the National Center for Research in the Learning and Teaching of Literature Their intent was to study the teaching and impact of multicultural literature The team examined how students approached texts that either came from their culture or from another and how teachers perceived the students the literature and their role This volume details various aspects of their findings Pluralistic Approaches to Art Criticism Douglas Emerson Blandy, Kristin G. Congdon, 1991 Contributors to this anthology analyze the contemporary academic methods for critiquing art and suggest new ways that might further our understandings of art created by myriad individuals and groups The essays give readers further insight into a diverse range of artistic creators often overlooked in art world studies Encyclopedia of Educational Psychology Neil J.
