Frontier And Society In Roman North Africa:

Frontier and Society in Roman North Africa Dr. David Cherry, 1998 Analysing the cultural social and economic consequences of the Roman occupation of North Africa c 50 BC AD 250 this book offers a fresh look at the development and purpose of the north African frontier system Tertullian the African David E. Wilhite, 2011-06-24 Who was Tertullian and what can we know about him This work explores his social identities focusing on his North African milieu Theories from the discipline of social cultural anthropology including kinship class and ethnicity are accommodated and applied to selections of Tertullian s writings In light of postcolonial concerns this study utilizes the categories of Roman colonizers indigenous Africans and new elites The third category new elites is actually intended to destabilize the other two denying any essential Roman or African identity Thereafter samples from Tertullian s writings serve to illustrate comparisons of his own identities and the identities of his rhetorical opponents The overall study finds Tertullian s identities to be manifold complex and discursive Additionally his writings are understood to reflect antagonism toward Romans including Christian Romans which is significant for his so called Montanism and Romanized Africans While Tertullian accommodates much from Graeco Roman literature laws and customs he nevertheless retains a strongly stated non Roman ness and an African ity which is highlighted in the present monograph

Environment and Society in Roman North Africa Brent D. Shaw, 2024-12-11 The impact of a changing environment on human society and conversely the impact of man s activities upon the environment are important and contentious subjects today Climatic and environmental change have also been credited with bringing about major shifts in human history One such case is that of the decline of Roman North Africa and its conquest by the Arabs The evidence for this process is however far from clear cut and Professor Shaw s concern in these studies is firstly to re examine what is known from both archaeological and written sources and how it has been interpreted work which has led to some substantial revisions of accepted accounts In the final three articles he turns to analyse how Roman society functioned on the edge of the desert and in particular to investigate the careful exploitation and control of critical water resources

Warfare and Society in Imperial Rome, C. 31 BC-AD 280 Brian Campbell, 2002-07-18 This well documented study of the Roman army provides a crucial aid to understanding the Roman Empire in economic social and political terms Employing numerous examples Brian Campbell explores the development of the Roman army and the expansion of the Roman Empire from 31 BC 280 AD When Augustus established a permanent professional army this i Rulers, Nomads, and Christians in Roman North Africa Brent D. Shaw, 2024-10-28 The studies collected in this volume cover three broad areas of the history of North Africa as part of the Roman Empire Studies devoted to the history of political institutions are followed by ones that detail aspects of interactions between nomad and sedentarist communities in the African provinces The book concludes with two studies on African christianity In all of these special attention is given to the indigenous institutions economies and beliefs that informed the confrontation between African and Roman The studies in general argue for a strongly interactionist approach to historians reconstruction of the history of the period and the region a perspective that would emphasise the continuous conflict between the two world of African and Roman War and Society in Imperial Rome, 31 BC-AD 284 J. B.

Campbell,2002 This well documented study of the Roman army provides a crucial aid to understanding the Roman Empire in economic social and political terms Employing numerous examples Brian Campbell explores the development of the Roman army and the expansion of the Roman Empire from 31 BC 280 AD When Augustus established a permanent professional army this implied a role for the Emperor as a military leader Warfare and Society in Imperial Rome examines this personal association between army and emperor and argues that the Emperor s position as commander remained much the same for the next 200 years The Berber Identity Movement and the Challenge to North African States Bruce

Maddy-Weitzman,2011-05-01 Like many indigenous groups that have endured centuries of subordination the Berber Amazigh peoples of North Africa are demanding linguistic and cultural recognition and the redressing of injustices Indeed the movement seeks nothing less than a refashioning of the identity of North African states a rewriting of their history and a fundamental change in the basis of collective life In so doing it poses a challenge to the existing political and sociocultural orders in Morocco and Algeria while serving as an important counterpoint to the oppositionist Islamist current This is the first book length study to analyze the rise of the modern ethnocultural Berber Amazigh movement in North Africa and the Berber diaspora Bruce Maddy Weitzman begins by tracing North African history from the perspective of its indigenous Berber inhabitants and their interactions with more powerful societies from Hellenic and Roman times through a millennium of Islam to the era of Western colonialism He then concentrates on the marginalization and eventual reemergence of the Berber question in independent Algeria and Morocco against a background of the growing crisis of regime legitimacy in each country His investigation illuminates many issues including the fashioning of official national narratives and policies aimed at subordinating Berbers in an Arab nationalist and Islamic centered universe the emergence of a counter movement promoting an expansive Berber imagining that emphasizes the rights of minority groups and indigenous peoples and the international aspects of modern Berberism A Companion to the Archaeology of the Roman Empire, 2 Volume Set Barbara

Burrell,2024-03-13 A one of a kind exploration of archaeological evidence from the Roman Empire between 44 BCE and 337 CE In A Companion to the Archaeology of the Roman Empire distinguished scholar and archaeologist Professor Barbara Burrell delivers an illuminating and wide ranging discussion of peoples institutions and their material remains across the Roman Empire Divided into two parts the book begins by focusing on the unifying factors institutions and processes that affected the entire empire This ends with a chapter by Professor Greg Woolf Ronald J Mellor Professor of Ancient History at UCLA which summarizes and enlarges upon the themes and contributions of the volume Meanwhile the second part brings out local patterns and peculiarities within the archaeological remains of the City of Rome as well as almost every province of its empire Each chapter is written by a noted scholar whose career has focused on the subject Chronological coverage for each chapter is formally 44 BCE to 337 CE but since material remains are not always so closely datable most chapters center on the first three centuries of the Common Era plus or minus 50 years In addition the book is amply illustrated and includes new and little known finds from oft ignored provinces Readers will also find A thorough introduction to the peoples and operations of the Roman Empire including not just how the center affected the periphery Romanization but how peripheral provinces operated on their own and among their neighbors Comprehensive explorations of local patterns within individual provinces Contributions from a diverse panel of leading scholars in the field A unique form of organization that brings out systems across the empire such as transport across sea rivers and roads monetary systems pottery and foodways the military construction and technology Perfect for graduate and advanced undergraduate students of archaeology and the history of the Roman Empire A Companion to the Archaeology of the Roman Empire will also earn a place in the libraries of professional archaeologists in other fields including Mayanists medievalists and Far Eastern scholars seeking comparanda and bibliography on other imperial structures

Barbarians in the Greek and Roman World Erik Jensen, 2018-09-15 What did the ancient Greeks and Romans think of the peoples they referred to as barbari Did they share the modern Western conception popularized in modern fantasy literature and role playing games of barbarians as brutish unwashed enemies of civilization Or our related notion of the noble savage Was the category fixed or fluid How did it contrast with the Greeks and Romans conception of their own cultural identity Was it based on race In accessible jargon free prose Erik Jensen addresses these and other questions through a copiously illustrated introduction to the varied and evolving ways in which the ancient Greeks and Romans engaged with and thought about foreign peoples and to the recent historical and archaeological scholarship that has overturned received understandings of the relationship of Classical civilization to its others Rome and Its Frontiers C R Whittaker, 2004-07-31 This collection of essays on the frontiers of the Roman Empire their physical significance and their relationship with the way the Romans viewed the world without and beyond the boundaries

Local Self-Governance in Antiquity and in the Global South Dominique Krüger, Christoph Mohamad-Klotzbach, Rene Pfeilschifter, 2022-12-31 The nucleus of society is situated at the local level in the village the neighborhood the city district This is where a community first develops collective rules that are intended to ensure its continued existence The contributors look at such configurations in geographical areas and time periods that lie outside of the modern Western world with its particular development of society and statehood in Antiquity and in the Global South of the present Here states tend to be weak with obvious challenges and opportunities for local communities How does governance in this context work Scholars from various disciplines Classics Theology Political Science Sociology Social Anthropology Human Geography Sinology analyze different kinds of local arrangements in case studies and they do so with a comparative approach The sixteen papers examine the scope and spatial contingency of forms of self governance its legitimization and the collective identity of the groups behind them the relations to different levels of state governance as well as to other local groups Overall this volume makes an interdisciplinary contribution to a better understanding of fundamental elements of local governance and statehood

The Function of the Roman Army in Southern Arabia

Petraea Mariana Castro, 2018-11-29 This volume provides a fresh perspective on the evolving and diverse functions of the Roman army in Arabia from the creation of the province to the end of the Byzantine period Epiphanius of Cyprus Andrew S. Jacobs, 2021-11-02 Epiphanius Bishop of Constantia on Cyprus from 367 to 403 CE was incredibly influential in the last decades of the fourth century Whereas his major surviving text the Panarion an encyclopedia of heresies is studied for lost sources Epiphanius himself is often dismissed as an anti intellectual eccentric a marginal figure of late antiquity In this book Andrew S Jacobs moves Epiphanius from the margin back toward the center and proposes we view major cultural themes of late antiquity in a new light altogether Through an examination of the key cultural concepts of celebrity conversion discipline scripture and salvation Jacobs shifts our understanding of late antiquity from a transformational period open to new ideas and peoples toward a Christian Empire that posited a troubling but ever present otherness at the center of its cultural production
