The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997      Books in Series ,1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles      Resources in Education ,1994      Education, Race, and Social Change in South Africa John A. Marcum,2023-04-28 Education Race and Social Change in South Africa examines the deep rooted issues of higher education in South Africa highlighting the complex interplay between race politics and access to education Beginning with the colonial foundations of South African higher education in the early 19th century it traces the development of institutions such as the University of Cape Town and the University of Fort Hare reflecting the segregated nature of the education system As the country transitioned to a republic in the 20th century the policies of apartheid shaped the university landscape leading to the creation of separate institutions for various racial groups The book explores how these divisions have persisted particularly in the context of racial inequalities in enrollment and access to quality education with black students historically underrepresented in South Africa s leading universities The study also delves into the evolving nature of South African higher education in the face of racial segregation examining the impact of political shifts on the educational landscape With the rise of the National Party in 1948 and the implementation of strict segregation policies the book explores the creation of ethnic universities for non white students and the ongoing challenges faced by these institutions in providing quality education The book raises critical questions about the future of education in South Africa focusing on the need for reform to bridge the educational divide address teacher shortages and promote greater racial integration within universities It also considers the role of international collaboration and aid in fostering educational opportunities for black South Africans and suggests possible pathways for achieving equitable educational access This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1982      Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09      Book Review Digest ,1984 Excerpts from and citations to reviews of more than 8 000 books each year drawn from coverage of 109 publications Book Review Digest provides citations to and excerpts of reviews of current juvenile and adult fiction and nonfiction in the English language Reviews of the following types of books are excluded government publications textbooks and technical books in the sciences and law Reviews of books on science for the general reader however are included The reviews originate in a group of selected periodicals in the humanities social sciences and general science published in the United States Canada and Great Britain Publisher      Bibliographic Guide to Education ,1983      Poetic Inquiry as Social Justice and Political Response Abigail Cloud,Sandra L. Faulkner,2019-12-02 This volume speaks to the use of poetry in critical qualitative research and practice focused on social justice In this collection poetry is a response a call to action agitation and a frame for future social justice work The authors engage with poetry s potential for connectivity political power and evocation through methodological theoretical performative and empirical work The poet researchers consider questions of how poetry and Poetic Inquiry can be a response to political and social events be used as a pedagogical tool to critique inequitable social structures and how Poetic Inquiry speaks to our local identities and politics The authors answer the question What spaces can poetry create for dialogue about critical awareness social justice and re visioning of social cultural and political worlds This volume adds to the growing body of Poetic Inquiry through the demonstration of poetry as political action response and reflective practice We hope this collection inspires you to write and engage with political poetry to realize the power of poetry as political action response and reflective practice American Book Publishing Record ,2001 Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,1992 Student Culture and Activism in Black South African Universities Mokubung Nkomo,1984-12-19

Turmoil in higher education has mounted in South Africa to a level wherein black institutions have been virtually paralyzed by conflict and occasionally transformed into armed garrisons How this situation has come about is the subject of Nkomo s study The author demonstrates that segregated education for blacks has inadvertently produced a distinct and contradictory culture of resistance for a substantial part of the African student body Ethnic African universities have become cradles of vociferous student resistance to apartheid and have nurtured a new generation of activists responding to factors external to the formal university structure and curriculum Nkomo provides a comprehensive and critical analysis of the principal legislation and subsequent amendments the ethnic racial personnel composition structures and curricula of the institutions expenditures and the promotion of an official institutional culture that seeks to impose an Afrikaner orientation and produce sycophantic African student graduates A demonstration of the profound interplay of politics and education the book reveals African students to be dynamic actors within the educational arena Southern Africa ,1981 Africa News ,1983 A weekly digest of African affairs Books in Print Supplement ,1984 Property, Institutions, and Social Stratification in Africa Franklin Obeng-Odoom,2020-03-26 In this book Franklin Obeng Odoom seeks to carefully explain engage and systematically question the existing explanations of inequalities within Africa and between Africa and the rest of the world using insights from the emerging field of stratification economics Drawing on multiple sources including archival and historical material and a wide range of survey data he develops a distinctive approach that combines key concepts in original institutional economics such as reasonable value property and the distribution of wealth with other insights into Africa s development and underdevelopment While looking at the Africa wide situation Obeng Odoom also analyzes the experiences of inequalities within specific countries Comprehensive and engaging Property Institutions and Social Stratification in Africa is a useful resource for teaching and research on Africa and the Global South Library of Congress Catalog: Motion Pictures and Filmstrips Library of Congress,1968 Southern African Update ,1987 A Comparative
