Educational Psychology: Constructing Learning Dennis M McInerney, 2013-08-15 Educational Psychology Constructing Learning 6e sets the standard for educational psychology texts in Australia and New Zealand with its comprehensive authoritative and research based coverage of the subject. This edition includes completely updated content to reflect recent advances in the discipline including revised theory into practice features from 39 international developmental psychologists. The author has retained the constructivist approach that made previous editions so engaging and relevant to student teachers and content has been constructed around the new Australian Profession Standards for Teachers.

Developing Effective 16-19 Teaching Skills John Butcher, 2004-11-25 Developing Effective 16-19 Teaching Skills aims to enhance the competence of student teachers in secondary schools and FE college as they confront sixteen to nineteen teaching for the first time. Based around the new standards set out in Qualifying to Teach and the Fento standards, the book will help student teachers address the different teaching strategies needed to teach post sixteen students. The book will also appeal to practising teachers who are looking for a fresh perspective. Full of case studies and questions for reflection, this comprehensive textbook includes chapters on sixteen to nineteen teaching, contextualized effectiveness, defined avoiding preconceptions, sixteen to nineteen planning for differentiation, subject expertise, assessment, sixteen to nineteen active learning in the sixteen to nineteen classroom, the importance of the tutor role in sixteen to nineteen teaching, learning with colleagues, developing a career in sixteen to nineteen teaching, Emphasizing the minimal attention given to sixteen to nineteen teaching in the Standards for Secondary QTS, the book is organized to prompt trainee teachers to draw more fully on sixteen to nineteen evidence and enhance their competence and confidence in teaching that phase. Trainee college teachers are also given a route to meeting the FENTO standards.

Developing Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Gill Nicholls, 2002-11 This book provides an easy and accessible approach to the planning and preparation of teaching sessions, teaching in different settings and teaching across a diverse student population.
