Explaining Contemporary Asian Military Modernization Sheryn Lee, 2021-04-19 This book proposes a novel theoretical framework of interactive arming in order to explain armament dynamics in contemporary Asia Frequently the modernisation of contemporary naval forces in Asia is described as an arms race with the underlying assumption being that weapons acquisitions and increases in defence expenditure are competitive and bilateral and due to conflicting purposes or mutual fears This book argues that the concept of an arms race is an unsuitable one for explaining contemporary military modernisation in 21st century Asia Instead it proposes a novel and innovative concept of interactive arming and argues that what drives conflict is political rivalry not weapons acquisitions Instead of perceiving arming as abnormal behaviour the book views arming as a natural strategic behaviour of states and military modernisation as a basic requirement for a state's ability to survive This book will be of much interest to students of Asian security strategic studies and international relations in general

Study On International Politics In Contemporary China Yuyan Zhang, 2020-07-14 China's guiding principle for foreign relations and its focus on states and regions has shifted a lot from the first 30 years of the founding of the People's Republic of China PRC in 1949 to 1978 and beyond after reform and opening up However PRC's diplomatic practice has been continuous whether it was participation in the Korean War breaking up with the former Soviet Union after a honeymoon period China's self defense war over Sino Indian border participation in the Vietnam War breakthrough in the Sino US relation or PRC's self defense war over the Sino Vietnamese border These historical events brought the need for theoretical study in International Politics IP The development of China's IP research was slow and filled with complications but it signified a breakthrough from scratch This book has filled gap by depicting a complete scroll of China's IP research in over 60 years since 1949 This book has followed two principles one is according to the classification of the IP discipline and the other is to recommend adaptations according to China's actual conditions

Asian Economic Systems Steven Rosefielde, 2013 Asian Economic Systems provides readers with a crisp analytic framework concepts and narrative highlighting contemporary Asia's systemic diversity. The framework facilitates insightful comparison with the western neoclassical ideal. This method allows students to easily appreciate the special virtues of various Asian economic systems and compare them with those offered in the west. This objective is buttressed with background material on Asian economic history where appropriate together with basic data on Asian and global economic performance to help students integrate concepts with experience. The approach provides an objective platform for discussing Asia's place and future in the new global order. It makes it clear that there is no universally best economic system. There are a variety of good systems and nations should choose the system that best suits their cultural heritage values and aspirations. The approach informs discussions about the wisdom of forming regional free trade zones economic communities like ASEAN and unions analogous to the European Union as well as forging a one world system of economic governance. Also Asian Economic Systems has a secondary goal. It provides the tools needed for training students in how to apply microeconomic macroeconomic and financial principles to practical issues of systems and policies. The book focuses on East and Southeast Asia. The term Asia is used as a shorthand for the cultural region dominated historically by Confucian kinship networks Japanese communalism and Theravada Buddhism and more recently by Marxist/Communist Leninist communism. It excludes the Middle East Central Asia the Himalayan states South Asia Malaysia Indonesia the Philippines Russia and America's Asia Pacific possessions. The book identifies and elaborates four rival market systems in contemporary Asia each with its own distinctive performance characteristics potentials and humanist properties: 1 communist China Vietnam Laos and Cambodia 2 Confucian Taiwan Singapore Hong Kong and South Korea 3 communal Japan and 4 Theravada Buddhist Thailand and Sri Lanka. Their comparative merit is partly obscured by differences in stages of economic development epochal and conjunctural factors but their special positive and negative attributes are unmistakable and are compared with North Korea's communist command system which is the region's fifth core alternative to democratic free enterprise.

A Regional Contemporary C. J. W.-L. Wee, 2025-03-18. The first critical account of the enormous upsurge in cultural expression across Asian countries from 1979-2008 and the new possibilities it presented for the aesthetic and cultural re-imagining of a unified contemporary Asia. Biennial style art exhibitions. New discourses in modern and contemporary art. The production and circulation of increasingly debordered popular culture. A Regional Contemporary by C. J. W. L. Wee is an investigative account of the dramatic increase in cultural expression in Asia from 1979 to 2008 with the 1990s as the focal point of this period. The so-called East Asian miracle Wee argues projected a fictive but shared contemporary regional identity onto Northeast and Southeast Asia collectively taken as East Asia The new cultural explosion was notably enabled by expanded capitalist energies that reached a level critical enough to reposition the region s postcolonial and Cold War era nationalisms and this book examines the resulting implications A sophisticated and compelling study A Regional Contemporary is the first to examine the conjunction of high and popular culture in the region Moreover Wee reveals how the various cultural formations of this regional contemporary were able to traverse if not overcome uneven national economies the memory of Japanese empire and the geopolitical rifts of post Cold War nationalisms While foregrounding new cultural expression Wee simultaneously examines how novel economic conditions bolstered a more confident questioning of Western modernity s dominance and enhanced the capacity for regional dialogue in the bid to overcome colonial era legacies even as those legacies were being absorbed into the region VH1 VH1 For the designer if space is tight on the back this can be deleted
