradition and yet totally adapted to our contemporary lives without the need to refer to psychology vegetarianism and other newly adapted Zen subjects This teaching is relevant to humanity today because beyond frontiers social ethnic and religious differences and the gaps we imagine between our inner life and our social duties it urges us to rediscover the essential within ourselves so that we can approach the world with a continually fresh mind embracing opposites And so beyond the words that make up this book Philippe Coupey constantly suggests that as is true within the most ancient traditions we experience this new spirit for ourselves The underlying message here is not to cling to the extremes left right good bad love hate etc which only leads to the separation of one thing from another and is the origin of many of society's biggest problems today

Frankness of style distinguishes Philippe Coupey's and Deshimaru's writing from that of many American Zen writers for example those in the Suzuki and Maezumi lineages. Like Deshimaru before him, Coupey has never tried to soften the impact of his words, finding the raw, unreserved approach more in keeping with the ancient masters. Having practiced with his master Taisen Deshimaru until his death in 1982, Philippe has continued to transmit his teaching since that time in France, Germany, and elsewhere in Europe. He is a member and officer of the International Zen Association (AZI) founded by Master Taisen Deshimaru and is Master in the Sangha sans Demeure Seine Zen, which together number 400-500 persons. Universal Compassion Geshe Kelsang Gyatso, 2002-01-01. Universal Compassion is a book of practical instructions on increasing love and compassion, an ideal guide to the Mahayana Buddhist teachings on training the mind, step by step instructions on developing universal love and compassion in our daily life, and an essential advice on how to transform all life situations into opportunities for spiritual development.
