From Tribe To Nation In Africa:

From Tribe to Nation in Africa Ronald Cohen, John Middleton, 1970 Slavery in Africa Suzanne Miers, Igor Kopytoff, 1977 This collection of sixteen short papers together with a complex and very much longer introductory essay by the editors on African Slavery as an Institution of Marginality constitutes an impressive attempt by anthropologists and historians to explore describe and analyze some of the various kinds of human bondage within a number of precolonial African societies It is important to note that in spite of the precolonial emphasis of the volume all of the essays are based at least partly on anthropological or ethnohistorical field research carried out since 1959 All but one have been augmented greatly by more conventional historical research in published as well as archival sources And although the volume s focus is upon the structures and conditions of servitude within the several African societies described many of the essays illustrate and some discuss the conceptual as well as the practical difficulties of separating the institutions and customs of domestic African slavery from those of the European dominated commercial slave trade in which many of the societies participated from JSTOR <http://www.jstor.org> May 24 2013 From Tribe to Nation in Africa, Studies in Incorporation Processes: Introduction ,1970 Focuses on the relationships among the concepts of tribe nation and state Ethnicity In Modern Africa Brian M. du Toit, 2019-04-11 The fifteen essays written for this volume reflect the increasing importance for social scientists of ethnic rather than physical or tribal criteria for classifying modern population groups The authors from South Africa the United States South West Africa Namibia Nigeria and Scotland cover most of Africa south of the Sahara They consider the range from large national population groupings to small scale societies attempting to maintain their social boundaries and discuss such topics as emergent nationalism ethnic divisiveness social distance voluntary association and the role of women The first section is concerned with particular communities peoples and ethnic groups and treats traditional tribal groupings as well as communities delineated on phenotypic grounds In the second section the focus turns to modern situations of interaction the two major themes discussed here are situational ethnicity and situational realignment The third section deals with color one of the physical criteria of ethnic identification here the authors discuss the political and legal implications of a system based on color The last essay reports on current changes in attitude and organization within the countries of white ruled southern Africa Passing of Tribal Man in Africa Gutkind, 2022-09-12 The Passing of Tribal Man in Africa Peter Claus Wolfgang Gutkind, 1970 Repr aus Journal of Asian and African Studies vol 5 1 2 1970 Africa from the Sixteenth to the Eighteenth Century Bethwell A.
