Petterchak, 2005 An illustrated history of the State of Illinois paired with histories of the local companies Dividing the Union Matthew W. Hall, 2016 The first in-depth examination of the architect of the Missouri Compromise In 1820 the Missouri controversy erupted over the issue of slavery in the newly acquired lands of the Louisiana Purchase It fell to Jesse Burgess Thomas 1777 1853 a junior U S senator from the new state of Illinois to handle the delicate negotiations that led to the Missouri Compromise Thomas's maturity good judgment and restraint helped pull the country back from the brink of disunion and created a compromise that held for thirtyfour years In Dividing the Union Matthew W Hall examines the legal issues underlying the controversy and the legislative history of the Missouri Compromise while focusing on Thomas s life and influence As Hall demonstrates Thomas was perfectly situated geographically politically and ideologically to deal with the Missouri controversy The first speaker of the Indiana Territorial General Assembly and one of the first territorial judges in Illinois Territory Thomas served in 1818 as the president of the Illinois State Constitutional Convention That he was never required to clearly articulate his own views on slavery allowed Thomas to maintain a degree of neutrality and as Hall shows his varied political career gave him the experience necessary to craft a compromise Thomas s final version of the Compromise included shrewdly worded ambiguities that supported opposing interests in the matter of slavery By weaving Thomas s life story into the history of the Missouri Compromise Hall offers new insight into both a pivotal piece of legislation and an overlooked but important figure in nineteenthcentury American politics
