From Vision To Reality In Community Care:

From Vision to Reality in Community Care Chris Gostick,1997 This work from the Personal Social Services Research Unit looks back to the early stages of community care comparing them with today s emerging policy with a view to improving community care still further The book describes the first stages of the local development of the community care policy reforms laid out in the 1989 Caring for People white paper and the subsequent 1990 NHS and Community Care Act It spans the period between the mid 80s when the policy initially began to crystallize and the beginning of 1993 when the reforms were formally implemented

From Vision to Reality in Community Care Chris Gostick,1997 This work from the Personal Social Services Research Unit looks back to the early stages of community care comparing them with today s emerging policy with a view to improving community care still further The book describes the first stages of the local development of the community care policy reforms laid out in the 1989 Caring for People white paper and the subsequent 1990 NHS and Community Care Act It spans the period between the mid 80s when the policy initially began to crystallize and the beginning of 1993 when the reforms were formally implemented

Equity and Efficiency Policy in Community Care Bleddyn Davies,José Fernández,2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2000 Equity and Efficiency Policy provides a completely new perspective on post reform community care analyzes its fairness effectiveness and efficiency in a new way and uses its powerful new techniques applied to a major national collection of evidence to suggest how to develop the Modernization Agenda It describes for the first time how differences in the levels of each of the main services alone and in combination affect a wide range of user and carer benefits uses this knowledge to analyze in a new way and make policy proposals about some of the pressing policy issues of the government s Modernization Agenda

Community Care, Ideology and Social Policy Harry Cowen,2018-10-08 This book offers a comprehensive evaluation of community care strategies within the context of government social policy and assesses the recent shifts of political power from Conservative to Labour towards the end of the century Unlike the majority of texts in the field of community care it makes explicit the historical philosophical social and political inter connections and therefore provides an in depth understanding of changing policy issues for students practitioners and managers in health and social care

Residential versus Community Care Raymond Jack,2016-01-06 The role of residential care in welfare provision has been debated for many years Recent emphasis on care in the community has led to closure of hospitals and residential homes on a massive scale Drawing together contributions from some key names in the field this provocative and stimulating book questions the reasons for the rejection of this form of care and offers a reassessment of its role in community care for the twenty first century

The Mentally Disordered Offender in an Era of Community Care William Watson,Adrian Grounds,2007-02-01 The care and management of mentally disordered offenders poses a major challenge to criminal justice agencies and psychiatric services These patients the people nobody owns are particularly vulnerable to political and professional change and as psychiatric services become increasingly community based the task of meeting the needs of the offender as well as expectations of public protection becomes a more difficult prospect This book brings together the papers and a summary of the discussion presented at a Cropwood Round Table conference organized by the Institute of Criminology and the Department of Psychiatry of the University of Cambridge Seeking to define future needs and directions in legal and service provisions it includes perspectives from the fields of criminology sociology and social psychiatry and contributions from practitioners and administrators Remarkable for the tenacity and depth with which the expert contributors address the problems this is essential reading for all professionals working in the psychiatric and criminal justice systems with this frequently marginalized client group Through a searching examination of the situation within one jurisdiction it points the way to service developments improved care management and research opportunities that have universal applications

From community care to market care? Means, Robin, Morbey, Hazel, 2002-04-17 This study reflects a growing recognition of the contribution that studies of the post war welfare state can make to contemporary debates about the restructuring of welfare Drawing on the community care debates from 1971 to 1993 it illuminates contemporary concerns about such key issues as rationing care the health and social care divide the changing role of residential care and the growing emphasis on provider competition From community care to market care focuses on the interpretation and development of national policy at local authority level in four contrasting local authorities The results of the study will make a significant contribution to our understanding of the community care provision of older people

Community Care for Health Professionals Ann Compton, Mary Ashwin, 2013-10-22 Community Care for Health Professionals presents information needed by health professionals for an effective transitioning from institutional to community based care The book is comprised 12 chapters that are organized into two parts The first part covers social policy and various issues including legal sociological and psychological issues The second part covers the skills required for a successful community practice such as working with individuals families and groups The text will be of great use to health professionals who are working in the community or have plans to do so

Intermediate and Continuing Care Brenda Roe, Roger Beech, 2008-04-15 Intermediate care comprises strategies which allow early discharge from acute care prevent admission or re admission to acute care and avoid bed blocking in both acute and long term residential care It encompasses a range of short term options including rapid response hospital at home residential rehabilitation supported discharge and day rehabilitation Continuing Care is delivered on a long term basis in a variety of settings and often includes an element of rehabilitation Although these two types of care have distinct objectives they are interrelated as changes in the supply of one type of care may affect demands for the other In addition from a patient perspective intermediate and continuing care might be seen as part of the continuum of care options that are supplied to meet their needs This book argues for consideration of intermediate and continuing care as part of the care continuum that provides integrated care adopting whole system approaches This edited volume explores policy practice and current issues in intermediate and continuing care It will be of interest to all health and social care professionals involved in the provision and planning of care for older people It falls in three parts intermediate care continuing care and a shorter section on patient and public involvement and future directions      Comparing the Social Policy Experience of Britain and Taiwan Catherine Jones Finer, 2018-10-24 This title was first published in 2001 This is a seminal collection For the first time leading scholars and practitioners from Taiwan join with counterparts from Britain to offer comparable commentary on key social policy and social service issues affecting their respective countries The result is as thought provoking as it is informative The approach adopted of encouraging writers to speak for themselves virtually without restriction could well provide a model in itself for encouraging and easing contributions from previously unrepresented countries into the mainstream of comparative cross national social policy debate Concluding papers on the prospects for East West comparative social policy in general confirm the significance of this collection by emphasizing its contribution to broader social and political debates      Supporting People with Dementia at Home David Challis, Caroline Sutcliffe, Jane Hughes, Richard von Abendorff, Pamela Brown, John Chesterman, 2016-04-01 Supporting People with Dementia at Home details a groundbreaking study of an intensive care management scheme designed for older people with dementia that are at risk of entry into residential care The authors use a quasi experimental approach to compare how the individuals on the mental health team in one community were matched to a similar community without the service They analyze the evidence focusing on the eventual placement of the individual suffering the quality of care they receive and also the needs of their carers This book offers valuable evidence about the factors which can maximize the independence and well being of older people with dementia from the perspective of older people and their carers For those who commission services it is highly relevant to service models for the National Dementia Strategy in England      Key Policy Issues in Long-term Care Jenny Brodsky, Jack Habib, Miriam Hirschfeld, 2003 Key policy issues in long term care LTC are complex and the numbers of persons needing such care continue to increase This volume addresses these issues the role of and support to the family integration with health and social systems case management and strategies for designing LTC systems      Long-Term Care: Matching Resources and Needs David Challis, 2018-01-18 Improving equity and efficiency in the long term care of older people is an international concern with governments attempting to ensure that policies and practice develop so that resources are used to best effect This requires good quality evidence founded on sound theory This volume honours the outstanding contribution of Bleddyn Davies to this field bringing together perspectives of scholars and practitioners from many countries including the UK Australia Hong Kong Japan Sweden and the USA Contemporary policy dilemmas are considered leavened by professional anecdote A chapter from Davies himself reflecting on the origins of the PSSRU Personal Social Services Research Unit concludes the volume that also features a full listing of his books and monographs which will prove invaluable to those seeking to engage with his contribution to the field This volume will greatly interest academics in social policy social work

gerontology and social care as well as professionals in the field      Our Health, Our Care, Our Say Great Britain: Department of Health, 2006-01-30 This White Paper sets out the Government's proposals to reform and expand community health and social care services in order to meet local needs especially in poorer deprived communities Four key objectives are highlighted in the White Paper better health prevention services with earlier intervention increased patient choice tackling inequalities and improving access to community services and increased support for people with long term needs to live independently Specific measures include expansion of local care settings outside hospitals increased joint commissioning between PCTs and local authorities to improve service integration the introduction of practice based commissioning where GPs are given more responsibility for local health budgets increased provision for new primary care providers to compete for PCT contracts and the introduction of a new NHS Life Check to promote healthier lifestyles with a pilot scheme in spearhead PCTs by 2007/08      Evaluating Mental Health Services for Older People Jenny Finch, 2004 This book provides a comprehensive account of the current developments in mental health services for older people and describes a robust model for evaluating health and social care to improve these services Drawing on international experience it provides accounts of the development of mental health services for older people in the UK Europe the USA Canada and Australia The approaches to evaluating health and social care in these countries are all outlined and a comparative analysis is given The services currently offered are patchy so there is a pressing need for effective mechanisms to be introduced in order to monitor quality this book will show you how Managers and commissioners working within Primary Care Trusts NHS Trusts Strategic Health Authorities geriatricians psychiatrists psychologists and allied health and social care professionals will find this book valuable reading      The Nurse's Role in Promoting Optimal Health of Older Adults Jean W Lange, 2011-09-02 Awarded a 2012 AJN Book of the Year Award Why focus on the negative aspects of growing old while most older adults are leading positive fulfilling and active lives even while dealing with the changes associated with aging and chronic illnesses Promote healthy aging learn what it means to age successfully and develop the tools and resources that can optimize well being during the later years in life with the guidance you'll find inside The author a nationally recognized expert in the field of gerontology addresses the physical psychosocial and spiritual needs of older adults based on a holistic mid range nursing theory of successful aging Contributions from healthcare professionals in exercise physiology nutrition pharmacy and elder law help you understand how these disciplines work together to benefit patients      Caring for Older People Linda Bauld, John Chesterman, Bleddyn Davies, Ken Judge, 2018-04-27 This title was first published in 2000 Caring for Older People provides a unique insight into the world of community care in the 1990s It presents findings from a national study of social care from the perspectives of older service users their carers and care managers Descriptive findings from this longitudinal study conducted by the PSSRU from 1994 and funded by the Department of Health are set in the context of the history of community care and developments since the passage of the 1990 NHS and Community Care Act The study's findings highlight important challenges for policy and practice development in the new millennium

The Social Construction of Community Care Anthea Symonds, Anne Kelly, 1998-11-11 This book represents a new development in the discussion of community care policies with its integrated approach addressed to both community nurses and social workers It includes contributions from practitioners in both fields as well as lecturers and researchers in sociology and social policy The overall theme of the book is the concept of community as a social and cultural construction The authors begin with an account of the historical construction of community care followed by explorations of the actual practice of the delivery of care and of the needs of particular groups within the community

Transforming Community Care Helen Gorman, Karen Postle, 2003 The third title in the Theories in Social Work series The authors use their detailed research to show powerfully how a generation of social workers have been disillusioned by care management They also use their own practice experience with older people to demonstrate the continuing possibilities for social work to empower service users and practitioners to develop care management in the future publisher

Care Management and Community Care Mark Baldwin, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 Community care stands as an example of a complex policy failing to be implemented as intended Using research and studies of literature on community care this text investigates the reasons behind the failure of this flagship policy focusing on the part played by care managers management and policy implementation approaches It presents an exploration of social work discretion as a potential force for positive and dynamic implementation as opposed to the usual analysis of professional discretion as a necessary evil This potential is demonstrated through the analysis of an innovative research methodology
