1968: The World Transformed Carole Fink, Philipp Gassert, Detlef Junker, 1998-10-28 1968 The World Transformed presents a global perspective on the tumultuous events of the most crucial year in the era of the Cold War By interpreting 1968 as a transnational phenomenon authors from Europe and the United States explain why the crises of 1968 erupted almost simultaneously throughout the world Together the eighteen chapters provide an interdisciplinary and comparative approach to the rise and fall of protest movements worldwide The book represents an effort to integrate international relations the role of media and the cross cultural exchange of people and ideas into the history of that year 1968 emerges as a global phenomenon because of the linkages between domestic and international affairs the powerful influence of the media the networks of communication among activists and the shared opposition to the domestic and international status quo in the name of freedom and self determination      How States Pay for Wars Rosella Cappella Zielinski,2016-07-11 Armies fight battles states fight wars To focus solely on armies is to neglect the broader story of victory and defeat Military power stems from an economic base and without wealth soldiers cannot be paid weapons cannot be procured and food cannot be bought War finance is among the most consequential decisions any state makes how a state finances a war affects not only its success on the battlefield but also its economic stability and its leadership tenure In How States Pay for Wars Rosella Cappella Zielinski clarifies several critical dynamics lying at the nexus of financial and military policy Cappella Zielinski has built a custom database on war funding over the past two centuries and she combines those data with qualitative analyses of Truman s financing of the Korean War Johnson s financing of the Vietnam War British financing of World War II and the Crimean War and Russian and Japanese financing of the Russo Japanese War She argues that leaders who attempt to maximize their power at home and state power abroad are in a constant balancing act as they try to win wars while remaining in office As a result of political risks they prefer war finance policies that meet the needs of the war effort within the constraints of the capacity of the state      Economic Impact of the U.S. Merchant Marine and Shipbuilding Industries Hyung C. Chung,1978      Economic Effect of Vietnam Spending United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee,1967      Exploding the Myth? Derek Braddon,2014-02-25 From a cold war peak of some 1000 billion per annum world military expenditure has declined by about 40% since 1990 reaching its lowest level for thirty years With such significant decline in global public expenditure commitments to the defence sector a substantial and lasting peace dividend was anticipated Most governments believed that market forces left more or less to their own devices would deal effectively with this major exogenous shock and generate sufficient new economic activity to allow increased public expenditure on health education and welfare The approach of this book is to challenge the fundamental but flawed belief that a substantial and lasting peace dividend could be secured through market solution alone The principal assertion is that market adjustment by itself cannot deliver such a dividend The book focuses on the major aspects of the economic business and security consequences of post Cold War defence expenditure reduction Key problems obstructing optimal market response are identified and possible remedial action by government and others is considered      Vietnam's Women in Transition Kathleen Barry,2016-07-27 Women experiencing the dynamic changes of rapid industrialization in the Vietnam of today in the family the factory the farm and the state from Hanoi to Ho Chi Minh City are the focus of this book Here the latest Vietnamese research and policy on women and the family are in dialogue with US feminist theory research and analysis providing a multi disciplinary approach to women s labour health and fertility rural development violence against women and women s historical and political status at a critical moment of economic and social change
