The Lonely Hearts Club Brenda Janowitz, 2014-05-06 Jo Waldman lives life to her own soundtrack working for her father by day while pursuing her music career in NYC's downtown clubs at night Music is her passion along with her boyfriend Jesse who shares her dreams of making it big Jo's old band The Lonely Hearts Club came this close to getting a huge recording contract and she's just biding her time waiting for lightning to strike twice The music business is tough but so is Jo So when Jo's father fires her and Jesse breaks up with her Jo doesn't get upset she just wants to rage Dusting off her computer Jo writes a blog entry pouring her heart out about the shortcomings of love Except that no sooner does Jo hit upload than the site sends a mass e-mail to the entire Lonely Hearts mailing list alerting everybody Joe has ever met that she's been brutally dumped All Jo wants to do is hide under the covers but to her surprise supportive e-mails start flowing in many of them from complete strangers Apparently her anti love rant has struck a chord The Lonely Hearts Club Blog develops a huge following even capturing the eye of Jo's sworn nemesis bubble gum pop princess Amber Fairchild Jo soon becomes an icon for all things anti love and at her fans request she begins to plan The Lonely Hearts Club Ball a massive anti love Valentine's Day party to end all parties Jo quickly becomes the poster girl for lonely hearts and it inspires her to start writing music again There's only one problem the web programmer helping Jo with her site is simply dreamy Jo's never been very good at depriving herself of anything but if this budding romance is exposed she'll be revealed as an anti love fraud and risk losing all the people who have grown trust her voice So is it time to start singing love songs or time to pick up the guitar and return to the hard rock that almost got The Lonely Hearts signed in the first place Either way Jo's got some big decisions to make and it looks like she's going to have to take one step closer to doing something she never thought she'd do becoming a grownup From Brenda Janowitz author of the beloved Brooke Miller novels SCOT ON THE ROCKS and JACK WITH A TWIST comes another uproariously funny and heartfelt story that will ring true to anyone who's dug themselves into a hole only to find that getting out is where you least expect it "I'm Not Gonna Die in This Damn Place" Juan David

Coronado, 2018-03-01 By the time of the Vietnam War era the Mexican American Generation had made tremendous progress both socially and politically However the number of Mexican Americans in comparison to the number of white prisoners of war POWs illustrated the significant discrimination and inequality the Chicano population faced in both military and civilian landscapes Chicanos were disproportionately grunts infantry who were more likely to be killed when captured while pilots and officers were more likely to be both white and held as POWs for negotiating purposes A fascinating look at the Vietnam War era from a Chicano perspective I'm Not Gonna Die in this Damn Place Manliness Identity and Survival of the Mexican American Vietnam Prisoners of War gives voice to the Mexican American POWs The stories of these men and their families provide insights to the Chicano Vietnam War experience while also adding tremendously to the American POW story This book is an important read for academics and military enthusiasts alike Federal Register, 1945-08 The Works of the balance of probabilities the deaths of Sean Benton Cheryl James and Geoff Gray were self inflicted and that the opportunity for self infliction was afforded by the policy of frequently assigning trainees to armed guard duty at Deepcut unsupervised by experienced soldiers or members of the Military Provost Guard The Review does not feel that a public inquiry into the immediate or broader events surrounding the deaths is necessary Sean Benton who had attempted self harm on at least two occasions in the months before he died had had disciplinary problems in his Army career had been notified that his discharge from the Army was being applied for and had previously been denied access to a weapon on guard duty on the day of his death he obtained the weapon from another trainee under false pretences There was no evidence that Cheryl James or Geoff Gray posed a risk of self harm and no certainty as to what might have led them to their actions They had both performed frequent armed guard duties at remote locations which might have made them unhappy and combined with other personal factors may have made them more susceptible to self harm at the time of their deaths There was no evidence of bullying in any of the three cases Factors contributing to the deaths might have been the training environment at Deepcut causing low morale through poor accommodation limited recreational facilities and the balance between privacy and dormitory life unsupervised access to weapons supervision of trainees discipline bullying and informal sanctions ventilation of grievances poor instructors The Review makes 34 recommendations covering recruitment screening of recruits and parental involvement training for minors and the length of training provisions for minors during training supervisory ratios the quality of instructors information on standards of conduct collective responsibility making and responding to complaints investigating complaints record keeping an ombudsman for the armed forces guard duty sudden deaths disclosure and confidentiality whether there is a need for a public inquiry
