Patent Office, 1916 Living on the Edge Le Zwarts, Rob G. Bijlsma, Jan van der Kamp, Eddy Wymenga, 2016-10-18 Living on the Edge examines the function of the Sahel region of Africa as an important wintering area for long distance migrant birds It describes the challenges the birds have to cope with climate change of course and rapid man made habitat changes related to deforestation irrigation and reclamation of wetlands How have all these changes affected the birds and have birds adapted to these changes Can we explain the changing numbers of breeding birds in Europe by changes in the Sahel or vice versa Winner of the BB BTO Best Bird Book Award 2010 The Jury commented It is a tremendous book in every department It marks a step change in our knowledge of the ecology of this critically important region in the European African migration system and of the many species familiar to us on their breeding grounds that winter there The authors combine the latest scientific information with vivid descriptions of landscapes and animals Their book is richly illustrated with large numbers of drawings maps and photographs by acclaimed experts The wealth of coloured graphics has been particularly well thought out and encourages readers to delve into the figures and learn more about the region rather than having the all too common opposite effect Summing up the jury praises not just the high quality of the texts the information and the illustrations but also the sheer pleasure of reading the book One of the key attributes of a good book is to be able to grip the reader s attention and transport him or her to another place We feel confident that Living on the edge will have that effect Quarterly Journal of the Royal Meteorological Society Royal Meteorological Society (Great Britain), 1911 Vols 10 11 include Meteorology of England by James Glaisher as separately paged section at end Annals of the Astronomical Observatory of Harvard College , 1892 List of quarto publications exclusive of the Annals made by the officers of the observatory from 1877 to 1896 with references to the work of the Blue Hill observatory from 1885 to 1895 v 30 p 3 8 Edge Computing and IoT: Systems, Management and Security Hongbo Jiang, Hongyi Wu, Fanzi Zeng, 2021-04-08 This book constitutes the refereed post conference proceedings of the First International Conference Edge Computing and IoT ICECI 2020 held in November 2020 in Changsha China Due to COVID 19 pandemic the conference was held virtually The rapidly increasing devices and data traffic in the Internet of Things IoT era are posing significant burdens on the capacity limited Internet and uncontrollable service delay The 11 full papers of ICECI 2020 were selected from 79 submissions and present results and ideas in the area of edge computing and IoT The Sabre's Edge Allan Mallinson, 2004-06-03 A nineteenth century British cavalry captain and his Dragoons must take an impregnable Indian fortress in this adventure by the author of A Call to Arms 1824 The Sixth Light Dragoons are still stationed in India and the talk in the officer s mess is of war The Burmese are encroaching on Company land and skirmishes are common on India s borders Meanwhile across the country in Bhurtpoor the succession to the Raj has been usurped The rightful claimant Balwant Sing has been forced from the throne by the war mongering Durjan Sal The conflict looks set to flare up into bloody conflict taking the surrounding provinces with it With the threat of war on two fronts the British troops must intercede The trial ahead will test Hervey and his newly blooded troop to their very limits for Durjan Sal has taken refuge in the infamous Bhurtpoor a fortress surrounded by a deep moat almost five miles in perimeter with thirty five turreted bastions and the Tower of Victory built with the skulls of Lord Lakes defeated men Hervey can be sure of one thing the siege of Bhurtpoor will be hot and bloody work Once again the fortunes of Matthew Hervey and his courageous troop will be decided by the sabre s edge Praise for The Sabre s Edge Hervey returns in a thrilling new adventure set in colonial India Mallinson himself a cavalry officer has an almost innate ability to bring both military maneuvers and battle scenes to life This authentically rousing martial epic evokes all the sweat gore and glory of the British Raj Booklist

Multiphysics of Wind Turbines in Extreme Loading Conditions Arash Soleiman Fallah,Mojtaba Moatamedi,Hassan Khawaja,2024-01-18 Multiphysics of Wind Turbines in Extreme Loading Conditions addresses the extreme transient loading of wind turbines through a multiphysics modeling approach notably by considering the dynamic effects and the nonlinearities of the physics involved in such situations The book forms the basis for understanding multiphysic numerical simulations conducted on onshore and offshore wind turbines and subjected to extreme loading conditions including storms earthquakes blasts impacts and tsunamis The multiphysics approaches used in this book are explained in each chapter with algorithms then turned into numerical codes to attain a realistic picture of the dynamic response in each scenario With numerical methods and loading data explained the complexity of potential problems encountered when extreme dynamic loads are discussed along with loading types and their effects The book fills a specific niche in wind power namely extreme transient loading of wind turbine offering information and industrial practices as wind energy makes it useful to practice engineers designers undergraduate and graduate students Defines best practices for unique scenarios which are not readily available in the wider literature such as extreme load conditions earthquake and storm scenarios Includes multi physics methods and specific applications within the demands of extreme conditions Offers numerical simulations of both onshore and offshore wind turbines in one place Best of Growing Edge Amy Knutson,2000 Monthly Weather Review ,1889

Knapp,2013-05-31 Daily life for most of us particularly Americans frequently achieves a pace that becomes busy to the point of being harried As one activity spins into another each day distinguishes itself little from any other day In a like manner our immediate surroundings of buildings products or media set a uniform scene for our lives Meanwhile the sameness spreads from one place to another relentlessly leaving cities and suburbs where once could be found bucolic countryside native landscape and wildlife habitat Many people seek an escape That escape need not be far away It can be as close as a home garden particularly one based upon a natural design that belongs where it is located Particularly well suited to providing an escape from the mundane is a garden filled with native plants that belong in the general area of the site and that are chosen to specifically fit the conditions of the site By being within such a garden the authenticity of its site lets both people and wildlife know that they are home A garden that provides such authenticity finds itself resting gently on the land gracing the site with a natural style that belongs That garden breaks away from some of the conventions of design promoted by various media and the horticulture industry that intend first to sell profitably produced plants and landscaping material across the nation Media promoted gardening styles including the plants in them besides intended for use just about anywhere come in and out of fashion and use One years set of must have plants and landscaping materials promoted by the media replaces another in succession Meanwhile the horticultural industry naturally in pursuit of as much business as possible touts varieties of plants for garden use that are adaptable to as wide an area as possible As a result similar looking gardens or at least the plants in them appear across the country and even around the world often out of context of the area in which the garden grows Having the latest plants and garden style at a minimum provides a point of conversation for the gardener and visitors to the garden even if much the same plants and landscaping appear across town or across the continent Just as uniformity in garden styles and ubiquitous plants seem nearly to overtake suburban and urban areas a movement to landscape with native plants has begun to gain acceptance Any gardener can be a part of this The effort to include native plants reflects a desire by some gardeners and landscapers to create a garden anchored with a sense of the place that includes the garden This new direction may be happening just in time More and more native habitats disappear leaving fewer places for the native plants that lived there not to mention the wildlife that joins them Both native plants and wildlife need new places in which to live Home gardens that incorporate places for native plants and wildlife may be those sanctuaries All gardeners are in fact gardening on the edge of an era in which widely dispersed cultivated gardens may be the key in continuing the existence of some plants and maybe even some of the other living things that go with them In order to show an example of how a new garden style incorporating native plants can be done in nearly every garden the story of the evolution of the gardens at Windflower Grove has been used for illustration Growing on the tallgrass prairie of central Iowa along a woodland edge the gardens continue to be the authors own life work which continues on as it has for over sixty years Many specific methods proven in the gardens to work for growing native plants are shared in order to make inclusion of native plants a little easier for others Gardening with inclusion of native plants and encouragement of wildlife gradually evolved over the years at Windflower Grove into a garden style that can be described as heritage habitat gardening Specific rules of the style are few and flexible in o
