From the Opium War to the May Fourth Movement Sheng Hu,1991      Reinventing Modern China Huaiyin Li,2012-10-31 This work offers the first systematic analysis of writings on modern Chinese history by historians in China from the early twentieth century to the present It traces the construction of major interpretive schemes the evolution of dominant historical narratives and the unfolding of debates on the most controversial issues in different periods Placing history writing in the context of political rivalry and ideological contestation Huaiyin Li explicates how the historians dedication to faithfully reconstructing the past was compromised by their commitment to an imagined trajectory of history that fit their present day agenda and served their needs of political legitimation Beginning with an examination of the contrasting narratives of revolution and modernization in the Republican period the book scrutinizes changes in the revolutionary historiography after 1949 including its disciplinization in the 1950s and early 1960s and radicalization in the rest of the Mao era It further investigates the rise of the modernization paradigm in the reform era the crises of master narratives since the late 1990s and the latest development of the field Central to the author s analysis is the issue of truth and falsehood in historical representation Li contends that both the revolutionary and modernization historiographies before 1949 reflected historians lived experiences and contained a degree of authenticity in mirroring the historical processes of their own times In sharp contrast both the revolutionary historiography of the Maoist era and the modernization historiography of the reform era were primarily products of historians ideological commitment which distorted and concealed the past no less than revealed it In search of a more effective approach to rewriting modern Chinese history Reinventing Modern China proposes a within time open ended perspective which allows for different directions in interpreting the events in modern China and views modern Chinese history as an unfinished process remaining to be defined as the country entered the twenty first century

Contemporary China Review Bouden House,2022-08-15 This summer is an unusual one The Russian Ukrainian war shifted from a stalemate to a strategic counter offensive in Ukraine Against the backdrop of this huge geopolitical conflict Taiwan Strait relations also became tense again with the visit of U S House Speaker Nancy Pelosi to Taiwan The clamor for military unification with Taiwan by force in mainland China has been overwhelming Xi Jinping s call with Biden conveyed that this is not the time for a full blown crisis to break out When war breaks out in the Taiwan Strait will depend on the CCP s mindset However once the CCP regime falls into the hands of an emperor for life the outbreak of war will be unpredictable In this issue several articles analyze Xi Jinping s mentality psychology and personality which provide a glimpse of the dictatorial factor behind the Taiwan Strait crisis Another article analyzing the 50 year history of U S China relations can also help readers understand the direction of U S China relations and the background of the Taiwan Strait crisis With the globalized economy at a crossroads the CCP has taken a big step backward from a semi market economy to a state planned economy and is facing a huge economic crisis in the financial manufactory to real estate sectors To divert an economic social and political crisis CCP will avoid internal crises with war This issue presents a scholar monography that gives us a glimpse into the social psychology of the general public in mainland China today especially the underestimated dynamics of the little pinko groups that are driving China toward the mistakes of war Meanwhile the misunderstanding and misperception of the Chinese revolution not only camouflage the legitimacy of the CCP regime but also feed into a false institutional confidence for Xi Jinping who boasts to point out the direction of global development East Asia and the First World War Frank Jacob,2022-10-24 The First World War was a truly global event that changed the course of history in many participating as well as non participating countries In East Asia the war stimulated the further rise of Japan as the leading power in the region during the war yet also its radicalization and social protests after 1918 In China and Korea it stimulated nationalist eruptions demanding freedom and equality for the semi colonized countries and the people living within their borders All in all the present book offers a concise introduction of the history of the First World War and its impact in East Asia
