Educated Lives The Rise Of Modern Autobiography In America:

Educated Lives Thomas Cooley, 1976 American Autobiography Paul John Eakin, 1991 The first four essays review the major historical periods of American autobiography placing the classic texts of American autobiographical literature from Captain John Smith to Malcolm X in the illuminating context of lesser known contemporary narratives Daniel B Shea writes on colonial America Lawrence Buell on the American Renaissance Susanna Egan on the years after the Civil War and Albert E Stone on the twentieth century The second part of American Autobiography shows the diversity of voices forms audiences and modes of identity in the literature of American autobiography Provocative essays by William Boelhower and Sau Ling Cynthia Wong on immigrant autobiography discuss the changes in the sense of self that occur when strangers come to a strange land Arnold Krupat writes about how American Indians conceptualize the self and about the relationship between oral and written discourse William L Andrews evaluates the strong body of critical theory that has grown up around African American autobiography showing how both the genre and its criticism have responded to contemporary historical pressures Carol Holly explores the model of personal identity that underlies nineteenth century women's autobiographies and Blanche Gelfant examines the narrative and political strategies of Emma Goldman's autobiography especially her use of popular romance and melodrama The last essay offers a more personal perspective on contemporary autobiography a dialogue between Robert and Jane Coles about how they developed their method of eliciting first person oral narratives for their famous Children of Crisis and Women of Crisis series These essays raise theoretical issues that are examined in Paul John Eakin's incisive introduction How do we define a literary genre of protean shape and perplexing cultural multiplicity How do we approach the special problems created by documents that are both historical and literary texts ones that pose difficult questions about truth and representation Most important how is the canon of American autobiography to be constructed and how is its history to be written Tracing that critical history Eakin explains how changing ideas about the mainstream and the marginal have revitalized our retrospective view of American autobiography and opened up new and exciting prospects for today's reader Modernity and Autobiography in Nineteenth-Century America James E. Dobson, 2017-09-14 This book examines temporal and formal disruptions found in American autobiographical narratives produced during the end of the nineteenth century It argues that disruptions were primarily the result of encounters with new communication and transportation technologies Through readings of major autobiographical works of the period James E Dobson argues that the range of affective responses to writing communicating and traveling at increasing speed and distance were registered in this literature's formal innovation These autobiographical works Dobson claims complicate our understanding of the lived experience of time temporality and existing accounts of periodization This study first examines the competing views of space and time in the nineteenth century and then moves to examine how high speed train travel altered American literary regionalism the region and history Later chapters examine two narratives of failed homecoming that are deeply ambivalent about modernity and technology Henry James's The American Scene and Theodore Dreiser's A Hoosier Holiday before a reading of the telephone network as a metaphor for historiography and autobiography in Henry Adams's The Education of Henry Adams

American Lives Robert F. Sayre, 1994 American Lives is a groundbreaking book the first historically organized anthology of American autobiographical writing bringing us fifty five voices from throughout the nation's history from Abigail Adams Abraham Lincoln Jonathan Edwards and Richard Wright to Quaker preacher Elizabeth Ashbridge con man Stephen Burroughs and circus impresario P T Barnum Representing canonical and non canonical writers slaves and slave owners generals and conscientious objectors scientists immigrants and Native Americans the pieces in this collection make up a rich gathering of American songs of ourselves Robert F Sayre frames the selections with an overview of theory and criticism of autobiography and with commentary on the relation between history and many kinds of autobiographical texts travel narratives stories of captivity diaries of sexual liberation religious conversions accounts of political disillusionment and discoveries of ethnic identity With each selection Sayre also includes an extensive headnote providing valuable critical and biographical information A scholarly and popular landmark American Lives is a book for general readers and for teachers students and every American scholar

Realist Poetics in American Culture, 1866-1900 Elizabeth Renker, 2018-05-25 The terms poetry and realism have a complex and often oppositional relationship in American literary histories of the postbellum period The core narrative holds that realism the major literary movement of the era developed apace in prose fiction while poetry stuck in a hopelessly idealist late Romantic mode languished and stagnated Poetry is almost entirely absent from scholarship on American literary realism except as the emblem of realism's opposite a desiccated genteel twilight of the poets Realist Poetics in American Culture 1866-1900 refutes the familiar narrative of postbellum poetics as a scene of failure and it recovers the active and variegated practices of a diverse array of realist poets across print culture The triumph of the twilight tale in the twentieth century obscured minimized and flattened the many poetic discourses of the age including but not limited to a significant body of realist poems currently missing from US literary histories Excavating an extensive archive of realist poems the volume offers a significant revision to the genre exclusive story of realism and by extension to the very foundations of postbellum American literary history dating back to the earliest stages of the discipline

The Tradition of Women's Autobiography Estelle C. Jelinek, 2004-03-19 Revised Lives William Pannapacker, 2004-02-15 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company

Representations of Childhood in American Modernism Mason Phillips, 2016-10-31 This book documents American modernism's efforts to disenchant adult and child readers alike of the essentialist view of childhood as redemptive originary and universal For James Barnes Du Bois and Stein the twentieth century's move to position the child at the center of the self and society raised concerns about the shrinking value of maturity and prompted a critical response that imagined childhood and children's narratives in ways virtually antagonistic to both In this original study Mason Phillips argues that American modernism's widespread critique of childhood led to some of the period's most meaningful and most misunderstood experiments with interiority narration and children's literature Intensely Family Carol Holly, 1995 Examines the heritage of failure and shame in the lives of Henry James 1843-1916 and his father his strategies for self protection and vocational success in his A Small Boy and Others the biographical consequences of his autobiography and the divided messages he transmits in his subsequent book about his brother Paper edition unseen 23 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Multicultural Autobiography James Robert Payne, 1992 Folio Ronnie Scott, Elizabeth MacFarlane, Gabriel Clark, Pat Grant, Meg O'Shea, 2025-08-20 How are Australian comics made and read How do changes in comics and graphic storytelling over the past forty years intersect with our changing ideas about history culture community creativity and technology In Folio Essays on Australian Comics interdisciplinary scholars and world leading makers pose questions about Australian comics including through visual essays asking how comics move out into community industry society and disciplines both cognate and distant It first examines the cultures and communities of Australian comics from Indigenous cultural contexts to DIY zine fairs and international markets to the graphic recording industry It then focuses on practices and readings of individual comics exploring individual practices and analysing Australian work from government commissioned comics with explicit social purpose to comics that employ augmented reality Chapter 2 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial NoDerivatives 4.0 International License via link.springer.com

A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L. Harner's Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse's volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal Autobiographical Occasions and Original Acts Albert E. Stone, 1982-09 Stone rescues autobiography from the thickets of recent critical theory in which the life portrayed has often seemed less important than the inventive literary techniques He argues that the techniques are important because knowledge of the life is important to our culture Restricting himself primarily to 16 writers of the 20th century Stone juxtaposes two or three figures in given chapters such as Becoming a Woman in Male America Margaret Mead and Anais Nin and Two Recreate One The Act of Collaboration in Recent Black Autobiography Ossie Guffy Nate Shaw Malcolm X Other writers considered are W. E. B. DuBois Henry Adams Black Elk Thomas Merton Louis Sullivan Richard Wright Norman Mailer
