Capitalism by Gaslight Brian P. Luskey, Wendy A. Woloson, 2015-03-18 While elite merchants financiers shopkeepers and customers were the most visible producers consumers and distributors of goods and capital in the nineteenth century they were certainly not alone in shaping the economy Lurking in the shadows of capitalism s past are those who made markets by navigating a range of new financial instruments information systems and modes of transactions prostitutes dealers in used goods mock auctioneers illegal slavers traffickers in stolen horses emigrant runners pilfering dock workers and other ordinary people who through their transactions and lives helped to make capitalism as much as it made them Capitalism by Gaslight illuminates American economic history by emphasizing the significance of these markets and the cultural debates they provoked These essays reveal that the rules of economic engagement were still being established in the nineteenth century delineations between legal and illegal moral and immoral acceptable and unsuitable were far from clear The contributors examine the fluid mobility and unstable value of people and goods the shifting geographies and structures of commercial institutions the blurred boundaries between legitimate and illegitimate economic activity and the daily lives of men and women who participated creatively and often subversively in American commerce With subjects ranging from women s studies and African American history to material and consumer culture this compelling volume illustrates that when hidden forms of commerce are brought to light they can become flashpoints revealing the tensions fissures and inequities inherent in capitalism itself Contributors Paul Erickson Robert J Gamble Ellen Gruber Garvey Corey Goettsch Joshua R Greenberg Katie M Hemphill Craig B Hollander Brian P Luskey Will B Mackintosh Adam Mendelsohn Brendan P O Malley Michael D Thompson Wendy A Woloson Surviving Manic Depression E Fuller Torrey, Michael B Knable, 2009-03-05

answer the question Why are so many severely mentally ill people homeless or incarcerated Updated since it s original 1988 release this book tracks the history of this question in the United States The answer begins in 1955 when the United States deinstitutionalized the 559 000 patients who were in state mental hospitals Today only 35 000 remain In 1963 Congress funded President Kennedy s proposed federally funded Community Mental Health Centers CMHCs whose main purpose was to provide care for the patients being released from the hospitals However most of the CMHCs never did so but rather became counseling centers for individuals with less serious mental illnesses The lack of psychiatric aftercare for severely mentally ill individuals resulted in more than 200 000 of them who are homeless and more than 250 000 others who are in jails and prisons This story also includes little known details such as the role played by conscientious objectors who worked in the state hospitals during WWII Rosemary Kennedy s psychosis the influence of the conservative John Birch society on Presidents Nixon and Reagan and mental health myths incorrectly attributed to Reagan Finally the book discusses what needs to be done to improve the mental illness treatment system This is an ideal guide for psychiatrists psychologists and members of the public who are concerned about homelessness Handgun Bullet Stopping Power George B.
