An Economic and Social History of the Ottoman Empire Halil Inalcik, Donald Quataert, 1997-05 A major contribution to Ottoman history now published in paperback in two volumes      An Economic and Social History of the Ottoman Empire: 1600-1914 Donald Quataert, 1999      An Economic and Social History of the Ottoman Empire Suraiya Faruqi, 1997-04-28 A major contribution to Ottoman history now published in paperback in two volumes      Governing the Frontiers in the Ottoman Empire Gülseren Duman Koç, 2023-11-20 Based on many previously unused sources from Ottoman and British archives Governing the Frontiers in the Ottoman Empire offers a micro history to understand the nineteenth century Ottoman reforms on the eastern frontiers By examining the administrative military and fiscal transformation of Mu a multi ethnic multi religious sub province in the Ottoman East it shows how the reforms were not top down and were shaped according to local particularities The book also provides a story of the notables tribes and peasants of a frontier region Focusing on the relations between state notables notables tribes notables peasants and finally tribes peasants the book shows both the causes of contention and collaborations between the parties      Tribes and Empire on the Margins of Nineteenth-Century Iran Arash Khazeni, 2011-06-01 Tribes and Empire on the Margins of Nineteenth Century Iran traces the history of the Bakhtiari tribal confederacy of the Zagros Mountains through momentous times that saw the opening of their territory to the outside world As the Qajar dynasty sought to integrate the peoples on its margins into the state the British Empire made commercial inroads into the once inaccessible mountains on the frontier between Iran and Iraq The distance between the state and the tribes was narrowed through imperial projects that included the building of a road through the mountains the gathering of geographical and ethnographic information and the exploration for oil which culminated during the Iranian Constitutional Revolution These modern projects assimilated autonomous pastoral nomadic tribes on the peripheries of Qajar Iran into a wider imperial territory and the world economy Tribal subjects did not remain passive amidst these changes in environment and society however and projects of empire in the hinterlands of Iran were always mediated through encounters accommodation and engagement with the tribes In contrast to the range of literature on the urban classes and political center in Qajar Iran Arash Khazeni adopts a view from the Bakhtiari tents on the periphery Drawing upon Persian chronicles tribal histories and archival sources from London Tehran and Isfahan this book opens new ground by approaching nineteenth century Iran from its edge and placing the tribal periphery at the heart of a tale about empire and assimilation in the modern Middle East      The Cambridge History of the Kurds Hamit Bozarslan, Cengiz Gunes, Veli Yadirgi, 2021-04-22 The Cambridge History of the Kurds is an authoritative and comprehensive volume exploring the social political and economic features forces and evolution amongst the Kurds and in the region known as Kurdistan from the fifteenth to the twenty first century Written in a clear and accessible style by leading scholars in the field the chapters survey key issues and themes vital to any understanding of the Kurds and Kurdistan including Kurdish language Kurdish art culture and literature Kurdistan in the age of empires political social and religious movements in Kurdistan and domestic political developments in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Other chapters on gender diaspora political economy tribes cinema and folklore offer fresh perspectives on the Kurds and Kurdistan as well as neatly meeting an exigent need in Middle Eastern studies Situating contemporary developments taking place in Kurdish majority regions within broader histories of the region it forms a definitive survey of the history of the Kurds and Kurdistan Waves of War

Andreas Wimmer,2013 A new perspective on how the nation state emerged and proliferated across the globe accompanied by a wave of wars Andreas Wimmer explores these historical developments using social science techniques of analysis and datasets that cover the entire modern world The Struggle for the Eurasian Borderlands Alfred J. Rieber,2014-03-20 This book explores the Eurasian borderlands as contested shatter zones which have generated some of the world s most significant conflicts Analyzing the struggles of Habsburg Russian Ottoman Iranian and Qing empires Alfred J Rieber surveys the period from the rise of the great multicultural conquest empires in the late medieval early modern period to their collapse in the early twentieth century He charts how these empires expanded along moving military frontiers competing with one another in war diplomacy and cultural practices while the subjugated peoples of the borderlands strove to maintain their cultures and to defend their autonomy The gradual and fragmentary adaptation of Western constitutional ideas military reforms cultural practices and economic penetration began to undermine these ruling ideologies and institutions leading to the collapse of all five empires in revolution and war within little more than a decade between 1911 and 1923

Cosmopolitanisms in Muslim Contexts Derryl N MacLean,2013-09-23 Focuses on moments in world history when cosmopolitan ideas and actions pervaded specific Muslim societies and cultures exploring the tensions between regional cultures isolated enclaves and modern nation states Development Centre Studies The World Economy A Millennial Perspective Maddison Angus,2001-06-12 Angus Maddison provides a comprehensive view of the growth and levels of world population since the year 1000 when rich countries of today were poorer than Asia and Africa The gap between the world leader the US and the poorest region Africa is Development Centre Studies The World Economy Volume 1: A

Millennial Perspective and Volume 2: Historical Statistics Maddison Angus,2006-09-18 The World Economy brings together two reference works by Angus Maddison The World Economy A Millennial Perspective 2001 and The World Economy Historical Statistics 2003 This new edition contains Statlinks so that readers can access the underlying data in Excel format Looking Backward, Moving Forward Richard G. Hovannisian,2017-07-05 The decades separating our new century from the Armenian Genocide the prototype of modern day nation killings have fundamentally changed the political composition of the region Virtually no Armenians remain on their historic territories in what is today eastern Turkey The Armenian people have been scattered about the world And a small independent republic has come to replace the Armenian Soviet Socialist Republic which was all that was left of the homeland as the result of Turkish invasion and Bolshevik collusion in 1920 One element has remained constant Notwithstanding the eloquent compelling evidence housed in the United States National Archives and repositories around the world successive Turkish governments have denied that the predecessor Young Turk regime committed genocide and like the Nazis who followed their example sought aggressively to deflect blame by accusing the victims themselves This volume argues that the time has come for Turkey to reassess the propriety of its approach and to begin the process that will allow it move into a post genocide era The work includes Genocide An Agenda for Action Gijs M de Vries Determinants of the Armenian Genocide Donald Bloxham Looking Backward and Forward Joyce Apse The United States Response to the Armenian Genocide Simon Payaslian The League of Nations and the Reclamation of Armenian Genocide Survivors Vahram L Shemmassian Raphael Lemkin and the Armenian Genocide Steven L Jacobs Reconstructing Turkish Historiography of the Armenian Massacres and Deaths of 1915 Fatma Muge Gocek Bitter Sweet Memories The Armenian Genocide and International Law Joe Verhoeven New Directions in Literary Response to the Armenian Genocide Rubina Perroomian Denial and Free Speech Henry C Theriault Healing and Reconciliation Ervin Staub State and Nation Raffi K Hovannisian Turkey and the World Sedat Laçiner,2001 The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms Vaysman,2025-11-04 Realism is an artistic practice that aims to faithfully represent reality Historically it has been practiced across different media from early pictorial art and epic oral narratives through literature and visual arts to film music and digital media However an understanding of what it means to faithfully represent reality is not universal rather it varies from culture to culture The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms approaches realism as a transnational transhistorical and intermedial global phenomenon It brings the diversity of global realisms to the fore showcasing previously underrepresented and marginalized theories practices forms and media of realist cultural production Trading with the Ottomans Despina Vlami,2014-12-05 Arguably trade is the engine of history and the acceleration in what you mightcall globalism from the beginning of the last millennium has been driven by communities interacting with each other through commerce and exchange The Ottoman empire was a trading partner for the rest of the world and therefore the key link between the west and the middle east in the fifteenth to nineteenth centuries much academic attention has been given to the east india Company but less well known is the Levant Company which had the exclusive right to trade with the Ottoman empire from 1581 to 1825 The Levant Company exported British manufacturing colonial goods and raw materials and imported silk cotton spices currants and other Levantine goods it set up factories trading establishments across Ottoman lands and hired consuls company employees and agents from among its members as well as foreign tradesmen and locals here despina vlami outlines the relationship between the Ottoman empire and the Levant Company and traces the company s last glimpses of prosperity combined with slump periods and tension as both the Ottoman and the British empire faced significant change and war she points out that the growth of free trade and the end of protectionism coincided with modernisation and reforms and while doing so provides a new lens through which to view the decline of the Ottoman world

International Orders in the Early Modern World Shogo Suzuki,Yongjin Zhang,Joel Quirk,2013-09-05 This book examines the historical interactions of the West and non Western world and investigates whether or not the exclusive adoption of Western oriented international norms is the prerequisite for the construction of international order This book sets out to challenge the Eurocentric foundations of modern International Relations scholarship by examining international relations in the early modern era when European primacy had yet to develop in many parts of the globe Through a series of regional case studies on East Asia the Middle East Africa and Latin America and Russia written by leading specialists of their field this book explores patterns of cross cultural exchange and civilizational encounters placing particular emphasis upon historical contexts The chapters of this book document and analyse a series of regional international orders that were primarily defined by local interests agendas and institutions with European interlopers often playing a secondary role These perspectives emphasize the central role of non European agency in shaping global history and stand in stark contrast to conventional narratives revolving around the Rise of the West which tend to be based upon a stylized contrast between a dynamic West and a passive and static East Focusing on a crucial period of global history that has been neglected in the field of International Relations International Orders in the Early Modern World will be interest to students and scholars of international relations international relations theory international history early modern history and sociology

Sea of Troubles Ian Rutledge,2023-10-17 In the mid eighteenth century most of the Mediterranean coastline and its hinterlands were controlled by the Ottoman Empire a vast Islamic power regarded by Christian Europe with awe and fear By the end of the First World War however this great civilisation had been completely subjugated and its territories occupied by European powers Sea of Troubles is the definitive account of the European conquest of the Levant and North Africa over three centuries Ian Rutledge reveals the intense imperial rivalry between six European powers Britain France Italy Spain Austria Hungary and Russia who all jostled for control of the trade lands and wealth of the Islamic Mediterranean The competition between these states made their conquest a far more difficult and extended task than they encountered elsewhere in the world Yet as new contenders entered the contest and as rivalries intensified in the early twentieth century events would spiral out of control as the continent headed towards the First World War

Muslim-Christian Relations in Damascus amid the 1860 Riot Rana Abu-Mounes,2022-01-31 On 9 July 1860 CE an outbreak of violence in the inner city Christian quarter of Damascus created shock waves locally and internationally This book provides a step by step presentation of events and issues to assess the true role of all the players and shapers of events It critically examines the internal and external politico socio economic factors involved and argues that economic interests rather than religious fanaticism were the main causes for the riot of 1860 Furthermore it argues that the riot was not a sudden eruption but rather a planned and organised affair

Attempting to Bring the Gospel Home Michael Marten,2005-12-20 The first comprehensive study of Scottish religious imperialism in the Middle East highly topical in the light of parallels with American religious imperialism in the region has interdisciplinary importance and appeal Attempting to Bring the Gospel Home portrays the Scottish missions to Palestine carried out by Presbyterian churches These missions had as their stated aim the conversion of Jews to Protestantism but also attempted to convert other Christians and Muslims Marten discusses the missions to Damascus Aleppo Tiberias Safad Hebron and Jaffa and locates the missionaries in their religious social national and imperial contexts He describes the three main methods of the missionaries work confrontation education and medicine as well as the ways in which these were communicated to the supporting constituency in Scotland Michael Marten was formerly a graduate student in the Department of Islamic and Middle Eastern Studies University of Edinburgh and now teaches at SOAS Routledge
