

An aerial photograph of a large crowd of people gathered on a wide street, possibly during a protest or rally. The crowd is dense and fills the lower half of the frame. In the background, there are trees and some buildings. The overall tone is sepia or brownish, giving it a historical feel.

From Outrage To Action The Politics Of Grass Roots Dissent:

From Outrage to Action Laura R. Woliver, 1993 From Outrage to Action examines the rise and fall of grass roots interest groups through in depth analyses of four incidents that mobilized citizens around local injustices In one case a local judge declared a five year old sexual assault victim a particularly promiscuous young lady In another an innocent black man died in police custody In the third a man with a criminal record was charged with murdering a ten year old girl and in the last a judge commented during a juvenile sentencing that rape is a normal reaction to the way women dress Through in depth interviews with activists Laura Woliver examines these community actions studying the groups involved and linking her conclusions to larger questions of political power and the impact of social movements Group successes and failures are explained through analysis of fluid social movements and the role of religion class gender and race Woliver found that activists unprepared for the ostracism and conflict resulting from their dissent retreated from public life while those who identified with alternative communities avoided self blame and maintained their political commitments She relates the community responses in these cases to those in the case of confessed mass murderer Jeffrey Dahmer and in the beating by Los Angeles police officers of Rodney King Her findings will make fascinating reading for those interested in the rise and fall of grass roots interest groups the nature of dissent and the reasons why people volunteer countless hours sometimes in the face of community opposition and isolation to dedicate themselves to a cause The four ad hoc interest groups studied are the Committee to Recall Judge Archie Simonson Madison the Coalition for Justice for Ernest Lacy Milwaukee Concerned Citizens for Children Grant County Wisconsin and Citizens Taking Action Madison

The Global Historical and Contemporary Impacts of Voluntary Membership Associations on Human Societies David Horton Smith, 2018-07-17 Reviewed here is global research on how 13 types of Voluntary Membership Associations MAs have significantly or substantially had global impacts on human history societies and life Such outcomes have occurred especially in the past 200 years since the Industrial Revolution circa 1800 CE and its accompanying Organizational Revolution Emphasized are longer term historical and societal or multinational impacts of MAs rather than more micro level individual or meso level organizational outcomes MAs are distinctively structured with power coming from the membership not top down The author has characterized MAs as the dark matter of the nonprofit third sector using an astrophysical metaphor Astrophysicists have shown that most physical matter in the universe is dark in the sense of being unseen not stars or planets

The Bottle, The Breast, and the State Maureen Rand Oakley, 2015-07-01 The Bottle the Breast and the State The Politics of Infant Feeding in the United States explores the ways in which breastfeeding is both promoted and made difficult in the United States It also examines how the use of formula is often shamed yet encouraged by many standard medical and government practices Using both qualitative and quantitative methods it explores the politics policies and individual experiences surrounding infant feeding Oakley shows that a failure to separate the issue of breastfeeding rights and support from problematic approaches to breastfeeding advocacy in both academic scholarship and public discourse has led to a deadlock that prevents groups from working together in support of breastfeeding without shaming Drawing on a feminist ethic of care Oakley develops a caring infant feeding advocacy This approach values the caring work done by parents and recognizes the benefits of this work for society It promotes policies supportive of parenting in general and breastfeeding in particular in order to remove barriers that present a challenge to some women who wish to breastfeed Caring infant feeding advocacy also works to promote the development of better alternatives for those who do not breastfeed

Group Representation, Feminist Theory, and the Promise of Justice

Angela D. Ledford, 2016-04-15 There has been much important work done in the past two decades in America on issues of under representation based on social differences such as race ethnicity class gender sexuality and age While this scholarship has examined the ways in which women and racial ethnic and sexual minorities suffer disproportionately on measures of full citizenship social class and culture have received relatively little attention This new study addresses various manifestations of social class and cultural difference as well as their implications for political representation The analysis demonstrates how three of the most influential feminist theorists who write about political representation conceive of group representation identify the problems that group representation claims to remedy and assess the strengths and weaknesses associated with these models Using theoretical argument the volume suggests practical electoral reform in order to encourage new and emancipating forms of political engagement It will be of value to those interested in public policy and governance political theory gender studies and law and society in general
