From Where I Stand:

From Where I Stand Sihlangule Mmiselo Siwisa, 2015-11-21 This book is about leadership It is about the kind of leadership that bends the arc of history and builds upon heritage in order to create a living legacy The central challenge of a society that is moving away from imbalanced development is not only addressing economic inequality but also restoring a sense of confidence in the quality of thought leadership that steers the destiny of the nation We need cohesive leadership and that in turn can precipitate the kind of patriotism that emphasizes seeking common ground and consensus above dwelling on differences and petty party politicking that polarizes our nation I believe that there is a difference between history and heritage History is the sum total of all of our stories but Heritage is what we choose to appropriate out of our History to own and shape the values rituals and destiny of a particular society We do not have the luxury of cherry picking what we regard to be palatable or unpalatable within history regarding the truth and the completeness of the collective story of history For instance the Anglo Boer War and the Rise of Afrikaner Nationalism is as much a valid part of South African History as the birth and evolution of the African National Congress as the oldest and most enduring liberation movement in Africa Heritage however is what I choose to appropriate or own and subsequently celebrate out of History as being part of my own story and therefore worthy of being re told in order to build establish strengthen and sustain the value system of my own society I believe all of history is worthy of being remembered but not all that is within history is worthy of being celebrated What I choose to celebrate out of history is what I appropriate as my heritage From Where I Stand Jody

Wilson-Raybould, 2019-09-20 An Indigenous leader who has dedicated her life to Indigenous Rights Jody Wilson Raybould has represented both First Nations and the Crown at the highest levels And she is not afraid to give Canadians what they need most straight talk on what has to be done to collectively move beyond our colonial legacy and achieve true reconciliation in Canada In this powerful book drawn from speeches and other writings she urges all Canadians both Indigenous and non Indigenous to build upon the momentum already gained in the reconciliation process or risk hard won progress being lost The good news is that Indigenous Nations already have the solutions But now is the time to act and build a shared postcolonial future based on the foundations of trust cooperation recognition and good governance Frank and impassioned From Where I Stand charts a course forward one that will not only empower Indigenous Peoples but strengthen the well being of Canada and all Canadians The Game from Where I Stand Doug Glanville, 2010-05-06 An entertainingly clear eyed look at big league life from the former professional baseball outfielder and Ivy League graduate Sports Illustrated In The Game from Where I Stand Glanville shows us how players prepare for games deal with race and family issues cope with streaks and slumps respond to trades and injuries and learn the joyful and painful lessons the game imparts We see the flashpoints that cause misunderstandings and friction between players and the imaginative ways they work to find common ground And Glanville tells us with insight and humor what he learned from Jimmy Rollins Alex Rodriguez Randy Johnson

Barry Bonds Curt Schilling and other legendary and controversial stars In his professional career Glanville experienced every aspect of being a player the first round pick the prospect the disappointment the can't miss the cornerstone the veteran the traded the injured the comeback kid His eye opening book gives fans a new level of understanding of day to day life in the big leagues Filled with sharp insights keen observations and great stories his book is championship caliber The Philadelphia Inquirer Glanville is as adept at thinking and writing about baseball as he was at playing it Men's Journal An engaging and thoughtful detailing of the way a smart feeling player processed and parried with the realities of megabyte era Major League Baseball Jim O'Donnell Chicago Sun Times Like a player peering from dugout steps surveying the field and the game Glanville has a wonderful vantage Cleveland Plain Dealer From where I Stand Melodie Homer,2012 A decade after September 11 2001 the nation continues to mourn what was lost on that sunny Tuesday morning nearly 3 000 lives and the innocence of a nation that will forever be changed LeRoy W Homer Jr was the first officer and co pilot of United Flight 93 en route to San Francisco the morning of September 11 the flight was diverted to Washington D C before crashing into a deserted field in Shanksville Pennsylvania Had it not been for the heroic efforts of crew members such as LeRoy the plane would have crashed into its intended target the U S Capitol destroying more lives and the symbol of a nation united From where i Stand Ethan R.
