Shot/Countershot Lucy Fischer, 2014-07-14 Do films made by women comprise a counter cinema radically different from the dominant tradition Feminist film critics contend that women filmmakers do present from a distinctive vision or countershot and Lucy Fischer argues persuasively for this view In rich detail this book relates the idea of a counter cinema to theories of intertextuality and locates it in the broad context of recent feminist film literary and art criticism Fischer also employs an original critical model of the dialogue between women s cinema and film tradition in the very organization of the book Each chapter discusses a theme or genre such as the musical the double the myth of womanhood and the figure of the actress counterposing two or more works from the feminist and from the dominant cinema What emerges is a fascinating picture of a women s film tradition that not only addresses but reworks and remakes the mainstream cinema Fischer successfully combines two main strains of feminist criticism the deconstructive critique of the dominant culture from a feminist standpoint and the study of a feminist counterculture Examining films from Persona and The Lady from Shanghai to Girlfriends and Sisters or the Balance of Happiness the book
