Through Mesopotamia and Kurdistan (Classic Reprint) G. E. Hubbard, 2017-10-12 Excerpt from From the Gulf to Ararat an Expedition Through Mesopotamia and Kurdistan I have to preface this book with an apology and worse still an excuse The apology is for venturing to publish at the present time the record of a journey which except for quite the last stage took place in that almost prehistoric epoch before the war My excuse is twofold firstly that fifteen months of enforced idleness drove me into writing it and secondly that subsequent events have contrived to add a special interest which it could not otherwise have claimed Although in no sense a war book it deals with countries which have been the scene of two if not three campaigns in the present war and on this fact I rely to justify my temerity The first of these campaigns taking them in the order of our journey from South to North is the British Expedition to Mesopotamia Its main features are so well known as barely to need repetition the landing of our force at the mouth of the shatt el arab in November 1914 About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works From the
