Economics Of Racism In U S A The Roots Of Inequality Usa:

Economics of Racism II Victor Perlo, 1996 A completely new edition Reexamines the facts and explores their new dimensions the issues and remedies for the 1990s and the next millennium Economics of Racism U.S.A. Victor Perlo, 1975 Monograph presenting an economic analysis of racial discrimination in the USA investigates some of the economic implications of discrimination particularly with regard to unemployment and poor employment opportunities for Blacks low income due to inequitable income distribution etc References and statistical tables Race Struggles Theodore Koditschek, Sundiata Keita Cha-Jua, Helen A. Neville, 2009 The essays in this collection start with the premise that although race like class and gender is socially constructed all three categories have been shaped profoundly by their context in a capitalist society Race in other words is a historical category that develops not only in dialectical relation to class and gender but also in relation to the material conditions in which all three are forged In addition to discussing and analyzing various dimensions of the African American experience contributors also consider the ways in which race plays itself out in the experience of Asian Americans and in the very different geopolitical environments of the British Empire and postcolonial Africa Contributors are Pedro Caban Sundiata Keita Cha-Jua David Crockett Theodore Koditschek Scott Kurashige Clarence Lang Minkah Makalani Helen A Neville Ibitola O Pearce David Roediger Monica M White and Jeffrey Williams Race, Work, and Family in the Lives of African Americans Marlese Durr, Shirley A. Hill, 2006-05-25 Family and work are major integrally related dimensions of social life which affect the well being and success of family members As social institutions family and work are also avenues where social inequality may be understood as a major element in the distribution of social cultural and economic resources and sites where inequality is perpetuated negotiated and contested In this book editors Durr and Hill focus on African Americans navigating the terrain of race work and family and examining persistent barriers to equality and ways in which Blacks have sought to become an integral part of the American economy The Blackwell Companion to Sociology Judith R Blau, 2008-04-15 The Blackwell Companion to Sociology is a milestone collection of new essays by renowned sociologists covering both the traditions and strengths of the field as well as newer developments and directions Authors from the US the UK Europe and elsewhere have contributed to this all in one reference work highlighting the relevance of interdisciplinary and international perspectives while at the same time representing the scope and quality of sociology in its current form Dimensions of Prejudice Zak Cope, 2008 This book argues that unreasonable dogmatic beliefs are expressions of socially structured patterns of prejudice Specifically prejudice is explained as being produced and dispersed within the confines of the political structures governing the manner in which material human needs are created and met Classifying various dimensions of prejudice philosophical epistemological psychological sociological political and cultural the book conceptualises the relation between dogmatic thinking and these facets of human existence Criticising and comparing a wide range of theories and factual data relating to the growth and expression of prejudice the book is a theoretical discussion of problems surrounding the production of cultural norms the psychological effects of filial systems and relations between the sexes the constitution of modern capitalist society and elementary principles of political democracy Drawing on feminism whiteness studies Marxist theories of racism and imperialism psychoanalysis critical theory and cultural studies the author examines the constraints placed upon individuals groups and nations propensity for scientific and rational thinking

Spectres of 1919 Barbara Foley, 2010-10-01 A look at the violent Red Summer of 1919 and its intersection with the highly politicized New Negro movement and the Harlem Renaissance With the New Negro movement and the Harlem Renaissance the 1920s was a landmark decade in African American political and cultural history characterized by an upsurge in racial awareness and artistic creativity In Spectres of 1919 Barbara Foley traces the origins of this revolutionary era to the turbulent year 1919 identifying the events and trends in American society that spurred the black community to action and examining the forms that action took as it evolved Unlike prior studies of the Harlem Renaissance which see 1919 as significant mostly because of the geographic migrations of blacks to the North Spectres of 1919 looks at that year as the political crucible from which the radicalism of the 1920s emerged Foley draws from a wealth of primary sources taking a bold new approach to the origins of African American radicalism and adding nuance and complexity to the understanding of a fascinating and vibrant era

White on White Black on Black is a unique contribution to the philosophy of race The book explores how fourteen philosophers seven white and seven black philosophically understand the dynamics of the process of racialization Combined the contributions demonstrate different and similar conceptual trajectories of raced identities that emerge from within and across the racial divide Each of the fourteen philosophers who share a textual space of exploration name blackness whiteness revealing significant political cultural and existential aspects of what it means to be black white Through the power of naming and theorizing whiteness and blackness White on White Black on Black dares to bring clarity and complexity to our understanding of race identity American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Socio-Economic Crises in Black and Brown Communities in the United States Antoinette Christophe,2023-12-19 Socio Economic Crises in Black and Brown Communities in the United States provides insight and awareness concerning crises that exist in underserved Black and brown communities in the United States The contributors explore these issues through the lenses of public policy human behavior environmental injustice socioeconomic status gentrification psychological limitation Black history distortions as well as disparities in health technology race gender and class They are products of various backgrounds which provides diverse perspectives from their life experiences Black Families and Recession in the United States Dorothy Smith-Ruiz,Albert M. Kopak,2021-03-30 Black Families and the Recession in the United States goes beyond the massive loss of property among African Americans during the Great Recession of 2007 2009 It connects the housing experience to broader systems of inequality in America Following the Great Recession of 2007 2009 the US elections of 2008 the impact of COVID 19 and widespread demonstrations resulting from the murder of George Floyd by police the sociopolitical and economic status of Blacks in the United States is at a critical point in history with demand for major transformation The authors reveal a history of racist practices against Blacks in many systems including education policing incarceration wealth transmission voting restrictions and housing segregation The social costs of the recession are manifested in the daily lives of African American families In addition to financial losses African Americans are more likely to be plagued with issues related to poverty chronic illnesses and lack of trust of social and economic institutions Research policy and practical implications of this research include identifying social and economic supports unique to African Americans and determining strategies to strengthen families paramount to addressing racial disparities The interdisciplinary focus of this book appeals to a wide audience and areas of study African Americans in the U.S. Economy Cecilia Conrad,2005 Over the last several decades academic discourse on racial inequality has focused primarily on political and social issues with significantly less attention on the complex interplay between race and economics African Americans in the U S Economy represents a contribution to recent scholarship that seeks to lessen this imbalance This book builds upon and significantly extends the principles terminology and methods of standard economics and black political economy Influenced by path breaking studies presented in several scholarly economic journals this volume is designed to provide a political economic analysis of the past and present economic status of African Americans The chapters in this volume represent the work of some of the nation s most distinguished scholars on the various topics presented The individual chapters cover several well defined areas including black employment and unemployment labor market discrimination black entrepreneurship racial economic inequality urban revitalization and black economic development The book is written in a style free of the technical jargon that characterizes most economics textbooks While the book is methodologically sophisticated it is accessible to a wide range of students and the general public and will appeal to academicians and practitioners alike

Multicultural Education in Colleges and Universities Howard Ball, Mbulelo Vizikhu Mzamane, Stephen D. Berkowitz, 2014-01-09 This book provides both an overview of the core dilemma in America racism and the deadly impact it has had on American society and an account of the ways in which the book s contributors have attempted to deal with this dilemma in their own teaching practice Two core essays explore the theoretical and historical issues involved in defining races and ethnic groups in the West and issues of racial and ethnic inequality in American society The volume then examines a variety of strategies for teaching the conflicts in comparative literature and politics African American literature law history and political science sociology religion economics anthropology and art and music A premise of this book is that multicultural education in colleges and universities must be transdisciplinary based on the perspectives offered by a multiplicity of interrelated disciplines Clearly scholars across the disciplines have a great deal to learn from one another about issues of race and ethnicity in American society This book shares such knowledge in order to provide relevant accurate information about these issues and their consequences for individuals living in America It also encourages university educators to understand the challenges we face as a society and to be idealistic enough to want to draw upon the various strengths of our culture to assist in the remaking of American democracy Social Class in the Contemporary United States Gerald M. Erickson, Harold L. Schwartz, 1977 Criminological Theory J. Robert Lilly, Francis T. Cullen, Richard A. Ball, 2018-10-17 Updated Edition of a Best Seller Offering a rich introduction to how scholars analyze crime Criminological Theory Context and Consequences moves readers beyond a commonsense knowledge of crime to a deeper understanding of the importance of theory in shaping crime control policies The Seventh Edition of the authors clear accessible and thoroughly revised text covers traditional and contemporary theory within a larger sociological and historical context It includes new sources that assess the empirical status of the major theories as well as updated coverage of crime control policies and their connection to criminological theory The Publishers' Trade List Annual , 1984
