

Educating for Christian Missions

Second Edition

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

"Teaching them to observe all things
whosoever I have commanded you:
and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

Matthew 28:19-20

Educating for Christian Missions, 1981 Educating for Christian Missions Arthur Lonzo Walker, 1981-01-01

Mission to Educate William H. Taylor, 2023-09-20 By using primary sources this case study seeks to shed new light on the nature and extent of European in this case Scottish educational pioneering work in Africa in this case eastern Nigeria It examines the essential differences between a the pre colonial period b the colonial period and c the pre independence period It argues that non formal community and political education were continuously as central to the Christian here Presbyterian missionaries work as was the formal schooling of the young females as well as males While the curricula reflected the missionaries religious objectives and later the colonial government s the evidence demonstrates an on going commitment to the personal and social development of pupils and their parents and their society The Presbyterians encouraged the emergence of an independent Nigerian church and in their schools a pride in being Nigerian Toward the Twenty-first Century in Christian Mission James M. Phillips, Robert T. Coote, 1993 This unique volume offers a comprehensive survey of the prospects and critical issues for the Christian world mission The essays written by various mission experts cover such topics as the biblical and theological basis of the mission women in mission urban mission dialogues with other faiths the anthropology of popular religions and more Educational Missions in India John M'Murtrie, Church of Scotland. Committee for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, 1890 Missionary Collegiate Education in the Presidency of Madras, India Rajah Bhushanam Manikam, 1929 Religion in Multicultural Education Farideh Salili, Rumjahn Hoosain, 2006-05-01 The National Association for Multicultural Education in Washington D C listed a number of issues that the school curriculum should address with reference to multicultural education including racism sexism classism linguisticism ablism ageism heterosexism and religious intolerance It is noteworthy that of all these issues religion is about the only one that throughout history people are willing to die for although whether what is at issue is really religion or other things such as territory is another matter It is also interesting that all the others have isms in their names but religious issues are characterized by intolerance Perhaps we should try to understand this intolerance and look at what steps might help to alleviate it However while intolerance might seem a simple thing understanding what is behind it and how it plays such a crucial role in religion requires what we refer to in the Introduction chapter as a multifaceted approach at multiple levels It is not enough just to try to dispel stereotypes of followers of other religions or to point out commonalities in world religions We should for example try to understand and appreciate how adherents of other religions try to answer questions regarding their adaptation to the contemporary environment It is through understanding how different religions coexist side by side at various levels that we truly come to learn about religion in multicultural education Educating All Children Joel E. Cohen, David Elliot Bloom, Martin B. Malin, 2006 Experts illuminate the challenges of achieving universal basic and secondary education discussing the importance and difficulties not only of expanding access to education and but also of improving the quality of education The Conquering Christ ...: The senior teacher, an aid in teaching ... The conquering Christ Ilseley Boone, 1910 The Missionary Herald, 1879 Vols for 1828 1934 contain the Proceedings at large of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions Conservative in Theology, Liberal in Spirit Karl Dahlfred, 2024-11-21 In the early twentieth century theological modernism was gaining ground in the Presbyterian Church in the U S A Conservatives claimed that there were modernists on the mission field but that the Board of Foreign Missions was doing nothing about it In Thailand the executive secretary of the American Presbyterian mission did not want to address the issue claiming that almost all of our Mission are conservative in their theology and liberal in their spirit But was it true In this book Karl Dahlfred explores letters reports and other primary sources to reveal instances and indicators of modernism among Presbyterian missionaries in Thailand Officially committed to making disciples of Jesus Christ American Presbyterian missionaries were increasingly divided over what that meant and how to carry out their task Were schools or evangelism the best mode of Christian influence Did the gospel need adjustment for the modern world The mission formally maintained a conservative consensus yet modernism was present And fundamentalist minded missionaries were not happy about it Scholars missionaries Thai Christians and anyone interested in mission history or the long term trajectory of Protestant work in Thailand will enjoy this exploration of an overlooked chapter in the history of Christianity in Thailand Christian Mission Dana L. Robert, 2011-09-09 CHRISTIAN MISSION Dana Robert distils a quarter of a century of her research into an erudite and accessible single volume account of how Christianity became the largest religious tradition in the world There is no better place for any reader to start becoming informed about this important subject David Hempton Harvard University Remarkable for the range and depth of the material Robert is able to pack into so short a book Reliable and readable it is especially valuable for its treatment of the relation between western and non western missionary activity David A Hollinger University of California Berkeley Dana Robert s richly textured book shows us that the history of Christian missions is far from being merely a European colonial story and will be immensely valuable to students and general readers who are concerned to uncover the historical roots of Christianity s current status as a truly global faith Brian Stanley University of Edinburgh The Gospels record that Christ commanded his disciples to go forth and teach all nations Thus began the history of Christian mission a phenomenon which brought about massive shifts in the nature and practice of Christianity and one that many say reflects the single most important movement of intercultural encounter over a sustained period of human history To understand Christianity as a global movement therefore it is essential to study the role of mission defined as the transmission of the Gospel across cultures Erudite and enlightening this brief book explores the 2 000 years of mission history covering topics such as the meaning of the missionary through history gender and missions and missions in culture and politics Given that in the twenty first century Christianity is now largely practiced outside the West Christian Mission is an inspirational and invaluable resource to broaden our understanding of the nature of Christianity as a truly multi cultural
