Yaffe, 2002-05-09 Martin D Yaffe's Judaism and Environmental Ethics A Reader is a well conceived exploration of three interrelated questions Does the Hebrew Bible or subsequent Jewish tradition teach environmental responsibility or not What Jewish teachings if any appropriately address today's environmental crisis Do ecology Judaism and philosophy work together or are they at odds with each other in confronting the current crisis Yaffe's extensive introduction analyzes and appraises the anthologized essays each of which serves to deepen and enrich our understanding of current reflection on Judaism and environmental ethics Brought together in one volume for the first time the most important scholars in the field touch on diverse disciplines including deep ecology political philosophy and biblical hermeneutics This ambitious book illustrates precisely because of its interdisciplinary focus how longstanding disagreements and controversies may spark further interchange among ecologists Jews and philosophers Both accessible and thoroughly scholarly this dialogue will benefit anyone interested in ethical and religious considerations of contemporary ecology Meditation from the Heart of Judaism Avram Davis,1999 much needed religious perspective on what constitutes ethical practice and behavior O'Brien and Paeth now fill that need with this new text Tackling such wide ranging subjects as Jewish environmental ethics Zen in the workplace and Christian social ethics this text is a valuable addition to any business ethics course The Case for Jewish Peoplehood Erica Brown, Misha Galperin, 2009 This clarion call to the Jewish community explores the purpose possibilities and limitations of peoplehood as a unifying concept of community for a people struggling profoundly with Jewish identity It defines what peoplehood is and is not and explores both collective and personal Jewish identity and the nature of identity construction
