FUNDAMENTALS OF

EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION, MANAGEMENT AND ORGANIZATION Dr. Shauli Mukherjee, Dr. Prarthita Biswas, Mr. Pranay Pandey & Mr. MAM Sameem, 2022-03-16 Introduction Education is a complex process which involves different components such as pupils teachers employees building money equipment rules and regulations etc All these components have to be managed properly in order to run the entire process smoothly Educational Administration deals with all these components of education and integrates the different parts into a comprehensive whole for the smooth functioning of educational process We all know that for any process to run we need different components a proper procedure and a machinery to fulfill its specific end in view Educational administration is a comprehensive effort to integrate different components of education to achieve the aim and objectives of education It is a dynamic side of education which generally deals with the educational practices Educational administration always deals with an educational organization or institution right from school college to university or any other seat of higher learning It also deals with the different aspects of education such as planning decision making implementation of educational policies evaluation framing and implementing rules and regulations of the institution finances and different problems of pupils teachers employees and above all realization of some specific aims of education Educational Administration and Leadership David Burgess, Paul Newton, 2014-12-05

This volume provides diverse perspectives and paradigms in educational administration and leadership Focusing on particular philosophical and theoretical schools of thought it traces the contemporary history of debates in the field while also exploring emerging non traditional schools for insight and potential contributions to educational administration in multi cultural contexts It critically examines trends and issues in society and their impact on educational theory and gives an overview of the scholarly study of organizations administration and leadership to develop introductory understandings of significant concepts and theories School Administration Stanley W. Williams, 1983 The Postmodern Challenge to the Theory and Practice of Educational Administration Fenwick W. English, 2003 Based on nearly a decade of scholarship this is a highly focused book on the implications of postmodernism for the construction and assessment of theory and practice in educational administration Current ideas of practice are deconstructed from the notions of sound research to the use of national standards in the preparation of educational leaders along with ways of examining and resolving the theory practice gap Part One of the book contains chapters dealing with the rise of postmodernism and describes its broad based dissent from a century of thought in the field including a penetrating examination of whether the concept of a field itself is viable Part Two of the book explores the many ramifications of postmodernism to practice beginning with ideas concerning educational research These chapters tackle the tough issues of the efficacy of the Interstate Leaders Licensure Standards ISLLC and the national exam as examples of job deskilling and deprofessionalization in the guise of raising standards of preparation of future educational leaders Other chapters deal with deconstructing the popular managerial ideas contained in Stephen Covey's works and dispute Joe Murphy's call for a new center of gravity in the field as reinforcing the status quo Finally the book tackles the issue of the theory practice gap and indicates that new and progressive theories which anticipate problems of practice are what is required to deal with this persistent issue The book contains many helpful exhibits in understanding the issues concerning theory and practice as well as a glossary of terms most commonly found in postmodern discourse This book is designed for college and university programs engaged in the preparation of educational leaders for elementary secondary schools and college administrative positions
