Education and Urban Renaissance Roald Fay Campbell, Lucy Ann Marx, Raphael O. Nystrand, 1968      Education and Urban Renaissance; Papers. Edited by Roald F. Campbell, Lucy Ann Marx (And) Raphael O. Nystrand National Conference on the Educational Dimension of the Model Cities Program, University of Chicago, 1967, 1969      Education and Urban Renaissance Roald F. Campbell, 1969      EDUCATION AND URBAN RENAISSANCE- BASED ON PAPERS PRESENTED AT THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE EDUCATIONAL DIMENSION OF THE MODEL CITIES PROGRAM. ,      Education and Urban Renaissance , 1969      Urban Renaissance? Imrie, Rob, Raco, Mike, 2003-05-21 This book documents and assesses the core of New Labour's approach to the revitalisation of cities that is the revival of citizenship democratic renewal and the participation of communities to spear head urban change In doing so the book explores the meaning and relevance of community as a focus for urban renaissance It interrogates the conceptual and ideological content of New Labour's conceptions of community and through the use of case studies evaluates how far and with what effects such conceptions are shaping contemporary urban policy and practice The book is an important text for students and researchers in geography urban studies planning sociology and related disciplines It will also be of interest to officers working in local and central government voluntary organisations community groups and those with a stake in seeking to enhance democracy and community involvement in urban policy and practice      Housing and Planning References , 1970      Research in Education , 1971      Urban Regeneration in the UK Andrew Tallon, 2013-06-07 Striking transformations are taking place in the urban landscape The regeneration of urban areas in the UK and around the world has become an increasingly important issue amongst governments and populations since the global economic downturn This textbook provides an accessible and critical synthesis of urban regeneration in the UK analyzing key policies approaches issues and debates It places the historical and contemporary regeneration agenda in context The second edition has been extensively revised and updated to incorporate advances in literature policy and case study examples as well as giving greater discussion to the New Labour period of urban policy and the urban agenda and regeneration policies of the Conservative Liberal Democrat Coalition government elected in 2010 The book is divided into five sections with Section I establishing the conceptual and political framework for urban regeneration in the UK Section II traces policies that have been adopted by central government to influence the social economic and physical development of cities including early town and country and housing initiatives community focused urban policies of the late 1960s entrepreneurial property led regeneration of the 1980s competition for urban funds in the 1990s urban renaissance and neighborhood renewal policies of the late 1990s and early 2000s and new approaches since 2010 which have sought to stimulate enterprise and embrace localism in an age of austerity resulting from the global economic downturn Section III illustrates the key thematic policies and strategies that have been pursued by cities themselves focusing particularly on improving economic competitiveness tackling social disadvantage and promoting sustainable urban regeneration Section IV summarizes key issues and debates facing urban regeneration in the early 2010s and speculates upon future directions in an era of economic and political uncertainty Urban Regeneration in the UK combines the approaches taken by central government and cities themselves to regenerate urban areas providing a comprehensive and up to date synthesis of the field Each chapter also contains case studies study questions suggested further reading and websites making this an essential resource for undergraduate students interested in Urban Studies Model Schools in the Model City Amber N. Wiley,2025-04-22 Access to educational resources has been a tool of liberation for Black Americans from the antebellum period to the present With this book Amber N Wiley emphasizes the value of education as a means for social equality Black Americans wanted the American Dream to apply to them and equal opportunity for quality education was at the forefront of making that dream a reality Model Schools in the Model City chronicles how Black Washingtonians used public education as a means of racial uplift in the face of entrenched white resistance and repeated assertions of white supremacy For Black Washingtonians it was the school building a permanent structure made of sturdy material that was the physical realization of Black liberation agency and the right to exist as citizens of the United States Furthermore it was the school building that stood as the litmus test to whether Black Washingtonians citizenship was perpetually guaranteed thus they fought with all the tools at their disposal to maintain access to quality education in the nation's capital In this book Wiley recounts the untold story of Black Washingtonians educational ambitions especially as they were manifested in the schools themselves
