From The Dark Tower Afro American Writer:

From the Dark Tower Arthur Paul Davis, 1974 A long awaited overview of significant black writers and their works from the beginning of this century to 1960 Each of the major periods of black literature 1900 through the fifties are preceded by extensive introductions that place the writers in literary historical and political perspective Black American Writers NA NA, 2015-12-25 Black American Writers, Bibliographical Essays, vol 2: Richard Wright, Ralph Ellison, James Baldwin & Amiri Baraka NA NA, 2015-12-22 Afro-American Life, History and Culture, 1985 Encyclopedia of African American History, 1896 to the Present Paul Finkelman, 2009 Alphabetically arranged entries from A to C that explores significant events major persons organizations and political and social movements in African American history from 1896 to the twenty first century Fingering the Jagged Grain Keith E. Byerman, 2010-08-01 In Fingering the Jagged Grain Keith E Byerman discusses how black writers such as Toni Morrison Ishmael Reed and Ernest Gaines have moved away from the ideological rigidity of the black arts movement that arose in the 1960s to create a more expressive imaginative and artistic fiction inspired by the example of Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man Combining a strong concern for technique and craftsmanship with elements of African American heritage including jazz blues spirituals cautionary tales and voodoo these writers have created a vital fiction that celebrates the strength and resilience of the black American voice as it recounts the painful details and brutal episodes of black experience Hitting A Straight Lick with a Crooked Stick Susan E Meisenhelder, 2001-06-18 Zora Neale Hurston is a controversial figure equally praised and criticized for her representation of African Americans while some critics emphasize her ebullience and celebration of Black culture others call her fiction stereotypical and essentialist Observing the workings of the recurrent humor in her works helps explode this critical binary opposition Specifically the carnivalesque and the heteroglossia often subvert essentialist notions of Black identity Jonah's Gourd Vine's protagonist the preacher womanizer John Pearson can be seen as an African rather than an African American trickster figure i.e. as a mobile character whose liminality helps him fight essentialist definitions imposed on him by both the white establishment and his own community Janie's romantic search for self fulfillment in Their Eyes Were Watching God is undermined by the humor and the carnival which emphasize her shifting and multiply defined identity Finally the African Americanized story of Moses and the Hebrews shows the conflicts involved in their search for a unified national and cultural identity In these three novels Hurston appears as a subversive presence whose manipulation of humor underscores a complex political vision The Fugitive Race Stephen P. Knadler, 2007-06 Denying its formative dialogues with minorities the white race Stephen P Knadler contends has been a fugitive race While the white question like the Negro question and the woman question a century earlier has garnered considerable critical attention among scholars looking to find new anti race strategies these investigations need to highlight not just the exclusion of people of color but also examine minority writers resistance to and disruption of this privileged racial category Highly original wonderfully detailed and thought provoking says Professor Candace Waid of Knadler's intellectually challenging book Although excluded people of color looked back in anger laughter and wisdom to challenge the unexamined lie of a self evident whiteness Looking at fictional and nonfictional texts written between 1850 and 1984 The Fugitive Race traces a long cultural and literary history of the ways African Americans Asian Americans Jewish Americans Chicanos gays and lesbians have challenged the shape and meaning of so called white identities From the antebellum period to the 1980s the belief in a white racial superiority or simply a white difference has denied that people of color might and do have an influence on the supposedly pure or protected character of whiteness In contrast this book attempts to define a new way of analyzing minority literature that questions this segregated color line In addition to creating a new racial awareness many writers of color tried to interfere in the historical formulation of whiteness They created unsettling moments when white readers had to see themselves for the first time from the outside in or from the critical perspective of non white writers These writers including William Wells Brown Pauline Hopkins Abraham Cahan Young hill Kang Zora Neale Hurston and Arturo Islas did not simply resist assimilation They sought to dismantle the white identities that lay as the foundation of the master's house Aaron Douglas Amy Helene Kirschke, 1995

The only book about the premier visual artist of the Harlem Renaissance The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture M. Thomas Inge, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2014-02-01 Offering a comprehensive view of the South's literary landscape past and present this volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture celebrates the region's ever flourishing literary culture and recognizes the ongoing evolution of the southern literary canon As new writers draw upon and reshape previous traditions southern literature has broadened and deepened its connections not just to the American literary mainstream but also to world literatures a development thoughtfully explored in the essays here Greatly expanding the content of the literature section in the original Encyclopedia this volume includes 31 thematic essays addressing major genres of literature theoretical categories such as regionalism the southern gothic and agrarianism and themes in southern writing such as food religion and sexuality Most striking is the fivefold increase in the number of biographical entries which introduce southern novelists playwrights poets and critics Special attention is given to contemporary writers and other individuals who have not been widely covered in previous scholarship Encyclopedia of the Harlem Renaissance Cary D. Wintz, Paul Finkelman, 2012-12-06 From the music of Louis Armstrong to the portraits by Beauford Delaney the writings of Langston Hughes to the debut of the musical Show Boat the Harlem Renaissance is one of the most significant developments in African American history in the twentieth century The Encyclopedia of the Harlem Renaissance in two volumes and over 635 entries is the first comprehensive compilation of information on all aspects of this creative dynamic period For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclopedia of Harlem Renaissance website Literature and Ethnic Discrimination Michael J. Meyer, 2023-11-27 Even though universities and colleges make a concerted effort to foster unity and worldwide acceptance of different ethnicities by including politically correct literature in their curriculums their attempts to protect students from being exposed to texts that portray discrimination and exhibit racial insensitivity are futile and ill advised. Texts that contain biases based on otherness continue to be written and those produced in the past remain relevant and still demand the attention of an audience of reader. In order to see the full picture of the world in which they live, students must face even that which is uncomfortable and disturbing. To think otherwise is to create an academic environment that is totally idealistic and distorts the fact that ethnic discrimination has been a potent reality in every society in history and remains so today. These studies in this volume allow readers to meet writers from the traditional American and European canon while also being exposed to third world writers whose work may be unfamiliar. They include memoirs of Holocaust survivors and even record the silencing of Italian women. Apartheid in South Africa and tribal conflict in Nigeria as well as transplanted Asian culture in Canada and the idolization of the black body in Japan. The collection permits a viewing of the ethnic other not merely in a politically correct way in which one samples the differences and nods approvingly. Rather, its intent is to offer opportunities for contemplative assessment of authorial motives and goals, thereby engendering a wealth of understanding based on active engagement rather than passive acceptance of the status quo.

A STUDY OF THE SELECTED NOVELS OF RALPH ELLISON Dr. Kishore Kumar Chintala, 2017-07-11. African American Literature is a record of the American Negroes' displacement, alienation, pain, and survival. It is a historical saga of a race's struggle for freedom and equality and their undeterred quest for a real identity. It begins with their forcible transportation from their native land of Africa to America, their incarceration as slaves in the American colonies, their emancipation from slavery, their travails and tribulations due to social segregation, political and economical deprivation, and their untiring fight to be accepted as an integral component of the American mainstream society. It is a literature that records the physical, intellectual, emotional, spiritual, and psychological expression of a people going through the process of conception, growth, and maturity from a racially confined state to a self-contained state.

The Richard Wright Encyclopedia Jerry W. Ward, Robert J. Butler, 2008-06-30. Richard Wright is one of the most important African American writers. He is also one of the most prolific. Best known as the author of Native Son, he wrote 7 novels, 2 collections of short fiction, an autobiography, more than 250 newspaper articles, book reviews, and occasional essays, some 4,000 verses, a photo documentary, and 3 travel books. By attacking the taboos and hypocrisy that other writers had failed to address, he revolutionized American literature and created a disturbing and realistic portrait of the African American experience. This encyclopedia is a guide to his vast and influential body of works.

Shadowed Dreams Maureen Honey, 2006. This revised and expanded version of the collection contains twice the number of poems found in the original; many of them never before reprinted, and adds eighteen new female voices from the Harlem Renaissance, once again striking new ground in African American literary history. Also new to this edition are nine period illustrations and updated biographical introductions for each poet. Shadowed Dreams features new poems by Gwendolyn B. Bennett, Anita Scott Coleman, Mae V. Cowdery, Blanche Taylor Dickinson, Alice Dunbar Nelson, Jessie Redmon Fauset, Angelina Weld Grimké, Gladys

May Casely Hayford a k a Aquah Laluah Virginia Houston Georgia Douglas Johnson Helene Johnson Effie Lee Newsome Esther Popel and Anne Spencer as well as writings from rediscovered poets Carrie Williams Clifford Edythe Mae Gordon Alvira Hazzard Gertrude Parthenia McBrown Beatrice M Murphy Lucia Mae Pitts Grace Vera Postles Ida Rowland and Lucy Mae Turner among others

The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr, 1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation s creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential

Passing and the Fictions of Identity Elaine K. Ginsberg, 1996-04-29 Passing refers to the process whereby a person of one race gender nationality or sexual orientation adopts the guise of another Historically this has often involved black slaves passing as white in order to gain their freedom More generally it has served as a way for women and people of color to access male or white privilege In their examination of this practice of crossing boundaries the contributors to this volume offer a unique perspective for studying the construction and meaning of personal and cultural identities These essays consider a wide range of texts and moments from colonial times to the present that raise significant questions about the political motivations inherent in the origins and maintenance of identity categories and boundaries Through discussions of such literary works as Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom The Autobiography of an Ex Coloured Man Uncle Tom's Cabin The Hidden Hand Black Like Me and Giovanni's Room the authors examine issues of power and privilege and ways in which passing might challenge the often rigid structures of identity politics Their interrogation of the semiotics of behavior dress language and the body itself contributes significantly to an understanding of national racial gender and sexual identity in American literature and culture Contextualizing and building on the theoretical work of such scholars as Judith Butler Diana Fuss Marjorie Garber and Henry Louis Gates Jr Passing and the Fictions of Identity will be of value to students and scholars working in the areas of race gender and identity theory as well as U S history and literature Contributors Martha Cutter Katharine Nicholson Ings Samira Kawash Adrian Piper Valerie Rohy Marion Rust Julia Stern Gayle Wald Ellen M Weinauer Elizabeth Young

Speaking in Tongues and Dancing Diaspora Mae G. Henderson, 2014-05-07 The oral tradition has always played an important role in African American literature ranging from works such as Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God to Toni Morrison's Beloved These and countless other novels affirm the power of sonance and sound in the African American literary canon Considering the wide swath of work in this powerful lineage in addition to its shared heritage with performance Mae G Henderson deploys her trope of speaking in tongues to theorize the preeminence of voice and narration in black women's literary performance through her reconstruction of a fundamentally spiritual practice as a critical concept for reading black women's writing dialogically and intertextually The first half of the book is devoted to influential works of fiction as Henderson offers a series of spirited attentive readings of works by Zora Neale Hurston Alice Walker Sherley Anne Williams Toni Morrison Gayl Jones and Nella Larsen The second half shifts gears to consider the world of female African American performance most notably in the figures of Josephine Baker and the video dancer Drawing on the trope of dancing diaspora Henderson proposes a model of theorizing based on performing testimony and critical witnessing Throughout the book Henderson draws on a history of black women not only in the Pentecostal Holiness Church but also within the traditions of classical Christian African and black diasporic spirituality and performance Ultimately Speaking in Tongues and Dancing Diaspora provides a deeply felt reflection on race and gender and their effects within the discourses of speaker listener and audience performer

Temples for Tomorrow Geneviève Fabre, Michel Feith, 2001-09-19 The Harlem Renaissance is rightly considered to be a moment of creative exuberance and unprecedented explosion Today there is a renewed interest in this movement calling for a re evaluation and a closer scrutiny of the era and of documents that have only recently become available Temples for Tomorrow reconsiders the period between two world wars which confirmed the intuitions of W E B DuBois on the color line and gave birth to the American dilemma later evoked by Gunnar Myrdal Issuing from a generation bearing new hopes and aspirations a new vision takes form and develops around the concept of the New Negro with a goal to recreate an African American identity and claim its legitimate place in the heart of the nation In reality this movement organized into a remarkable institutional network which was to remain the vision of an elite but which gave birth to tensions and differences This collection attempts to assess Harlem s role as a Black Mecca as site of intimate performance of African American life and as focal point in the creation of a diasporic identity in dialogue with the Caribbean and French speaking areas Essays treat the complex interweaving of Primitivism and Modernism of folk culture and elitist aspirations in different artistic media with a view to defining the interaction between music visual arts and literature Also included are known Renaissance intellectuals and writers Even though they had different conceptions of the role of the African American artist in a racially segregated society most participants in the New Negro movement shared a desire to express a new assertiveness in terms of literary creation and identity building
